A Rare Treat Coming.

March 7th is the date of the concert of the King's Daughters course. The Halifax Recorder says of Hirven Jones, the great English tenor, "He is undoubtedly the finest tenor we have ever heard on the concert stage in Halifax. In his finely selected songs, Halifax lovers of vocal music received a treat which they will always recall with pleasure. Towards the end of the programme Mr. Jones sang his great song 'Arise' with violinello obligato, which was rendered with the finely finished effects of the genuine artist." Miss Hilda Richardson will give her hearers a rare treat in the marvellous way in which she controls her instrument, and the charming interpretation she gives her music. As for Owen Smily he has only to be heard to be appreciated. Please read the advertisement carefully in another column and secure your seats early next week. Admission 35 cts., reserved seats 50 cts.—d.

Sunday Services.

At 3 p. m. in Good Templars' Hall, Evangelist W. R. Andrews will speak on the subject of The New Testament Sabbath, and the Testimony of the Early Church Fathers concerning the Change from the Seventh to the First day of the Week. "You are cordially invited to attend."

The pastor, Rev. J. H. MacDonald, will conduct both services in the Baptist church tomorrow. The sermon will be on the 5th Commandment, both morning and evening.

Notice.

In order to conduct my business on strictly cash terms as previously advertised, and to better enable me to sell goods at such reasonable prices as to defy competition, I purpose calling in all debts that are now six months over due, and all those interested will please take notice that any of said accounts remaining unsettled on April next will be handed to a justice for collection.

JAS. D. MCKAY.
Fredericton, March 1, 1902.—d2weod.

Springlike Weather.

The soft weather of the past few days and the heavy rainfall of last night have left the city street in a wretched condition, and it looks as if the sleighing would soon be over. The sidewalks are clear of snow in many places, and things have a decidedly springlike appearance.

Government Meeting.

A meeting of the local government will be held here early next week to prepare the program for the Legislative session.

Weather Probs.

(Special to Daily Herald.)

Toronto, March 1.—Maritime; Sunday, fresh to strong southeasterly winds mild and showers, a few fair intervals.

UPPER QUEENSBURY.

(Special Correspondence to the Herald.)

Feb. 26.—The many friends of Mrs. Thomas Stairs will be very sorry to hear that her condition is unimproved. She is now receiving treatment from Dr. Prescott, who pronounces her illness a bad case of heart trouble.

Herbert and Frank Ingraham are now hauling bark for Hallett and Clark of Caverhill.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. William Ross on the arrival of twins.

Several of our inhabitants attended a social at Bear Island last Saturday evening. They all give a very favorable report of it, indeed, they all agree that they enjoyed themselves immensely and had a lovely tea. The proceeds of the entertainment which amounted to the sum of $25.25 is to go towards repairing the Union church of that place. Many thanks were tendered Mr and Mrs Chesley Hallett for generously opening their house for the occasion.

Rumors says that a young widower of this place and a popular lady of Keewick Ridge are going to embark on the matrimonial sea in the early spring.

A. O. H. Concert.

The annual St Patrick's night concert under the auspices of Division No 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, will be held at the opera house on Monday evening, March 17th. The committee in charge have secured the best talent in the city and a splendid programme will be arranged. Full particulars will be announced the first of the week.—d.

More than 2000 pounds of UNION BLEND Tea are now sold daily in the Maritime Provinces, which shows that it has about 200,000 regular consumers among our people. No other tea ever acquired such a celebrity and no other deserves it.
