MELTED SAFE DOOR.

Skilful Burglars Robbed Warehouse at Marseilles.

PARIS, Jan. 6.—Burglars broke into the premises of MM. Martin & Baume, colonial traders, at Marseilles last week and stole money and goods to the value of £4,000. Most of their booty they took from a safe, the door of which they burnt through with an apparatus giving an acetylene flame of sufficient heat to melt the metal.

The case recalls one at Antwerp recently, when the thieves melted a safe with a combined oxygen and acetylene flame.

The police here believe that the Marseilles burglars are past-masters of the art, and that probably not more than a dozen possess such a gas apparatus for melting safes. One or more of the burglars may probably have been employed at a motor factory, where acetylene lamps are in frequent use. In any case, not even the finest lock or the best steel safe can resist, say the police, if burglars take to using oxygen and acetylene lamps with blow pipes. Safe manufacturers have a new problem to solve.

GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC

Company making Arrangements for Construction of Western Section

VICTORIA, B. C., January 8.—William Wainwright, second vice-president of the Grand Trunk Pacific, and C. M. Tate, assistant solicitor, are here seeing the government, preparatory to beginning of the construction of the Pacific end of the new trans-continental road.

The question of the Indian reserve and the company's title thereto is among things at issue.

If an arrangement is reached, Mr. Wainwright says the company will be ready to give the contract for one hundred miles at once.

This section will be the most expensive of the whole system.

Mr. Wainwright announces that within the past few days the company has awarded contracts for 118 miles west from Edmonton, taking the line right up to Yellow Head Pass.

They all say the same about

St. George's Baking Powder

"Dozens of my best customers have put St. George's to the test."
"They have tried it for Biscuits and Doughnuts—for Cakes and Pies—for Muffins and Pancakes."

"And they agree that St. George's can be depended on—that when they do their share of the baking right, St. George's makes the lightest, whitest, tastiest pastry and cakes and biscuits—in a word, that it is the best Baking Powder they ever used."

"And my customers are pretty fastidious people, too."

D. H. Morris, ex-president of the Automobile Club of America, was describing in New York the success of a certain wily "automobile."

"The man's cleverness is wonderful," Mr. Morris ended. "In some ways it reminds me of the cleverness of old John Jones."

"I thought you said you were going to bring a friend home to dinner with you this evening?" snapped Mrs. Jones, as they seated themselves at a beautifully appointed table.

"He couldn't come," John answered calmly.

"And then, with no little enjoyment, the clever fellow fell to upon the first decent meal he had sold down to for some weeks."

HEALTH FOR RUN DOWN WOMEN.

From the experience of Mrs. Jno. Panke, Saskatoon, nothing compares with Ferrozone. "At times I was confined to my bed and couldn't work. I was run down in flesh, lost strength, my appetite failed, my color was pallid. Weary and cast down, it seemed I couldn't catch up. Ferrozone began a new kind of life in my blood built me up, vitalized and strengthened my nerves and finally cured my heart and stomach pains." LATE W. McBEAN

Tribute to the Memory of a Worthy Man

Died at Naskwaak on the 5th inst., William McBean, aged 72 years. He had been ailing for more than a year but was no worse than usual until last Friday when he was suddenly stricken with paralysis, and was never conscious afterwards.

He leaves a sorrowing widow, one son, Kenneth, two daughters-in-law, and four grand children, and one sister, Mrs. Alex. Colter, of Keswick, to mourn their loss.

He was a man of sterling integrity, honest and upright, generous and kind and a true man. He had a large circle of friends and was universally respected and beloved. His place in the community will be hard to fill.

TWO FAMILIES WIPED OUT

Midnight Death Struggle with Robber Band

ROSTOFF-ON-DON, Jan. 6.—Two families were practically exterminated recently at a lonely farm on the steppes, near Novotcherask by a band of robbers, who despatched even the household cat and dog.

The names of the killed are Bondarenko, his wife, his son Nikita, his fourteen-year-old daughter, Xenia, and a young man named Limorenko, and of the other family Gretchenko, his wife, his brother, and his two young children. Three little boys of the Bondarenko family hid from the murderers and escaped.

It appears that the Bondarenko family had just retired for the night when the door was burst in and three strangers entered. Brandishing revolvers, they commanded everyone to come out. Dazed with sleep, the family obeyed, and saw several other men with revolvers and ropes outside the door. Bondarenko was ordered to hand over all the money he had. He replied that he possessed only 16s., to which the robber leader retorted that that would give his men just 2½d each.

At this point the girl Xenia fell into hysterics. A robber threw a cloth over her head and brained her with a hatchet. The boy Nikita and the young man Limorenko were next seized and killed in the same manner. Bondarenko and his wife were then locked up in a cupboard, whence they heard the robbers enter the adjoining building where the Gretchenkos slept. Shrieks and groans arose as the whole Gretchenko family were overpowered and murdered. Gretchenko's wife was strangled with a piece of rope.

Next the robbers returned, dragged forth Bondarenko and his wife, and slaughtered them. The three youngest children escaped the murderers' notice and were left alone with the dead. A peasant visiting the farm discovered the tragedy and rescued the children next day.

MORE ROCKEFELLER GOLD.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—The Tribune has received the following despatch from Chicago: John D. Rockefeller has made another gift to the University of New York of $2,191,000.

Of the sum announced, $2,000,000 goes to swell the general endowment fund, and consisted of securities, the nature of which is not made public. Another specific sum of $155,000 clears off the deficit in running expenses from July, 1908, to July 1909. The rest goes for books, repairs and other incidentals.

Mr. Rockefeller took no part in the negotiations for the gift. Last month President Harry Pratt Judson and the Chairman of the trustees visited New York and were told by John D. Rockefeller, Jr., to make out a list of the amounts they wanted his father to give. When the list was presented Mr. Rockefeller made the gift without question.

ARE YOU SUBJECT TO STIFFNESS.

Perhaps it is in the neck or shoulder. First thing is a good rub with Eerviline. No more speedy remedy can be adopted. When applied to the muscles Eerviline gives them flexibility and vigor; inflammation, soreness and stiffness disappear. "Whether in the chest or throat nothing can surpass Eerviline," writes O. B. Denison, Lumber Merchant at Oak Bay N. B. "Rubbed on at night, trouble is gone by morning. I have proved Eerviline a great medicine." Every one says the same, and Eerviline all ways makes good, 25 cent bottle sold everywhere.

SHOPLIFTING COUNTESS.

Wife of Italian Banker Caught in Regent Street.

London, Jan. 7.—Great interest was shown in the Maitland Street Police Court today when Countess Louise Gussio, wife of a leading Italian banker residing here, and a member of a well known family, was charged with shoplifting in a Regent street department store.

The Countess, who is a strikingly handsome woman of forty, was present in the court room, fashionably dressed, and sat near her solicitor as the story was told that she had been caught leaving the store with $60 worth of purloined articles, including a cigarette holder and a necklace, concealed in her muff.

One of the assistants testified that the Countess when apprehended plead
