INFAMY'S SUCCESS.

Bit of Buccaneer History Connected With a Havana Theater.

The Tacon theater in Havana, one of the largest and most famous in the western hemisphere, was built by an old reprobate, Marti, who was a notorious pirate in his day and obtained immunity for himself by betraying his comrades into the hands of the Spanish authorities. One dark and rainy night Marti slipped by the sentry guarding the palace in Havana and entered the apartments of the captain general, who was writing at a table. When the governor general raised his eyes and saw the cloaked figure before him, he reached for the bell.

"Stop, your excellency!" cried the stranger. "I am here on a desperate enterprise. I have come to deliver into your hands every pirate on the Cuban coast upon one condition—a pardon for myself."

"You shall have it," was the answer. "But who are you?"

"I am Marti, and I rely upon the promise you have given me."

Preparatory to this interview Marti had appointed a rendezvous for the different bands, to which he conducted the Spanish force, and every pirate was captured and righteously garroted. As for Marti, he was not only pardoned, but was given a monopoly of the sale of fish in Havana, which made him a rich and thus eminently respected citizen, who ended his days in the odor of sanctity.

The World's Greatest Choir.

Russia boasts of the world's greatest choir. It is in the cathedral of Alexander Nevski in St. Petersburg and is attached to a convent erected in honor of the patron saint of Russia. Its members are all monks chosen from the best voices in all the Russian monasteries. When a fine singer appears among the novitiates, he is sent to the monastery of Alexander Nevski, where he is trained as carefully as an opera singer and remains there, doing nothing except assisting at the music at mass in the morning and vespers in the afternoon until he becomes aged, when he retires on a pension. Some of the voices are of marvelous strength and sweetness, and it is said that some members of the choir can shatter a thin glass into fragments by singing into it, so powerful are the vibrations of their tones. The monks are all vegetarians. They never eat meat. The rules of the church forbid them to shave, and their hair is worn like a woman's.

McIntosh, the son of the First. McDonald, the son of Brown Eyes. McDougall, the son of Black Eyes. McOnnechy or Duncan, the son of Brown Head.

The Jellyfish.

The bay of Naples abounds in medusæ or jellyfish, often growing as large as two feet in diameter and weighing fifty and sixty pounds. Some of them shine at night with a greenish light and are known as "noctiluca" (night lanterns) by the natives. The jellyfish sometimes make migrations in great groups, sometimes so large and so thick as to impede the navigation of vessels, like the floating plants in the Sargasso sea of the tropics. These shoals of medusæ, as they are called, may be so dense that a piece of timber plunged in among them will be held upright as if stuck in the mud, and ordinary rowboats cannot force their way through them. Their migrations have never been explained. They are irregular and occur at no particular season of the year and under no particular influences.

What Some Names Mean.

The following gives the meaning of the names of the principal highland clans in Scotland:

McIntosh, the son of the First. McDonald, the son of Brown Eyes. McDougall, the son of Black Eyes. McOnnechy or Duncan, the son of Brown Head.

McGregor, the son of a Greek man. McCuthbert, the son of the Arch Druid.

McKay, son of the Prophet. Campbell, Crooked Mouth. Cameron, Crooked Nose. Stewart, His Stay or Support.

A Correction.

When President Blanco's administration in Venezuela was overturned, that official, who, report said, had accumulated great wealth while in office, went to Paris. He was strolling in a boulevard in the French capital when a passing pedestrian arrested the pace of his companion and said: "See that man? He stole $3,000,000 when his government was overthrown." Quick as a flash Senor Blanco turned. "Beg pardon, sir," he said icily, "but it was $5,000,000."
