A FINAL WORD TO THE ELECTORS

VICTORY ASSURED.

We go to the polls tomorrow confident of victory. That is conceded by our opponents. Since the campaign opened a stream of men at one time favorable to license have come over to our ranks. What we want is a sweeping majority which will be regarded as the peoples' mandate calling for a strict and vigorous enforcement of the Act.

THE REAL LICENSE LEADERS.

It is now known beyond question that chief among the license leaders—the generals, captains, and lieutenants are Thomas Feeney, E. Dewar, Howard Crangle, John Johnson, T. E. Monahan, J. Sullivan, John McCoy and others in the illicit trade. Many respectable citizens, dissatisfied with the administration of the Scott Act decided in favor of license without stopping to consider who were the men promoting the repeal movement. Let every voter look over the names of the champions of license and ask himself: "Am I willing to follow such leadership?"

When a respectable doctor honestly answers that question we need have no fear as to the issue.

APPEAL OF THE WOMEN.

Fourteen hundred women, the home-makers of our city, with that instinctive dread of every thing evil that would invade the sacred precincts of their homes, have petitioned the electors asking them to represent the women at the polls, and thus protect those who cannot protect themselves. Contrast their appeal with the frantic scream of "Lady Ratepayer" who in the papers last night asked to give license a chance. That "Lady Ratepayer" is the same person who masqueraded in so many fancy costumes during the last four months and presented his old womanish arguments. The appeal of 1400 of the best women in the city cannot be lightly disregarded by manly men who love their homes and honor the women who make these homes.

THE OFFICIAL BALLOT.

In marking your ballot be sure to put your X opposite the words "For the Act" in the lower space. "Against the Act" is on the official ballot printed in red ink and indicates danger. Pray you avoid it.
