

Deceiving and Misleading The Sick and Suffering For The Sake of Gain.

CERTAIN DEALERS IN CANADA ARE SELLING WORTHLESS CON-COCTIONS WHICH THEY CALL CELERY COM-
POUNDS.

Beware of All Imitations and Shun Substituting Dealers.

SEE THAT YOU GET PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

THE KIND THAT CURES.

Paine's Celery Compound has an established reputation for the cure of disease that no other medicine ever possessed; it is for this reason that imitations are made.

Unscrupulous and dishonest druggists and dealers whose sole worldly ambition is gain and large profits, are now toasting on the sick and suffering vile imitations of the popular Paine's Celery Compound; these imitations are positively harmful and dangerous to young and old. These worthless substitutes bring in immense profits to the dishonest dealers while they are able to pursue their work without detection.

To those who are users of Paine's Celery Compound and to all who have determined to use it from today, we say: "beware of imitations and substitutes. See that the name PAINE'S is on each wrapper and bottle." If your dealer dare suggest a substitute for Paine's Celery Compound leave his store at once, and make your purchase from some honest man. The substituter cares more for his own profit than he does for your health. Paine's Celery Compound is guaranteed to cure when all other medicines fail.

Dogs and Humor.

Mr. Cecil Aldin, an authority, gives it as his opinion that dogs as a rule are devoid of conscious humor. "The clown dog in a troupe of performing dogs, for instance, is not really funny when he burlesques the performances of other dogs, but he seems to be funny to the spectators. I am afraid that the people who credit dogs with being intentionally funny are deceiving themselves. A dog likes fun—a good romp and game with children—but his sense of humor has not been developed, and it is not subtle." A dog's best sense at humor, Mr. Aldin thinks, is when he is being tickled. "He opens his mouth, then screws his face into what people are pleased to call a laugh."

A Game For Two.

Once upon a time a young gentleman and a younger lady were alone in a bright parlor in front of a cheerful open fire, with a table between them, playing cards. As they continued to play and chat the table was not so much between them, for they both got nearer the fire and played the game on one corner of the table.

They had started in to play euchre, but after an hour and a half they found that they were playing hearts.

Moral—We are not always sure what the game is.

No Right to Live.

Beggar—Won't you give me some money, professor? My money is all gone, and I can't live.

Professor—How old are you?

Beggar—Forty years, sir.

Professor—Forty years! Don't you know that according to the latest mortality tables the average age of the male population of Europe reaches only thirty-four years and five months? Statistically you have no right to live any longer anyway!

Corn.

Corn, with its twenty-four to thirty-two rows under cultivation, was once but a coarse grass, hiding each seed it produced under a husk, as wheat and oats now do. Brought out to the light and sun, with a chance to get at enough plant food, it has worked its way up to eight rows of seeds, covering these with one husk. The farmer and nature together have added the extra sixteen and twenty-four rows.

She Understood.

"Ignorance," remarked young Borem,
"they say is bliss."

"Oh, that probably accounts for it," rejoined Miss Cutting.

"Accounts for what?" queried the youth.

"The contented and happy look you usually wear," she replied.

The Best Lifter.

Hiram—That boy of yours what went to college could do some powerful lifting with the clubs and dumbbells.

Silas—Yes, but I always thought more of the other one's lifting powers.

Hiram—Did he lift dumbbells and the like?

Silas—No; he lifted the mortgage.

Don't Neglect a Simple Cold in the Head.

JAPANESE CATARRH CURE CURES COLD IN THE HEAD IN A SINGLE NIGHT.

It is pleasant and harmless to use and clears the head almost instantly. You can use it on the smallest infant with Perfect Safety.

Catarrh of the head usually starts with a cold in the head, and if left unchecked in this climate rarely gets well itself. Another cold is usually added and before it gets well incipent catarrh sets in, and as each fresh cold is contracted the disease gradually becomes worse, until hearing, sense of taste and smell are gone, and finally incurable lung trouble is the result.
If you have a cold in the head don't neglect it.
Japanese Catarrh Cure relieves cold in the head in a few minutes and will cure in a single night.

Mr. Alex. McRae, the well-known tailor of New Westminster, B.C., writes:—"I was for some weeks suffering from a cold in the head, which was apparently developing into catarrh.
I purchased a box of Japanese Catarrh Cure, and in less than two days the trouble entirely disappeared. I can highly recommend it; the first application relieved."

Sold by all druggists. Price, 50 cents; or mailed. Address The Griffiths & Macpherson Co., Limited, Toronto, Can.

Averting a Panic.

On one occasion John Philip Sousa by his promptness was the direct means of stopping a panic which might have had the most disastrous results. While his band was playing before 12,000 people in St. Louis the electric lights in the hall went out suddenly. People began to move uneasily in their seats, and some even began to make a rush for the doors. Coolly tapping with his baton, Sousa gave a signal, and immediately his band began playing. "Oh, Dear, What Can the Matter Be?" A tiny ripple of laughter that went round the audience showed that confidence had partially been restored. When the band began to play "Wait Till the Clouds Roll By," the laughter deepened into a roar of merriment that only ended when the lights were turned on again.
