An Active Octogenarian.

John Anderson, ex-M.P.P., a popular and universally respected resident of the Barony, brought down the river yesterday, alone and unaided, from his home to Springhill, a distance of thirty miles, a four joint raft of hemlock logs. Not too bad for a man who has passed the four four score milestone.

The Tourist Grant.

The sum of $2,000 voted by the Legislature last session for the encouragement of tourist travel has been apportioned by the Government as follows: New Brunswick Tourist Association, St. John, $1,000; Fredericton Tourist Association, $500, and the remainder is to go to the Bay Chaleur Tourist Association.

A Good Move.

The Tourist Association has addressed a letter to Chief Commissioner LaBillois, suggesting that he take steps to have a couple of flower beds and a fountain placed on the green in front of the parliament building. No reply has yet been received, but it is safe to assume that the matter, like all good suggestions made to the Chief Commissioner, will receive his most earnest consideration.

Bound to be Married.

A couple from the country called at the Free Baptist parsonage at noon today, to secure the services of Rev. Mr. Hartley in the marriage ceremony, but that gentleman was not at home and missed the job. The couple seated themselves on the parsonage steps and waited a while, but growing impatient at delay sent a boy across the street to the Kirk manse to see if Rev. Mr. Macdonald was in. The enquiry was satisfactory. The small boy shouted across to the waiting swains that the parson was home, and the happy couple made haste to obtain the church's official sanction to their union. Mr. Macdonald did the job up promptly, and has the laugh on his brother parson who happened to be out. The parties who were spliced hailed from Bright; the gentleman's name was Brewer and the lady was a Miss Estey.

Out for Exercise.

Ora P. King, M. P. P., had the two French coach stallions and the thoroughbred Hackney, belonging to the government importation, out for exercise about the streets this morning. He had them hitched in turn to one of Mr. Edwards' light road wagons and gave each a turn about town. They all showed off splendidly in harness and were much admired by spectators. The big Clydesdale stallion is suffering from a slight cold, contracted while en route to Fredericton, but Ald. Stockford expects to have him all right in a day or two.

Thence he went to Hartland and Peel, where he inspected the armories. Wednesday Col. Danbar was at Centreville, and today he visited at Andover and Edmundston.

Premier and Mrs. Tweedie who are to attend the coronation of King Edward, will sail from Quebec to England on June 7th.
