

LOCAL EVENTS.

The News of the City and Vicinity

SINCE YESTERDAY.

General, Social, Personal and Political Items of Interest.

A Native of Kingsclear.

F. E. Good, who died Sept. 22 at Williamstown, Carleton Co., was a native of Kingsclear, York Co.

Approaching Wedding.

The nuptials of Miss Annie Moore, daughter of Ald. John Moore, and Charles O'Connor, will be celebrated at St. Dunstan's church on Wednesday evening.

Schooner Cleared.

The Schooner Onward, Capt. B. M. Wasson cleared on Saturday for Salem, Mass. for orders with a cargo of shingles and hemlock boards belonging to T. E. Babbitt & Sons of Gibson.

No Truth in It.

The Herald is in a position to state positively that the report given currency by a local paper that the Fredericton Agricultural Society is negotiating for the purchase of the trotting park, is entirely without foundation.

May Reside in St. John.

It is reported in military circles that Lieut. Col. White the new D. O. C. of New Brunswick, will have his office in St. John instead of Fredericton. As far known Lieut. Col. Wadmore will remain here in command of the R.C.R.

To Replace the Star.

The steamer Aberdeen has been engaged to take the place of the steamer Star on the Washademoak route and went to St. John this morning. She will return as soon as there is a rise in the water, and resume her trips to Woodstock.

For the 71st Band.

Four new instruments for the 71st. regiment band, are on exhibition in the down window of J. H. Hawthorn's store and are attracting great attention. The list includes two cornets, a slide trombone and a tenor horn. They are all silver plated and are from the establishment of Besson and Company of London the greatest makers of band instruments in the world.

Serious Accident.

Nathan Brewer, an elderly man who resides on Saunders street, while at work upon a new house on Aberdeen street, on Saturday, slipped and fell a distance of twenty-five feet. He was removed to his home and Dr. Vanwart summoned. The doctor found on examination that the man had escaped with no broken bones, but had sustained internal injuries of a serious nature.

Death of Mrs. Morten.

As a result of a surgical operation performed at Chipman Memorial Hospital St. Stephen, Saturday, Mrs. Arthur S. Morten, wife of the popular pastor of the Presbyterian church died at that institution Sunday morning. She was a daughter of Alston Cushing, formerly of St. John, but now of Houlton (Maine), where Mr. and Mrs. Morten were united in marriage one year ago this month.

In the Yukon Country.

Otto Dever of this city, who enlisted in the Mounted Police several years ago, is now stationed at Big Salmon River in the Yukon country. In a recent letter to a relative here, he states that he likes the place first rate and has plenty of good sport shooting ducks and prairie chickens. He says that John Black and Robert Chestnut, former Frederictonians, are located a few miles distant and he sees them quite frequently.

A Queer Find.

A guest at one of our hotels, while eating a piece of bread at tea Sunday night, felt his teeth strike a hard substance which gave him quite a scare for the time being. On examination he was astonished to find that he had been trying to chew a twenty cent piece which had evidently been incorporated into the bread by the baker. The gentleman who made the find has never posed as a slight of hand performer.

Gospel Temperance.

The first of a series of Gospel Temperance meetings was held in the Free Baptist Church, Gibson last evening and proved a great success. The church was crowded to the doors, Mr. Gillis sang a solo which was enjoyed by all. The speakers were Revs. Dr. McLeod, W. R. Robinson, A. D. Paul and Mr. F. Todd. Mrs. Stone, chairman of the committee on arrangements deserves great credit for bringing the meeting to a successful issue.

HUNTING NOTES.

Adam Moore Returns from a Successful Trip to the Tobique.

Adam Moore, the famous big game hunter, who has been in the Tobique woods for the past three weeks acting as guide for J. D. Foote and his son of New York, returned to the city by the Canada Eastern Saturday afternoon. He made a canoe trip down the Nepisiquit to Bathurst in company with the elder Foote and the latter went home by way of the I. C. R. Each member of the party secured a fine moose. Mr. Moore returns to the woods on Wednesday with three Harvard students.

The New York millionaires who have been out on the Nepisiquit hunting big game with Charles Oremson as guide, returned home last week, after securing one moose. They enjoyed their trip very much and will return next season.

F. F. Dow and an American friend returned on Saturday from a hunting trip to Gaspereaux, Queens County. They wounded a moose, but it managed to get away from them and their guide, Jim Paul, remained behind to continue the search.

Wedded at St. Dunstan's.

Miss Maggie O'Brien, daughter of the late James O'Brien and sister of Daniel O'Brien, engineer of the parliament buildings, was married at St. Dunstan's church at six o'clock this morning to Thomas Connolly, a popular employee of the C. P. R. at McAdam. Miss Nan Carten was bridesmaid and the groom was supported by Mr. Ivory of McAdam. Rev. Father Carney performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple drove to the C. P. R. station and boarded the train for Moncton, where the honeymoon will be spent. They are to make their home in this city. The bride was housekeeper for Bishop Casey during his residence here and is held in high esteem by her acquaintance.

An Approaching Wedding.

The marriage of Mr. Loring W. Bailey, jr., of Halifax, son of Dr. Bailey of this city, and Miss Ernestine Gale, only daughter of Dr. G. Goldsworthy Gale, a prominent citizen of Quebec, is to be solemnized at the bride's home in the latter city Oct. 30. The bridesmaids will be Miss Armande Stevenson of Montreal, and Miss Bailey of this city, sister of the bridegroom, and friends of the young couple in Fredericton, Montreal, Quebec and Ottawa, will be among the invited guests. Mr. Bailey and his bride will visit Fredericton during their wedding trip, and may be sure of a warm welcome in this Mr. Bailey's native city where he has hosts of friends.

A Famous Guide.

Thomas Canadien, the famous Indian guide, was in the city Friday after returning with a local party from a successful moose hunt, lasting over a fortnight. The party spent some days in Canaan and brought back with them a fine bull moose. Twice during the outing Canadien called moose to within 100 yards of the party. They sighted in all 10 animals seven bulls, two cows and a calf. Canadien lives in St. Mary's, York county, and has proven himself an excellent huntsman. He says that big game is very plentiful this year but partidge are scarce.—Telegraph.

Deaths at the Hospital.

The death occurred at the Victoria Hospital on Sunday afternoon of Henry Kerr, of Boiestown, who was admitted to the institution several weeks ago suffering from paralysis. He was 49 years of age and unmarried. The remains were prepared for burial by Undertaker John G. Adams and sent to Boiestown this morning.

Patrick Shinnick, of Blackville, who was operated upon at the Victoria Hospital for appendicitis on Thursday, died Sunday evening. He was 33 years of age and a bachelor. The remains were taken to Blackville today for burial.

Property Transfers.

George L. Slipp to L. D. Gunter, property at Queensbury, $1.

Alfred E. Brewer and wife to A. H. Hanington, land in the parish of Douglas, $300.

Arthur R. Slipp and wife to Charles H. Pugh, land at Douglas, $1200.

DeForest S. Day to George J. Colter, land at Douglas, $225.

Willard Kitchen to George H. Clark, land at North Lake, $1500.

Coming Event.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Dow are to entertain a number of their friends to a dance at their beautiful summer cottage, Ravine Lodge, Thursday evening of this week.

THE MUSICAL FESTIVAL.

Fredericton Will be Well Represented at the Big Event.

The New Brunswick Musical Festival opens in the Victoria rink at St. John this evening and will be continued for two days. The chorus will consist of three hundred voices, and will include representatives from St. John, Moncton, Fredericton, Woodstock and St. Stephen. Among those from this city who went to St. John this morning to take part were: Rev. Dean Partridge, A. H. F. Randolph, C. H. B. Fisher, William Lemont, L. A. W. Lemont, Prof. Saunders, Mrs. W. C. Crockett, Mrs. David Colwell, Mrs. W. E. Smith, Mrs. F. L. Cooper, Mrs. E. J. Payson and Misses Agnes Neill, Bessie Everett, Myra Sherman, Jennie McFarlane, Lulu Fisher, Irene Ross, Mary Manzer, Maggie Nicholson, Woodbridge Partridge.

Among those who went down to attend the festival were Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Johnston, Mrs. F. B. Edgecombe, Mrs. O. S. Crockett, Miss Stanger, Mrs. P. D. McKenzie, Miss McKenzie, Mrs. Sherman, Mr. Lemont, Mrs. William Lemont, the Misses Todd, Mrs. T. G. Loggie, Miss Jean Neill, Miss Maud McKee, Miss Jean Belmore and others.

N. B. University N. B.

College students will find at Edgecombe's a full stock of material for gowns imported expressly for that purpose from English manufacturers, also sweaters, scarfs, ribbons, &c. in the college colors.—d.

Store Closed.

Kerner's New Klondyke will be closed Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. On Saturday it will be open as usual when some very special bargains will be available.—d

Faeltens System.

Mr. Wilmot Lemont has made a special study of the method of music instruction as devised by Carl and Reinhold Faeltens. It is by far the most successful method for children's instruction yet devised.—Aug. 27 d tf

MARRIED.

At Benton, York Co., Sept. 26th, by the Rev. Jos. E. Flewelling, rector of Canterbury, Frederic R. Blair, telegraph operator, son of Reid Blair, St. Mary's, to Louise H., eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Deakin.

LOST.

On Saturday evening between the Queen Hotel and Springhill, a gentleman's gladstone bag, containing wearing apparel. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving it at the Herald Office. Sept. 29—dli

GIRL WANTED.

A good general servant. Recommendations required.

MRS. W. P. FLEWELLING, 263 George st. Sept. 27—d&w2 wks.

1,000 Cords of Wood
FOR SALE.

The undersigned will book orders for 1,000 cords of furnace and kitchen wood in 4 foot lengths now being cut, to be delivered in any part of the city proper in Dec. and Jan. next. Furnace wood $3.75 per cord, consisting of about equal parts of maple, yellow birch and beech. Kitchen wood, $3.00 per cord, principally white birch, mixed with white maple and small yellow birch.

Apply to J. A. EDWARDS or at Queen Hotel office. F'ron, Sept. 23—d6l

5c. 5c.

Original
Pin Head
Cigarettes.

Crimpled paper. No paste, mild and mel-low.

5c. 5c.

Jas. H. Hawthorn,

Tobacconist, 238 Queen St.

Furs! Furs!

FURS

New Fur Jackets, Fur Lined Coats, Fur Lined Capes, Fur Boas, Ruffs, Collars, etc. All kinds of Furs for Ladies' Gents and Children.

Prices the LOWEST

for QUALITY.

FRED. B. EDGECOMBE

AGENT BUTTERICK PATTERNS.

JOHN G. ADAMS, The Leading Undertaker..

Down Town. Next above Queen Hotel. 'Phone 26

Horlick's Malted Milk...

Good food for baby at this trying season.

50c. and $1.00

We have all the other popular goods for Infants and Invalids.

Hunt & MacDonald

Dispensing Chemists, Queen St.

LATEST IN ART.

Just received a stock of Prang Pictures and Fallowfield Hunting Sketches considered to be very handsome and up-to-date. Also new mouldings in oak and rubber black. Prices moderate.

GEO. W. ADAMS, Undertaker and Embalm r Queen Street, uptown.

GOOD

OPENING

At our store for Men and Boys. The opening is in some extraordinary good value in

FALL and WINTER UNDERWEAR

Which we wish them to fill. The following prices form the inducement to invest:

Wool Fleece Shirts and Drawers, all sizes, 50c. former price 75c.
Heavy Wool Shirts and Drawers, warranted unshrinkable, all sizes, 75c., former price $1.00
Heavy Wool Ribbed Shirts and Drawers, warranted all wool, 49c., former price 60c.
25 doz. Plain Shirts and Drawers, all wool and any size for 95c. suit. 1 case Heavy Wool Half Hose, 2 pr. for 25c.

THE NEW DRY GOODS STORE.
PETER FARRELL & CO. Sharkey Block