MUSEUM IS ROBBED

Burglar Enters Normal School at Toronto.

VAN KOUGHNET GIFT TAKEN

While Officials Doze Repository of Articles of Vertu Is Robbed of Valuables Presented to Institution by Captain George Parker Van Koughnet—Some Were Father's Relics—Amateur's Work.

Toronto, July 22.—Seven invaluable relics were stolen from the Normal School Museum on Monday night, between nine and twelve o'clock, when no watch of the premises is kept.

The collection was presented to the University of Toronto by the late Capt. Edward Barker Van Koughnet a short time before his death at Gibraltar four years ago.

They are a silver trowel, about eight inches long, with wooden handle, a silver cigar case, from the Prince of Wales; a silver jug, about fifteen inches high; a silver snuff-box, about two inches long and one inch wide; a silver inkstand, eight inches long, six inches wide, containing two ink wells with candle placed between them; a combination gold pen and pencil, and a gold tray, made of Kruger sovereigns.

The sovereigns alone are worth $350 face value. It is for their associations and artistic value that the articles are most highly prized.

The Provincial Museum has been located in the Normal School for many years, Dr. Daniel Boyle being the superintendent. Since Dr. Boyle's illness Clarkson W. James, secretary to Hon. Dr. Pyne has been in charge. William H. C. Phillips is the assistant curator. W. A. Poole is guard.

The valuable Van Koughnet collection was carried away from the museum between nine o'clock and midnight Monday last while the alleged custodians dozed dreamily and in peace.

The traces left behind do not stamp the theif as that of an expert in the art of housebreaking, but with the tempting inducement held out to the amateur such accomplishment must have seemed, as they were, superfluous. Also the thief was modest in his taking. There lay open to him $300,000 worth of relics. Many of these would be easily negotiable and with a ration of portability and value much more tempting than those taken.

The seven relics were kept in a case on the second floor. To break open this the thief resorted to tools as antiquated as the methods used to guard the treasure which he sought. With hands (exactly like those presented to Adam at creation) he forced another case and took from it an ancient stone tomahawk. With this he burst open the case containing the collection, and then, confident of not being disturbed, waited to commit silly acts of vandalism, but touched none of the other valuable articles which lay ready to his hand.

SOCIALIST IS CHOSEN

M. Aristide Briand Asked to Succeed Clemenceau.

HE HAS MANY ENEMIES

Minister of Justice and Worship Will Decide To-day Whether He Will Lead the Government—Is Bitterly Opposed by Money Interests and Conservatives — Think He Cannot Last Long In Power.

Paris, July 23.—President Falliéres last night asked Aristide Briand, Minister of Justice and Worship, to form a new Cabinet to succeed the Clemenceau Ministry, which resigned Tuesday night.

M. Briand, brilliant scholar and avowed Socialist and architect of the finel chapters of the separation law, was summoned to the Elysee Palace and asked to reconstruct the Clemenceau Cabinet.

M. Briand promised his answer today. The shifting of some of the portfolios and the retention of all the Ministers except Picquart, Picard and Millies-Lacroix, Ministers of War, the Navy, and Colonies respectively, is now anticipated.

Considerable opposition to M. Briand has developed, especially among the more conservative Senators and Radicals, who dominate the party of the Republican majority, on the ground of the selection of a Socialist at the head of the Government would be equivalent to proclaiming the bankruptcy of the Radicals. Predictions are freely made in some quarters to-day that M. Briand would fail in his efforts to form a Ministry which can command a majority.

Should M. Briand succeed in forming a Cabinet, as his friends believe he will, the tendencies of the new Ministry will be distinctly more socialistic than those of the outgoing Cabinet. M. Briand is opposed to the dissolution of the revolutionary general federation of labor, which M. Clemenceau favored, and M. Barthou, Minister of Public Works, and M. Viviani, Minister of Labor, have championed socialistic doctrines.

A Briend Cabinet would be exceedingly distasteful to the moneyed classes. The Conservatives, however, believe that the Briand Cabinet will be short-lived.
