SHEFFIELD PLATE.

History of This Now Very Rare and Valuable Ware.

Sheffield plate differs from all other plated ware in that the plating was done on the sheet metal before the article was shaped. Before and since then plating of various sorts has been applied only to the finished piece, as in our electroplating process. Moreover, the plating was done on copper, while modern base metal is usually composed of an amalgam of copper, nickel and zinc.

Furthermore, it is possible for the collector to secure examples of early Georgian and so called Queen Anne work in Sheffield plate, while the rarity and high money value of silverware of that period make its acquisition extremely difficult. Sheffield plate historically and artistically is as worthy of a place beside old china and old mahogany as is old silverware.

In 1742 one Thomas Bolsover of Sheffield, England, described in the histories as an "ingenious mechanic," accidentally fused some silver and copper while repairing a knife. He began experimenting, seeking for a method of plating copper with silver for the manufacture of small articles. In 1743, together with Joseph Wilson, he set up a factory for the manufacture of buckles, snuffboxes and knife handles.

Joseph Hancock soon got hold of the secret and, perfecting it, demonstrated that it was possible to imitate the finest and most richly embossed silverware. Settling in Sheffield, he started the manufacture of all sorts of domestic pieces. Beginning modestly with horsepower, he later added water power for the rolling process. Other manufacturers followed his example, and Sheffield plate soon began to replace pewter on the tables of the English middle classes. Altogether we know of twenty-three important manufacturers of this ware.

The industry flourished until the middle of the nineteenth century, and so few pieces of copper rolled plate were made after that time that they need not concern the collector. Electroplating was discovered or invented by a medical student of Rotherham, near Sheffield, and the new process was patented on March 25, 1840. By 1850 the new ware was on the market everywhere, and the industry had been revolutionized.—Country Life in America.

Suffered 20 Years

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured in 2 Months

St. Raphael, Ont.

For over twenty years I suffered from Chronic Constipation of the bowels, and I could get no medicine to cure me. I tried doctors and every known purgative, or laxative, medicine known but I was no better. Sometimes, if I did not take medicine, I would go four or five days, without any action of the bowels. During all this time I was weak and suffered from indigestion constantly.

About a year ago a friend advised me to try "Fruit-a-tives" as they had helped her. I began taking "Fruit-a-tives" and from the outset I began to feel better, and inside of a month the pains were almost gone and the Constipation relieved. In two months I was perfectly well again, no pains, no constipation, and my complexion had lost all that sallow appearance.

(Sgd) MARY A. McDONELL.

"Fruit-a-tives"—or Fruit Liver Tablets—are the only remedy known to science that actually cure Constipation. They do this by making the liver healthy and active—thus causing more bile to flow into the bowels.

"Fruit-a-tives"—or "Fruit Liver Tablets" are sold by dealers at six a box—6 for $2.50—or will be sent on receipt of price. Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

A Strange Test of Manhood.

The ancient clan Macleod used to exercise a strange test to prove the manhood of their chieftains. At Dunvegan castle, island of Skye, there is preserved the large horn known as "Rory More's horn." This capacious vessel holds rather more than a bottle and a half of liquor. According to the old custom, every laird of Macleod was obliged on his coming of age to fill this horn with claret and without once laying it down to drain it to the dregs. This was taken as a proof of his manhood, and he was then deemed a worthy successor to the lairds of the past.—Dundee Advertiser.

Fire at Weddings.

Fire is an essential in some wedding celebrations. In Persia the service is read in front of a fire. In Nicaragua the priest, taking the couple each by the little finger, leads them to an apartment where a fire is lighted and there instructs the bride in her duties, extinguishing it by way of conclusion. In Japan the woman kindles a torch, and the bridegroom lights one from it. The playthings of the wife being burnt then and there.

BEST MEDICINE IN THE WORLD FOR COLIC AND DIARRHOEA.

"I find Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to be the best remedy in the world," says Mr. C. L. Carter of Skirum, Ala. "I am subject to colic and diarrhoea. Last spring it seemed as though I would die and I think I would if I hadn't taken Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I haven't been troubled with it since until this week, when I had a very severe attack and took half a bottle of the twenty-five cent size Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and this morning I feel like a new man." BRITANIA POST CARD CO.

54 UNION STREET, GLASGOW.

An Odd Post Card.

The most curious post card ever produced, according to a leading philatelist, was one which the Japanese government put out in 1873.

In describing he says it is "really a sheet of paper folded so as to form four pages of a narrow book. On the front page is a border enclosing an impressed stamp for the postage rate and a space for the address. On the second page are printed in native characters only minute directions for use. On the third page are ruled a number of vertical lines, between which the sender was to write his communication, and the fourth page was a blank." They remained in use until 1875.

"Eatin' a Mountain."

A good example of the caustic humor of a Scotch examiner floats this way from we know not where. It seems that Scotch parish schoolmasters are in their appointment examined as to their literary qualifications. One of the fraternity, being called by his examiner to translate Horace's ode beginning "Exegi monumentum oere perennius," began as follows: "Exegi monumentum" (I have eaten a mountain). "Ah," said one of the examiners, "ye needna proceed any further, for after eatin' sic a dinner this parish wad be a pair mouthfu' t' ye. Ye maun try some wider sphere."—Poet Lore.

Mr. C. R. Zink, a prominent citizen of Lunenburg, N. S., proved Ferrozone was a marvelous tonic and says: "Nothing I ever used gave such prompt, strengthening effect as Ferrozone. I was run down, quite nervous, no appetite and in a generally used-up condition. Ferrozone gave me a wonderful amount of new strength, quite restored my nerves and made me well. I can recommend Ferrozone to every man who works hard and needs a tonic."

By supplying nourishment and vital force to the nerves, by enriching the blood, strengthening the heart—Ferrozone is sure to help any man, woman or child in ill-health; try it—50¢ per box at all druggists.

EXPERT BOY BURGLAR

Captured, Confessed. Sentenced Within a Few Hours.

NEW YORK, July 11—Swift justice today overtook Nathan Lavine, a young burglar who capped a brief career of crime this morning by a bold attempt to chloroform and rob Mrs. Mostyn Cookson in a room in the Hotel Belmont while her husband, Major Cookson of the British army, slept only a few feet away. The Major was awakened by his wife's screams just as the robber was about to thrust a gag into her mouth after having bound her hands. He attacked the intruder, overpowered him after a sharp struggle and held him until the police arrived. A few hours later a Grand Jury returned two indictments against the young man, one for burglary and the other for assault in the first degree, and the prisoner pleaded guilty and was sentenced to serve not less than ten or more than forty years in prison. Lavine, who said he was a student and the son of a retired New York manufacturer, told the police after his arrest that he had robbed nearly every first-class hotel in the city during the past few weeks. He is about twenty years of age and was dressed in the height of fashion when he registered at the Belmont yesterday under an assumed name. He was assigned to a room adjoining that occupied by Major and Mrs. Cookson on the fourteenth floor of the hotel, and gained access to their room by way of the fire escape. In investigation by the police showed that Lavine was romancing as to his antecedents.

ST. JOHN EXHIBITION.

We have just received a copy of the St. John Exhibition Prize list. Its general make-up speaks well for Mr. R. M. Arnold, the energetic manager of the Exhibition Association. The Exhibition will open on September 12th and close on September 19th. Competition is open to the world. Fifteen thousand dollars are offered in premiums which are divided among the following sections: Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Poultry, Butter and Cheese, Agricultural Products, Horticulture, Honey and Apiary Supplies, Natural History and Fine Arts. The prizes offered are well worth going after by anyone who has "the goods."

While we have no doubt that side shows will be in evidence, we are glad to note that Manager Arnold, who is a practical farmer himself, does not attempt to hoodwink the farmers of the Province by giving these side shows so much prominence in his advertising as has been customary heretofore. Mr. Arnold has a different view of an industrial and agricultural fair. He believes farmers now-a-days are too intelligent to spend their time and money on that which is not bread. The bread they come to seek at an agricultural exhibition is sound agricultural knowledge. Good judgment is shown in not lauding the side shows. The people who are light-headed enough to seek such quarters will find their medium. Mr. Arnold's aim is to have a strong agricultural exhibition and we trust he will meet with the encouragement that his zeal merits.

BAD BURN QUICKLY HEALED.

"I am so delighted with what Chamberlain's Salve has done for me that I feel bound to write and tell you so," says Mrs. Robert Mytton, 457 John street, Hamilton, Ontario. "My little daughter had a bad burn on her knee. I applied Chamberlain's Salve and it healed beautifully." This salve allays the pain of a burn almost instantly. It is for sale by all dealers.

It was fair time in Selkirk, and Sandy and his sweetheart were wandering round arm-in-arm enjoying the sights. Presently they espied a smart-looking pie shop, which they promptly entered. Sandy ordered one pie, sat down and commenced to eat it. Meanwhile the girl looked shyly on. "Is't fine, Sandy?" she timidly asked. "Aw, 'tis awful fine, Jennie!" he answered. "Ye should buy one!"—Penny Pictorial.

was entertained at dinner by a North Woodward avenue family a few nights ago. The men adjourned to the smoking-room and the hostess lingered to give orders to the maid. Oh," said the young girl, "I was so proud to have been able to wait on Mr. Barr. He is the first famous man I have ever attended." And the girl in a burst of maidenly enthusiasm exclaimed: "Perhaps some day I may be called to wait on Shakespeare."—Detroit Free Press.

MOOSE DROWNED

Frightened by a Crowd of People Animal Met Watery Grave

Two splendid specimens of bull moose, driven out of the woods to the west of South Bay, St. John crossed the Mahogany road yesterday afternoon and being frightened by a crowd at Seaside Park, jumped into the harbor and for some time swam about.

The moose were seen from Carleton and 500 people gathered on the shores to watch the struggles of the animals. The larger succeeded in getting out of the water and ran off through the woods but the other perished before it reached shore.

Ex-policeman Sullivan, who is doing duty at the park as special policeman kept the crowd back from the shore as much as possible, but the moose was driven back whenever it came near the shore and was drowned.

Two little sisters, of seven and nine, who were taken to see Othello, were much impressed by the death scene. "I wonder whether they kill a lady every night," said Lucy. "Why, of course not, Lucy," said her sister; "they pretend to. It would be altogether too expensive to really kill a lady every night!"—Harper's Magazine.

HEAVY ASSESSMENT

Wrecked Ontario Bank Stockholders Have to Cash up.

TORONTO, July 11.—A call will be made upon the shareholders of the Ontario Bank probably in September, for anywhere from 25 to 50 per cent. About $450,000 has to be made up. The call may be made before all the assets are disposed of so that the shareholders may get some of it back again.

Hon. A. B. Morine stated this morning that the call would be 20 per cent higher than it otherwise would have been by reason of the bank having bought $300,000 worth of its own shares. A call can only be levied upon $1,200,000 instead of $1,500,000.
