

LOCAL NEWS

TO WED WEDNESDAY.

Miss Dot Winslow, formerly of this city, and sister of Mrs. W. A. Walsh, is to be married at the Cathedral, St. John, on Wednesday next, to Mr. William Magee, of that place.

THEATRE TONIGHT.

The Power Stock Company begin their engagement of one week at City Opera House this evening in one of their best pieces "Sunshine and Shadows."

The company also present a strong line of up-to-date specialties which go to make up a continuous performance. Seats have been selling well at Wilkes for the opening performance.

POLICE COMMISSION.

The Police Commission met at nine o'clock this morning, and went over recommendations regarding the working of the force which will be presented to the Council this evening.

There are no new recommendations to be made and contrary to the reports about town, one of the commissioners stated today that no recommendation had been made to reduce the police force from five to four men.

WILL DINE WITH PRINCE.

Hon. J. D. Hazen, as premier of New Brunswick, has received an invitation from Earl Grey, the governor general, to attend a state dinner at Quebec on Thursday, July 23, to meet H. R. H. the Prince of Wales. The premier has sent a reply accepting the invitation. The premier will also be a guest at a dinner to be given by His Excellency in honor of the Prince on Saturday, July 25.

BASE BALL BY MOONLIGHT.

A very interesting and exciting game of baseball was played Saturday evening at Lower St. Marys between the Tigers of that place and a nine of Marysville boys, resulting in a victory for the Tigers to the tune of 20 to 18. Although the score was large, the game was a good one, the feature being the heavy batting of both teams. Both teams found it necessary to change their pitchers. A brilliant play was made by the Tigers when they doubled at first and second base on a ground hit. Before the last inning was finished it got quite dark the fielders being unable to see the ball therefore the Tigers won with only one man out, they being last at bat. A return match is expected in a few weeks.

PRIZE WINNERS.

The winners at the lottery held at the Catholic picnic at Kingsclear recently were:

Mr. W. E. Trites and bride of Salisbury are here visiting their friends.

THE GLORIOUS TWELFTH

Orangemen Own Marysville Today--a Great Crowd of Visitors Celebrating

The Orangemen of York, Sunbury and Northumberland are celebrating "the Glorious Twelfth" at Marysville today, and the town which is taking a holiday, is packed with visitors. Excellent order prevails, and the only drawback is the intense heat. The first arrivals this morning were the Harvey, Canterbury and Rusiagornish lodges, which led by the 71st Regiment Band marched from the C.P.R. station down York and Queen streets to the I.C.R. station, whence a special carried them to Marysville. Members of the city lodges are also very largely represented at the cotton town.

A BIG CROWD.

Our Marysville reporter writing at noon says:

Marysville is in holiday attire today celebrating the Glorious Twelfth, the town is full of visitors, a large number of them in bright regalia.

Lodges from Fredericton, McAdam, Harvey, Gibson, Geary, Fredericton Junction, Rusiagornish and other places have arrived. A large delegation from Fredericton came up at 10.30, accompanied by the 71st Regt. Band. Business in town is generally suspended for the day, the cotton mill and saw mill all down being closed. Of course the stores are running full blast and doing an excellent business. Telephone messages from up North state that fifteen cars on a special is on its way. The Newcastle band is with them. They will arrive about 1.15 o'clock. The grand parade is to take place an hour later. Base ball hill, where the picnic is going to be held presents a very gay appearance. A large building has been erected, from which dinner will be served, and over a hundred charming young ladies will act as waitresses.

The beer counter is in charge of Messrs. Chas. Whittaker, Richard DeLong, Fred Gamble and Teddy Fisher.

Ice cream booth is in charge of Mr. Edward Wheaton, assisted by Mrs. Wheaton, Mrs. Richardson and Miss Jessie Haines.

Fruit and confectionery booth is being looked after by Chas. Gamble, Allie Clark, Wm. Pine, assisted by Misses Winnie Robinson, Bessie Titus, Ella Kenney and Mayne Ryan.

All sorts of out door games are to be found on the grounds, including a wheel of fortune, in charge of Daniel Pickard; Bean toss in charge of Robt Cain; ball toss is being looked after by Wallace Brown; football kick, Bertram Smith; ladies bean toss, under the management of Oscar Holland; gents' bean toss in charge of Ernest Pine.

There is also "bat in the house game," three shots for five.

It is estimated that the largest number of strangers that were ever in Marysville are here today, doing honor to the occasion. By night the town will be overflowing with strangers.

LATER. The train arrived from the north at 1.15. It consisted of 43 closely packed cars with 900 people.

THE PROCESSION.

The procession was formed at Brickhill at 2.30 and started on its march on the principal streets. Its formation was as follows:

Orange Band of Newcastle. Breauche with Past Masters H. F. McLeod and A. D. Thomas, Rev. A. A. Rideout, N.J. Smith, Howard Segee and J. N. Ferguson.

Star of Bayne Lodge, Blackville. Rusiagornish Lodge.

Marysville Lodge. Harvey Lodge.

71st Regiment Band.

Marysville 'Prentice Boys.

Gibson 'Prentice Boys.

Graham Lodge.

Rossmere Lodge, Gibson.

Boyne Water Lodge, Willingburg.

Walker Lodge Fredericton.

McLeod Lodge, Coveral Bridge.

Burton Lodge.

It is estimated that there were over five hundred men in line.

County Master Beattie of York led the procession on a white charger and Sgt. Gregory was grand marshal.

THE WEATHER.

Moderate variable winds, some scattered showers, but mostly fair and warm Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. R. P. Allen of the Herald staff spent Sunday with his family at Hopewell Cape, where Mrs. Allan and her son are spending the summer.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Movements of People in whom our Readers are Interested.

Miss Alice Winters is here from Boston visiting Miss Eva Veness, Brunswick street.

Mrs. George Turton and her little son, Beverly, have returned from St. Andrew's, Grand Manan, and other seaside points in Charlotte county.

Hon. F. P. Thompson, of this city, and Hon. John Yeo, of Port Hill, P. E. I., have engaged passage on the steamer Empress of Ireland, sailing from Quebec for Liverpool on July 21.

Hon. Captain Ashburnham and Mrs. Ashburnham have driven to Magalloway Lake where they will spend some days camping with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shaw. They stopped at Kingsclear en route to visit the Captain's friend, Mr. Illingworth.

Major W. C. Good, of Jacksonville, scr-in-law of Rev. J. C. Barrie, Marysville, has received his appointment as a staff officer on the New Brunswick contingent to the Quebec tercentenary.

Halifax Chronicle.—Professor Ernest Brydson Jack, formerly of Dalhousie College, but now of the University of Manitoba, arrived in Halifax yesterday for a short visit. He is accompanied by Mrs. Jack and their two children.

VETERANS TO MEET.

A Bill has been put through the Federal Parliament by the terms of which a grant of land in the West will be made to every Canadian who served in South Africa during the British-Boer War provided that he enlisted in Canada in a Canadian Regiment. The grant will consist of one hundred and sixty acres of prairie land from the Government tracts in Alberta and Saskatchewan. The South African Veterans' Association of York County have already taken the matter in hand and a meeting has been called for the Association for 7.30 o'clock on Tuesday evening next at the offices of Mr. O. S. Crockett, M. P., Queen St. Some time ago the Association petitioned the Provincial Government for a grant but nothing has been accomplished in this line.

GRADUATE NURSE.

Miss Hattie Brown has completed her examinations and graduated as a nurse from Victoria Public Hospital. As Miss Brown is the only graduate in the class of '08 there will be no formal graduation exercises this year. During her course at the hospital, Miss Brown has, by attention to duty and her bright and kindly disposition, made a large number of friends among the patients, and everyone who had dealings with the hospital, wish her success in her chosen profession.

The nurses of the classes of '08 and '09 presented Mr. W. C. Kelly, the male nurse, with a handsome chain and charm in appreciation of his kindness.
