HE WOULDN'T POSE.

Old Moonshiner Didn't Want His Picture Taken.

I was talking with old Mose Scott, the moonshiner, at his cabin door, when a tourist with a camera came along and asked the old man to allow him to take his picture.

"Stranger, I'm allus willin' to oblige in most things," was the reply, "but I'll have to say no to this. Thar was a feller up yere last fall with a squint in' masheen like that, and he met my brother Bill. He sot Bill on a rock and squinted at him, and jogged along. When he got down to Knoxville, he fixed the pictur' up and was showin' it around when a feller says to him: 'Whar did ye meet this yere critter?'"

"Up above Cumberland Gap."

"And mought his first name be Bill?"

"I reckon."

"And his last name Scott?"

"The same."

"That's about all they said, but in the co'se of three days a lot of revenue officers cum along and gobbled on to Bill, and he's in the Albany prison doin' time yit. They dun reckoned he was in Texas till they saw his pictur'."

"But I didn't know as they wanted you," protested the artist.

"No; I reckon they don't, but they would as soon as they saw the pictur'."

Some of 'em would recognize the innocent ole critter who locked seven of 'em up in a stable while the boys were totin' a moonshine still out of a ravine and over the mountains, and as I hain't much of a hand to talk I'm afeared I couldn't explain how I happened to fall asleep and leave 'em thar till they cut their way out through the roof. Ye can squint at the ole mowl and the cabin all day if it will oblige ye, but don't pull the trigger till ole Mose Scott gits down and hides behind a log!"

No Influence Above.

In Dr. John Hall's time it was the custom in his church to use the old fashioned, simple hymns, and the singing was congregational.

On one occasion the late William M. Evarts discovered E. Delafield Smith, the well known lawyer and then corporation counsel of the city, singing with all his heart and whispered to his friend:

"Why, there is Smith singing 'I want to be an angel.' I knew he wanted to be district attorney, but I didn't know he wanted to be an angel."

The remark was repeated to Mr. Smith, and quick as a flash came the retort:

"No, I have never mentioned the matter to Evarts, knowing that he had no influence in that direction."—New York Times.

BAD BLOOD.

Miss Mary M. Allan, Acton, Ont., says,—For nearly a year I was troubled with pimples on my face. I tried several remedies but none of them seemed to help me until I got Burdock Blood Bitters. I think it is a great remedy for bad blood, and take pleasure in letting you know that it did me more good than all the other remedies I tried.

B.B.B. Cures Boils, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, and all Skin Diseases.

HEADACHES.

Mrs. Peter Bondreau, Glen Levit, N.B., says,—It is with pleasure and gratitude that I can testify to the wonderful power of Burdock Blood Bitters. My daughter was ailing for three years with headache and run down system. I tried several kinds of medicine but to no effect. At last a friend urged me to try B.B.B. for her, and after using two bottles she was like another being. I can never praise it enough. It is a God-send to all.

DYSPEPSIA.

Miss Alberta Murray, Campbellton, N.B., says,—For five years I was troubled with Dyspepsia, and whenever I ate anything I suffered untold agony. My parents got numerous medicines for me but they did me no good. I saw Burdock Blood Bitters advertised and something seemed to say, "Get a bottle." I did so, and to my surprise before I finished the bottle I found relief. I took all told 3 bottles, and have had no return of the trouble.

CONSTIPATION.

Miss Nellie Huggan, Merigobish, N.S., says,—I was troubled with constipation for a year and tried different medicines, but they did me no good. I then took Burdock Blood Bitters and it cured me so that I have not been troubled since.

Mr. Whorton Barkley, Morrisburg, Ont., says,—I took three bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters for constipation and found a complete cure effected.
