THE MARINE ENQUIRY. STRAITS NAVIGATION.

Commander Spain Mentions a Matter of $500 from the Polson Co.

BUT CLAIMS HE RETURNED THE AMOUNT

The Company's Books do not Bear Him Out in His Assertion.

OTTAWA, Dec. 16—(Special)—Commander Spain was the first witness in the Marine Enquiry this morning. He stated that he had in 1904, received $500 from the Polson Iron Works. However, it had been sent to him at Victoria to purchase real estate in Fort Simpson, where he was going. However, he had not gone there and had returned the money in the same bills as he had received the amount to Frank Polson in Toronto on his return home.

He had only undertaken to purchase the property to oblige Frank Polson who was a friend of his.

William Tindall, president of the Polson Company testified that there was no evidence in the books of the repayment of the amount. Mr. Polson died two years ago.

To Judge Cassels, Mr. Tindall said that he could not say whether or not Mr. Polson pocketed the $500 as would appear, if Commander Spain's statement was correct.

Steamer Stanley Ordered on the Island-Pictou Route to Relieve Freight Congestion.

CHARLOTTETOWN, Dec. 16.—(Special)—After considerable agitation among the shippers of Summerside, with Hon. Joseph Read in the lead, supported by J. W. Richards, M. P., and Premier Haszard, the department of Marine ordered the steamer Stanley to run between Summerside and Tormentine, to relieve the congestion of freight developed at the former place on the withdrawal of the Empress to Charlottetown. She will carry freight and passengers until ordered back to Charlottetown to run in conjunction with the Minto on the Pictou route, when the Steam Navigation Company's boats, now running, will give up the service.

Shepherd and MacDonald, the two Jail Dealers, were tried in the magistrate's court today, and sent up to the Supreme court.

EDITORIAL COMMENT. WINIS AN ACCOUNTING?

Mr. Pinder is understood to have "a hen on" at Nackawick, hatching out the conspiracy with which he expects to overwhelm the local government. He has borrowed the incalculator from Ottawa, which did such effective work against Sir MacKenzie Bowell in 1896, and anticipates excellent results.

The Central Railway enquiry resumed today at St. John, has up to the present been very disappointing to Mr. Hazen. The witnesses yet to be examined include Hon. Dr. Pugsley and Mr. E. G. Evans, and it is not anticipated that the testimony of the minister of railways will be able to add much that will be encouraging to the inquisitors.

The Fredericton Gleaner has suddenly dropped discussion of local politics, it no longer demands the dismissal of Mr. Morrissy from the government, it does not even publish pictures of government members as usual, but is devoting considerable of its space to illustrating Mr. Hazen's Kentucky race horses, which are boarding in the blue grass state at the rate of $15 each per month, this province paying the bills.

His Lordship Bishop Richardson says Anglicans will not hitch up with the Non-conformists of Canada unless "the historic episcopate" is permitted to go into the union, but there is not much likelihood of the confederation of all the Protestant denominations in this country. The Methodists, Presbyterians, Congregationalists and Baptists would consider bishops as unnecessary institutions in church government.

Premier Hazen is understood to be lying awake at nights in dread of the approach and demands of the prohibitionists. Mr. Hazen has never been distinguished as a leader in the temperance cause, and he may find considerable difficulty in adjusting himself and his party to the conditions with which they will shortly be confronted. The opposition leader on the other hand seems to be qualifying by a preliminary cantor with the Scott Act advocates of Westmorland.

The Scott Act campaign in Westmorland ends at the polls on Friday, and there seems to be some doubt as to the result, although the friends of the law profess confidence in winning. That county has had six Scott Act elections since the Act was first adopted in 1879, and the Act was sustained on every occasion, with the following majorities:

1881	783
1884	73
1888	766
1896	277
1899	235

The garden of the new house of the Rev. Mr. Erown backed against the play yard of an orphan asylum. Eight-year-old Johnny Brown was allowed to scale the fence and play with the orphans. Presently Mrs. Brown noticed that her apple supply was dropping low. She asked Master Johnny if he were not eating a good many apples for a small boy.

"Yes, mother," he replied, "I got to."

"Oh, indeed!" queried Mrs. Brown. "Are you quite sure?"

"Oh, yes, mother; they're needed. I just got to eat all I can stuff down."

"But why, my dear?"

"Because," said Johnny earnestly, "the orphans need the cores."

Mr. F. G. Spencer of St. John, is among the guests at the Queen today.

Suit against two Conservatives

EX-W. P.'S.

An interesting case is set for hearing in the Equity Court, St. John on Tuesday next when a suit brought by Albert B. Pugsley, of Sussex, against George W. Fowler and Rufus H. Pope, ex-M. P.'s will come up for hearing.

The matter has to do with transactions in western lands. The pleadings of the plaintiff declare that Mr. Pugsley subscribed $200 to a fund for investment in lands and he claims that a gross profit of some $200,000 was made. He now asks for an accounting, claiming that he is entitled to one-third of the profits as there were thirty shares in the syndicate and he held one.

The defence it is understood, claims that Mr. Pugsley's $200 represented but a preliminary sum and that he was really not a member of the syndicate.

Dr. A. W. MacRae, V. C. appears for the plaintiff and W. B. Josiah for the defendant.

DIED AT DENVER COL.

Died of tubercular meningitis at Denver Col. Dec. 8th, Robert M. Bird of Birdton N. B. at the age of 33. Besides his parents he leaves a sorrowing wife, three brothers—W. Bruce, Regina, Richie, Taunton, Tilley at home; and four sisters, Mrs. R. M. Kimball Denver, Mrs. J. M. Hooper, Lynn, Mrs. Hanford Sloat Mouth of Keswick and Miss Nellie at home. He leaves a widow, formerly Mrs. George Wardell of Brockton, Mass. Being a widow married a year. Mr. James Bird of this city is an uncle of the deceased.

Won on a Bluff.

"It does me good to meet up with one of that class of people who think they know it all," said the old man with the ancient hat. "I was coming over from Baltimore on a train the other day, and a man who was writing in a book asked me how to spell 'proper.' I told him, but a know-it-all who sat near disputed me. I bet him $10 even up that I was right and proved I was by four disinterested men. I gave the $10 to charity."

"How did the man contend the word should be spelled?" was asked.

"Why, he said there was only one 'p' in it."

"And you stuck for two, eh?"

"I did. I insisted that it was spelled 'proper' and he finally owned up like a little man and handed me over the money."

"And would you like to make the same wager again and leave it to the dictionaries?"

"Not much! I consulted 'em all next day and discovered that I had bluffed that poor chap out of his wealth."—Washington Post.

Acquitted.

Voltaire, when on his estate of Ferney, was fond of assuming the air of nobility and displayed a most philosophical hatred of poachers. One luckless fellow was caught and brought before him. Voltaire determined to try him according to law and took his seat as judge, directing his secretary to act as counsel for the prisoner. The advocate made a long speech in favor of the culprit and stopped suddenly.

"Why do you hesitate?" asked Voltaire.

"I wish to read a passage from a volume in your library."

He procured the book and silently turned its leaves. Voltaire became impatient and demanded the cause of his silence.

"Well," answered the secretary, "I have been looking for the word 'humanity,' and I see you have omitted it."

Voltaire thought the argument so forcible that he set the poacher free.

AMONG THE BOWLER.

End of the Tournament in Sight. Gamey Struggle for first place.

The excitement among the bowlers grows more intense as the end of the tournament on the Queen Hotel alleys appears in sight. Last night there were two contests between the Clerks and the Bankers the former winning and between the Departmental team and the Shoe men with the latter coming out on top. There are only two more evenings play in the tournament and it looks as if the final struggle will be between San Souci and the Shoe teams both of which have lost one and won five games of the seven games scheduled for them. This evening the San Souci play the Capitals and they feel that they can win while the Departmental men meet the Wanderers. The tournament will conclude tomorrow evening unless there is a tie with the Merchants up against the Bankers and the Shoe team vs the Clerks.

The present standing of the various teams is as follows:

	Won	Lost	Per Ct	Won
San Souci	5	1	.83
Shoe Team	5	1	.83
Departmental	4	2	.66
Merchants	3	3	.50
Clerks	3	3	.50
Wanderers	2	4	.33
Bankers	1	5	.16
Capitalists	1	5	.16

STRATLING RECORD.

35,000 Killed and 2,000,000 Injured in the United States during past year.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16—Between 30,000 and 35,000 deaths and two million injured is the accident record in the United States during the past year among workmen, according to a bulletin on accidents issued today by the Bureau of Labor.

Of these employed in factories and workshops, it is stated that probably the most exposed classes are accidents among electricians and electric workers in iron and steel. Fatal accidents among coal miners are declared to be excessive, while railway trainmen were killed in the proportion of 7.46 deaths per one thousand employees.

The bulletin declares that much that could be done for the protection of the workmen is neglected, though many and far reaching improvements have been introduced in factory practice during the last decade.

HISTORIC EPISCOPATE

Must be preserved if Anglicans go in for Church Union says Bishop Richardson.

That the Anglican church cannot and will not recede from its position on the historic episcopate is the statement given out by His Lordship Bishop Richardson, to a St. John newspaper when spoken to with reference to the position of the church of England and church union.

"The position of the church," His Lordship said, "was clearly presented by the committee on union. It was the same position as taken by the Lambeth conference and reaffirmed by the General Synod of Canada.

"The historic episcopate," His Lordship said, "was an essential thing in the life of the Anglican church, and it could not possibly be surrendered.

"The Anglican communion," said His Lordship, "is anxious for the reunion of Christendom, and will not cease to hope and pray for it. His idea of reunion, however, does not necessarily involve, as some seem hastily to think the absorption of the Anglican church of other non-Episcopal churches, but the extension of the historic Episcopate to them, and the welding of all together in one body, which will not be Presbyterian or Methodist. Comprehensiveness and not uniformity will be the working principles."
