Feb. 15.—Miss Annie Morrison left this week for Southampton, where she will visit at her home.

Miss Mamie McConnell left a day or two ago for Boston, and will remain away for the rest of the winter.

Thursday evening the fifth parlor social, given under the auspices of the ladies aid of the Methodist church, was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Ward. A very large number of ladies and gentlemen were present. The evening opened with a business meeting, Mrs. Merritt presiding. After a short time had been spent discussing the affairs in connection with the society, a few words were spoken by the Rev. Mr. Crisp, and a good programme rendered including piano duet by the Misses Annie and Jennie McConnell, song, Mrs. Merritt; piano solo, Mrs. E. B. Fisher; violin solo, Miss Cooper; song, Charles Hatt; reading, Rev. W. W. Brewer. Miss Edith Crisp played all the accompaniments. After some time had been spent in social conversation sandwiches, cake and coffee were served. All returned home having had a most enjoyable time.

Last evening about three hundred persons were present at the rink to witness the hockey match between Fredericton curlers and the Marysville hockey team, after good play for an hour, the result was a draw—which was rather an unusual occurrence.
