A COUPLE OF BOLD BANK ROBBERIES.

A Prominent Newfoundlander Dies Suddenly at Halifax.

LIBERAL M. P. CRITICALLY ILL AT VANCOUVER.

SHOT HIS SISTER.

(Special to the Daily Herald.)

St. Catherine's, Ont., Oct. 20.—Miss Muriel Benson, aged 20, was accidentally shot and instantly killed by her fourteen year old brother while examining a small rifle.

THANKS FOR CANADIANS.

(Special to Daily Herald.)

Montreal, Oct. 29.—A labor leader has received a letter from President Mitchell, thanking Canadian workmen for their assistance and sympathy in the recent struggle.

DIED AT HALIFAX.

(Special to the Daily Herald.)

Halifax, Oct. 29.—J. F. McGrath, superintendent of the penitentiary at St. John's, Newfoundland, and a former member of the Newfoundland legislature, died here today, aged 42.

ROBBERS' LARGE HAUL.

(Special to the Daily Herald.)

Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Burglars dynamited Charles Knapp's private bank at Sodus, near here this morning, and obtained about $5,000. The vault was completely wrecked and papers and books were destroyed.

ANOTHER BANK ROBBERY.

(Special to Daily Herald.)

Chicago, Oct. 29.—After binding and gagging the town marshal of Gardner, Ill., five masked men entered the Exchange National Bank, blew open the safe and escaped with $4000.

HAS A JOB IN TORONTO.

(Special to the Daily Herald.)

Toronto, Oct. 29.—Joshua Sanford, who achieved fame in connection with his experience while entombed in a well at Paris, has secured a position as salesman in a retail clothing store and will reside here in the future. He has practically recovered from the effects of his awful experience.

LORD MINTO'S LEG CRUSHED.

(Special to Daily Herald.)

Ottawa, Oct. 29.—Lord Minto was riding in the lanes around Government House this morning when his horse fell under him, crushing the Governor General's leg. His Excellency was removed to the house where it was found that while his leg was severely bruised, no bones were broken. He will be confined to his bed for some days.

JEWELS RETURNED.

(Special to Daily Herald.)

Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Twenty years ago today the residence of Cora M. Elliott who then lived in Ogdensburg was robbed of jewels valued at $10,000. No trace of the robbers were found. A few years later the woman moved here, and today a postman delivered a rough package which when opened was found to contain the missing jewelry. The package bore the post mark of Prescott, Ontario.

M. P. CRITICALLY ILL.

(Special to the Daily Herald.)

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 29.—Rev. G. R. Maxwell, M. P. for Burrard, is critically ill, and his physicians have given up hope. A specialist called from Victoria yesterday, could offer no encouragement.

[Mr. Maxwell, who is a Presbyterian clergyman as well as an M. P., was first elected to Parliament in 1896, and was re-elected in 1900. He visited England last summer, and on his way home he was attacked with jaundice and complications, necessitating his going into hospital at Montreal for some weeks. Only a few days ago he was removed to Vancouver.]
