

ELOPING BOY.

Seventeen Year Old Youth Elopes With Girl of 22.

New York, Aug. 6.—An elopement, "Hello Floyd," he said, as they ad the culmination of a romance of vanced. "That's my name, but I don't know you," returned the young man. "Going to get married, where North Station by Sergt. Angell of you?" questioned the officer. "Your police headquarters, at the request of father, send word for me to give you a good time and that's thereason I'm here. So if your name is Floyd Ingalls you had better come with me." At this point the detective showed his badge and took the young man by the arm, escorting him away. "What am I going to do?" asked the girl, with tears in her eyes and emphasis on the first person singular. The officer told her that she might go her way, as she had not been charged with any offence. As the officer and his young charge walked to headquarters the boy told the sergeant of the circumstances which led to his trip to Boston. "I met Blanche in Dover, where she was spending her vacation, about two weeks ago," he said. "We became friendly and had many trips together into the country, and we were so happy that we decided to get married. So tonight we took the 7 o'clock train for Boston. I told one or two of my chums and I guess that one of them must have told my father! I liked Blanche very much and I thought that after we were married we would go back home and father would look out for us. "I don't see any harm in what I did. Lots of people go off and get married just the same as we wanted to. Wait till I get out of this; then I'll find out who started all this trouble."

The girl was spending her vacation in Dover when the boy became acquainted with her. Their friendship grew and they decided to get married leaving Dover with that intention about 7 o'clock last night. The father learned of the escapade and found that his son and a young woman had boarded the Boston train and got word to Captain Garland at police headquarters. Among the passengers who left the train were Ingalls and Miss Blanche Arm in arm they walked through the station to Causeway street, the detective following. As they stood in front of the Hotel Haymarket the officer appeared and spoke to them.

FACING A FAMINE.

Stocks of Bread Are Very Low--Prohibiting Prices Asked For Food.

Stockholm, Aug. 3.—Stockholm today is suffering seriously from a shortage of food, which so far is the most notable result of the labor conflict that reached its acute stage since the beginning of the week. Those who from lack of foresight or for other reasons failed to lay in a supply before the strike began, are the worst sufferers. The stock of bread is already exhausted and meat is scarce and expensive. The restaurants have raised their prices for meals, and the figures today are prohibitive except for persons possessed of ample means. The strikers themselves are living practically on fish. Thousands of them are camping out. Some are in tents but many are without shelter on the shores of Lake Malar and the islands of the archipelago, where they spend their time in angling. The authorities have taken charge of the milk supply of the city and soldiers are distributing milk in limited quantities and supervising the sale from milk cars at the railroad stations. The deliveries of ice have ceased. This is especially trying as the weather is unusually hot.

GRAVE DIGGERS OUT.
The grave diggers employed in the northern cemetery struck yesterday in sympathy with the general strike movement. Paupers from the state poor houses have been enlisted to replace the striking grave diggers and undertakers, and instead of hearses, stretchers are being used to carry corpses through the streets to the cemeteries. The funerals proceed under military escort. The employees of the gas works and the electric light plants have gone out on strike, and as a result military guards have been placed over the establishments. The authorities contend that this protection is necessary and assert that last night they frustrated an attempt to blow up the works with dynamite. A gunboat has been stationed opposite the gas works and no boats are allowed to pass between it and the shore. A battalion of grenadiers from Linköping and a detachment of 250 men from the Vestergötland Regiment have been ordered into Stockholm. At Gothenburg work in all the slaughter houses has come to an end, and the general strike committee has called upon the railroad men and the printers to join the movement.

PASSENGERS ARE INJURED

Several Are Hurt, But None Very Seriously, In Disaster to Train West of North Bay—Four Coaches Are Piled Up in a Heap and Traffic Is Delayed Some Hours—Details Are Meagre as Yet.

North Bay, Aug. 6.—The C.P.R. Atlantic Express, due at North Bay at 8.55 last night, was ditched at Woman River, 200 miles west of here, at two o'clock yesterday afternoon. Details are meagre as yet but it is known that the express was speeding along at good rate when, without warning, the passengers were startled by terrible shocks and the crash of snapping timbers as the cars left the rails, buckled and reared, and then rolled down a six-foot embankment. Two Pullmans, one observation car and a first-class car were piled up in the ditch and investigation revealed a number of passengers injured, but none seriously as far as has been ascertained. The names of the injured passengers cannot be obtained yet. The cause of the accident is unknown here. Traffic was delayed from five to ten hours.

Rev. Father Morriscy

A Combined Treatment That Really Cures Catarrh.

Canadian weather, with its extreme cold and sudden changes, gives almost every one Catarrh, and makes it hard to cure. Some recommend internal remedies—some external applications.

Father Morriscy used both—tablets to be taken three or four times a day to invigorate the system, purify the blood, and help it throw off the disease, and a soothing, healing, antiseptic salve to be applied inside the nostrils. This combined treatment known as attacking the disease from within and without, soon cures.

"Father Morriscy's No. 26"

Mr. F. L. Mills, Box 451, Springhill, N. S., wrote on August 5th last:

"I have had two prescriptions for catarrh from Father Morriscy, No. 1 Course and No. 2, but I think No. 1 has done me the most good, and that is the one I am getting filled from time to time. I would recommend this prescription in full for Catarrh, as his tablets are the only remedy I can get to help me. The No. 26 Tablets are a great tablet."

Don't trifle with Catarrh—cure it with Father Morriscy's No. 26. 50c for the combined treatment at your dealer's.

The Land of Lie-a-Bed.

The lazy land of Lie-a-Bed. Has two fat pillows at the head. A downy comfort spread all neat. And restful from the head to feet. A drowsy, dreamy place to stay. And yawn, "I'll not get up today." And many children like to go. To wonder-wander here, you know. It is a pleasant land, and yet if I were you I would forget. The pathway there and follow back. The shining merry morning track. The dream world lies too far away. From honest work and happy play. And you must heed what you have read. And shun the land of Lie-a-Bed. —Youth's Companion
