

LIBERAL CONVENTION

Party Gathering Will Select a Winner at the Opera House Saturday Afternoon.

The Liberals of York will meet in convention at the Opera House on Saturday afternoon to select a candidate to contest the county for the House of Commons. All reports go to show that there will be a big attendance of delegates and it goes without saying that the convention's choice will be the country's next representative at Ottawa.

Arrangements have been made with the Intercolonial and Canadian Pacific Railways for one fare excursions rates for delegates to the convention.

A strong committee has been appointed to decorate the opera house and make all arrangements for the big gathering.

Immediately following the convention there will be a public meeting to be addressed by Hon. William Pugsley, Minister of Public Works, Mr. E. H. McAlpine, K. C., and others.

All friends and supporters of the Liberal Government are invited to attend the convention and take a hand in the work of redeeming York from Toryism.

HAD TO TOE THE MARK

Justice Thomas Has a Grievance Against a Member of the Police Force.

Mr. Justice Thomas has a grievance against Sergeant Phillips of the police force, and promises to make trouble. Yesterday afternoon just prior to the commencement of the Tory meeting the Sergeant and City

Marshal Roberts were on duty at the Opera house steps. Mr. Borden and his lieutenant had just alighted from a barouche, and the orders given to the policemen were to keep the passage clear so that they could ascend the steps. The only one to disregard the injunction of the officers was Justice Thomas. He started down the steps to greet the Tory leader and was promptly ordered back by Sergeant Phillips. Of course he lost his temper at such an indignity being heaped upon him one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, but he went back just the same. This morning he called upon Chairman Johnston of the police commission and gave vent to his wrath, but as Mr. Johnston was eye witness of the incident he did not give the Justice much encouragement. As might be expected Justice is not yet satisfied.

MARRIED.

At the Methodist Parsonage on Wednesday, Sept. 16th, by Rev. J. W. McConnell Chester Smith, of Oromocto, N. B., to Janet Armstrong, of French Lake, N. B.

At the home of the bride's parents, on Wednesday, Sept. 16th, by Rev. J. W. McConnell, Walter C. Gillis, of Ottawa, to Amelia W. L. Tibbits, youngest daughter of R. W. L. Tibbits, Esq.

At the residence of Wm. Blair, St. Mary's, on Wednesday evening, Sept. 16th, by Rev. E. E. Mowatt, Minnie Louise Hamilton, of Upper Maguadavic, to Daniel Duffy of St. John.

WATER VERY LOW.

Although the water in the river is lower than it has been for several years it is worth calling attention to the fact that there is not a single case of typhoid fever in the city at the present time. Who will say that the installation of a modern sewerage system and a filtration plant was not a good thing for the city.

MORE WEDDINGS.

Well Known Young People Pledge Their Truth at the Matrimonial Altar

HOWLAND-MEADE.

A very pretty wedding took place last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Meade, King street, when their daughter, Miss Mary E., was led to the altar by Mr. Cyrus I. Howland of Lincoln. The ceremony which took place at 8 p.m., was performed by Rev. A. A. Rideout, and was witnessed by a large number of invited guests. Miss Florence Rickard of Gibson, acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. Parker Howland, brother of the groom, performed the duties of best man. The bride was given away by her father. The home was very tastefully decorated for the occasion, and the bridal party stood beneath an evergreen arch.

The bride was neatly gowned in white silk, while the bridesmaid was attired in mauve taffeta. Each carried a beautiful bouquet. After the ceremony a sumptuous repast was served.

The bride was the recipient of many useful and valuable presents, including a substantial check. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome clock, to the bridesmaid a set brooch, and to the best man a set of cuff links. Mr. and Mrs. Howland left this morning for Stillwater, Me., where for a time they will make their home.

McELMAN-LIPSETT.

At 7.30 p.m., last evening the parsonage on George street was the scene of a pretty wedding, when Miss Maud Lipsett of Nashwaak Bridge, was united in marriage to Mr. Fred McElman of Gibson. Rev. A. A. Rideout tied the nuptial knot. The ceremony was witnessed by a number of friends of the young couple. The bride was neatly attired in a blue travelling suit. Mr. and Mrs. McElman left last evening for St. John. They will make their home at Gibson.

GALLISHAN-BUSTIN.

Last evening at the George street parsonage, the marriage took place of Miss Mary Bustin to Mr. Emery Gallishan, both of Stanley. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. A. Rideout. Mr. and Mrs. Gallishan leave today for Stanley, where they will in future reside.

CAMPBELL-KILBURN.

The residence of Mr. Charles Kilburn, Central Kingsclear, was the scene of a pretty wedding yesterday afternoon, when his daughter, Miss Eliza Kilburn, recently matron of the Woodstock hospital, became the wife of Mr. W. A. Campbell, a popular merchant of Boiestown. The bride's brother-in-law, Rev. J. S. Gregg of Bay Verte, tied the nuptial knot in the presence of relatives and friends. The happy couple drove to the city last evening, and this morning they left by boat for St. John, enroute to Boston, on their honeymoon.

BIRD-GOODSPEED.

At the bride's home at Peniac, Wednesday afternoon, Rev. G. B. Trafton performed the ceremony uniting in marriage Mr. Tilley Bird of Birdton and Miss Grace Goodspeed, daughter of Mr. Charles N. Goodspeed of Peniac. The bride was the recipient of many valuable presents. The happy couple will take a honeymoon trip to Lynn, Mass., before taking up their abode at Birdton.

FITZGERALD-WETMORE.

Mr. Thomas Fitzgerald of Calgary, formerly of St. John, was married at St. John this afternoon, to Miss May Wetmore of St. John West. Miss Wetmore was formerly organist of St. Dunstan's church in this city, and has a large number of friends here.

SOME STARS.

Miss Elfreda Lasche, who played with the Selman company for the first time last evening, is a most pleasing young lady. The audience was perfectly delighted with her interpretation of Lois Holcomb in "Sweet Clover." This company indeed has some stars, the equal of whom are seldom, if ever, seen in Fredericton. For example what fault could be found with Miss DuBois in the character of Mrs. Sholto in "Sherlock Holmes," or Antoinette in "The Prisoner of Zenda?" But her part of Abigail in "Sweet Clover," was simply perfect. She has so thoroughly mastered the little details in the character of the plain, practical country woman that they seem to be part of her natural self. Then there is Robert Robson, who in "Sweet Clover," Mr. Robson created this role in the original production, and he is too comical for anything. In fact the whole company is "all right."

PERSONAL MENTION.

Movements of People in whom our Readers are Interested.

Recorder and Mrs. T. H. Colter left this morning for Boston to visit their daughter Mrs. Dr. King and other relatives.

Miss Nellie Jarvis is in St. John attending the exhibition.

Mr. Harry Lunny, of St. John, a former U. N. B. student, now on the Transcontinental survey at Chipman, is ill at that place with diphtheria.

Miss Lou A. Anderson has returned from St. John where he has been the guest of Mr. S. A. McLeod.

Major D. I. V. Eaton, of headquarters staff, Ottawa, has joined Mrs. Eaton here for a short vacation.

Mr. R. A. Lawlor barrister of Chatham, was among the guests at the Queen.

Mr. W. C. Gilles and bride left last evening for St. John en route to the upper provinces. A bon fire blazed on George Street in honor of the young couple and they were given a rousing send off at the railway station.
