

REJECT ALL REMEDIES.

Cancer Research Specialists Disprove Much.

LONDON, July 10.—The seven years' work of the Imperial Cancer Research fund was reviewed yesterday at the annual meeting over which the Prince of Wales presided. This organization may be said to be the head of the world's campaign against one of the most appalling physical evils with which humanity contends. Their work is now complete, with the discouraging result that everything has been disproved and rejected. Trypsin is the last to go, the most elaborate experiments yielding absolutely negative results.

Despite the unbroken record of failure, the investigators are pursuing a line of inquiry which leads them to speak hopefully of final success. Now that the work of elimination has been completed they are devoting their efforts almost exclusively to experiments upon mice, which are extremely susceptible to cancer. Their short lives are great fecundity enables tests to be made in a few months, which in human beings require centuries.

ARE YOU USING AN OILY LINIMENT?

Beware of Any Thick, Greasy Liniment That Contains Acids and Strong Ammonia.

No doctor would think of prescribing a greasy, thick, ammonia liniment—they can't penetrate and in consequence are unable to reach the source of pain. The best liniment for general household use is "Nerviline," which is sold under positive guarantee to cure pain.

Nerviline is sure to cure pain because it is immensely stronger than other liniments, because it is more penetrating, because it relieves the congested condition that excites pain because it restores circulation of the part. Now you understand why one person in three throughout the Dominion of Canada uses Nerviline. These people have tested it. They know how good it is because in the hundred and one minor ailments that afflict us at odd times they found Nerviline always cured. Nerviline is an absolute antidote to pain, powerful, soothing, and certain in its action.

Nerviline is inestimably the finest remedy for pain in the world. Not an ache or pain anywhere that Nerviline does not cure.

Try Nerviline for neuralgia, headache, sciatica, lumbago, rheumatism—wherever there is soreness or pain, rub on Nerviline and you'll be cured. Refuse anything offered you instead of Nerviline, large 25c bottles, five for $1. All dealers, or The Catathrozone Company, Kingston, Ont.

WORLD'S RICHEST WOMEN.

Ten Who Command the Enormous Sum of £71,000,000.

Mrs. G. Asher, the daughter of the late Mr. Harry Barnato, who became the legatee of a second million of money from the same source, her father settled the first million upon her on the occasion of her marriage to Mr. Asher, has already been "marked" by those who desire to secure assistance in various ways.

Mrs. Asher's house, 30 Berkeley Square, has been inundated with "callers"—many of whom wished to lay the claims of institutions or individuals before her. But Mrs. Asher has as yet seen no one except her nearest relatives, the task of dealing with the applicants being undertaken by Mr. Asher.

The acquisition of this second fortune places Mrs. Asher in the band of women who figure as the richest of their sex. The richest woman in the world is generally admitted to be Mrs. Hetty Green, with a fortune of between fourteen and sixteen millions at her command. Others who follow closely are:

Mrs. Russell Sage, who received a fortune of £17,000,000, but has distributed much of it in charitable bequests.

Mrs. Annie Weightman Walker, who is said to possess £2,000,000.

Frau von Bohen, the daughter of Krupp, the German gunmaker, has property valued at £18,000,000.

Mme. Croel, a Mexican lady, is said to have an income of nearly £1,000,000.

The Marchioness of Graham is the richest British-born lady, for on the death of her father, the twelfth Duke of Hamilton, she came into an income of £114,000 per annum.

The Duchess of Roxburghe was left £5,000,000 by her father, Mr. Ogden Goelet.

The Baroness Von Eeckhardstein came this year into the second portion of her fortune left by her father, the late Sir John Blundell Maple, making her total income £66,000 per annum.

The Countess Szechenyi, as Miss Gladys Vanderbilt, inherited £2,500,000.

PREVENT TAKING COLD.

Often you come home, cold and shivering—feet are wet, throat is raw, a little sore. A bad cold is just beginning. Put a Nerviline Plaster on your chest, rub your stiff dose of Nerviline in hot water. This prevents a chill and checks the cold instantly. No remedies so useful in the home, so sure to prevent serious illness as Nerviline and Nerviline Plasters. Bold by all dealers, 25c. each, but be sure you get the genuine, and refuse any substitute.

SEVEREST INDIGESTION CURED BY "No. 11,"

Father Morrissey's Stomach Remedy

So many people with Stomach Trouble came or wrote to Father Morrissey that he gave the matter special attention, and devised his "No. 11" Tablets. Each of these tablets will digest 134 pounds of food—a good meal—so that even if the stomach can scarcely act at all, the meal will be digested.

Read how the treatment cured Mr. Gosline:

Salmon Lake, Nov. 30, 1908. "I was troubled with indigestion, so severe that I really thought I had cancer of the stomach. I took much doctor's remedies till I was forced to seek another resource, and this was the Rev. Father Morrissey. His treatments worked miracles, until I have been entirely cured, so that now I do not look to the quality of the diet but to the quantity."

J. T. GOSLINE.

No matter what form of Indigestion or Dyspepsia you may have, "No. 11" Tablets will help, if not cure you. 50c. at your dealer's, or from Father Morrissey Medicine Co., Ltd., Chatham, N.B.

TWELFTH HONORED

Orangemen All Over Canada Celebrate Memory of Boyne.

DR. SPROULE AT BRAMPTON

Grand Master for British North America Delivers an Appeal for Resistance Against Religious Tyranny From Any Source—4,404 Lodges Now Enrolled in the World—Big Day in Ottawa and Galt.

Brampton, July 13.—The greatest crowd that ever visited Brampton took possession of the town yesterday. Every Orange lodge in the County of Peel, fifteen lodges from Dufferin and a number from Wellington and Halton were in evidence. The town was decorated with flags, bunting and arches. The procession was the largest ever, fifteen hundred being in line. They marched to the park for the speeches. Richard Blain, M.P., presided. The platform was filled with prominent men of the county and short addresses were delivered by Revs. Peter Campbell of Maple; J. K. Bell, Laurel; Charles Langford, Alton; and Wm. Walsh of Brampton, grand chaplain of British North America; and Messrs. W. A. McCulla, R. Blain, M.P., Samuel Charters, M.P., W. S. Morphy, S. A. Egan and others.

The chief speaker was Dr. Sproule, grand sovereign, who was received with a hearty outburst of cheering. The Orange order, he said, consisted of 4,404 lodges scattered throughout the world, whose principles of liberty and freedom were courageously taught and maintained. Of these lodges, which contained half a million members, there are 67 in New Zealand, 247 in Australia, 269 in the United States, 290 in Scotland, 800 in England, 1,594 in British North America, and 1,650 in Ireland.

"I am here to-day to ask you to hand down these great principles to posterity, as they were bequeathed to you unshaken in their integrity and strength," said the doctor. "They were bought with blood, with pain and suffering, and it is the duty of every brother of the order to uphold them, not only where the task is easy, but where they must be fought for with self-sacrifice and loss."

"The great Roman Catholic Church is fighting for power, is fighting to gain supremacy in our great Dominion. Driven from other great powers because of her tyrannical assumption of authority, she is endeavoring to make good her standing in Canada, and while every liberty to worship is given her, as loyal Canadians we must maintain our rights and be subject to no authority but that of Christ and of the state."

In Toronto. Toronto, July 13.—Under the scorching rays of the traditional perspiration-producing 12th of July sun, over 4,000 stalwart sons of King William kept alive the memories of Derry, Aughrim, Enniskillen and the Boyne in one of the biggest Orange processions on record in Toronto, followed by sports and speeches at exhibition park.

At Trenton. Trenton, July 13.—Trenton Orange Lodge, No. 206, conducted a large demonstration in which over 2,000 members of the order took part from Northumberland, East, West and North Hastings, and Prince Edward. In the afternoon there was a parade.

At Hagersville. Hagersville, July 13.—Hagersville had its first Orange demonstration for nine years and it was a great success. About 2,000 lined up in the procession, which was headed by a mounted brigade of 100 men. After parading through the town, a fine meeting was held in the park.

At Ottawa. Ottawa, July 13.—Eight thousand Orangemen, Young Britons and Loyalty Blues invaded the capital yesterday morning, coming in by special trains from points throughout the Ottawa Valley and eastern Ontario. The parade to Lansdowne Park yesterday afternoon was one of the largest ever witnessed in this section of the province.

At Port Hope. Port Hope, July 13.—Fully 300 Orangemen were in line in yesterday's parade about town. Speeches were delivered in the town park, where 15,000 people assembled, by Col. Sam Hughes, M.P., and G. A. Jordan, Lindsay; Jonas Thornton, M.P., Orono; and others.

At Parry Sound. Parry Sound, July 13.—The Orangemen of the north held a great celebration here yesterday, under perfect weather conditions. Upwards of 43 lodges were represented, and from Sudbury in the north to Pefferlaw in the south.

Glencoe, July 13.—Lodges were here from Lambton, Kent and Middlesex. The fine day brought in a couple of thousand spectators. In the afternoon the fair grounds were crowded.

At Kingston. Kingston, July 13.—The Orangemen had a cool day for their celebration yesterday. It rained heavily in the morning hours. Later the Orangemen assembled in the fair grounds, heard some short addresses, and gave up the rest of the day to sports, dancing, etc.

At Clinton. Clinton, July 13.—The town yesterday was resplendent with flags and bunting, with several fine arches of evergreen. There were 40 lodges in procession from South Perth, South Huron and North Huron.

Great Time at Galt. Galt, July 13.—To-day's celebration was on a scale never equalled here. The local Orange Lodge, Enniskillen No. 478, carried out the affair, and the celebration was a credit both to the Orange Order and the Town of Galt. There were 5,000 Orangemen and their friends gathered, representing many lodges of the district.

At Brussels. Brussels, July 13.—Never in the history of the town has there been such a crowd, the streets being literally packed. Upwards of 50 Orange lodges were in attendance.

Canadian Children Swear.

That there is a terrible prevalence of profanity in Canada, especially among the younger generation, was a statement made by Rev. W. B. Findlay in a sermon at St. Enock's Presbyterian Church, Toronto, a few days ago.

Rev. Mr. Findlay said a countryman of his, an Edinburgh and Oxford man, had told him that he had never before heard such profanity as in towns of the Canadian west.

The speaker said it was impossible to travel by train or steam-boat or to walk the streets without hearing blasphemous expressions. It was common whenever there were groups of men or boys at work, playing games or standing in the street corners.

"You will find children of tender years using the most profane language," asserted Rev. M. Findlay.

"There is an enormous lack in the Canadian day schools in the plain, simple matter of teaching the boys they must not swear," he said. "Every teacher should again and again, week after week, impress this upon the children."

Rev. Mr. Findlay contrasted the "flippant, idle" children of Ontario with those of Quebec, who had manners of courtesy foreign to the youths of Ontario.

"If you ask a common civil question of a group of children here you will usually get an answer a million miles removed from civility," he declared.

"WILFRID DE GREAT."

[The story of the writing of the famous newspaper poem, "Hoch der Kaiser," in Montreal, in 1897, and of the author, a brilliant dervish, has recently been going the rounds of the press. In the same year this writer, A. McGregor Rose—or A. M. R. Gordon, as he called himself—produced another poem well worth preserving. The subject was Sir Wilfrid Laurier's progress through England and France in the Jubilee year. The poem was illustrated by J. C. Innes and published in booklet form by the Sterling Publishing Co., Montreal.]

We'n Queen Victoria call her peup's For mak' some jubilee, She sen' for men from all de worl'—Dat mean her colonie.

But mos' of all she sen' dis word, To dis Canadian shore, "If Wilfrid Laurier will not come, I will be glad no more!"

Den Wilfrid—not had fellow, him—Lil', w'at you call, de hat, An' say: "Ma Reine, you mus' not fret, 'Bout little t'ing like dat.

"To Londres, on de day in June You tole me, I will come, And show you w'at is like de French-Canadian gentilhomme!"

Den Wilfrid sail across de sea, An' Queen Victoria's met, An' w'en she's see him, ah! she is Jus' tickle half to deat!

An' w'en he's kneel, as etiquette Demand, for be'correc', She tak' a sword into de han' An' hit him on de neck.

An' w'en she do, she smile on him, An' dese de words she say: "Rise up, my true Canadian knight, Sir Wilfrid Laurier!"

Den Wilfrid kiss de Royal han' An' back off on de door, An' bow, as only Frenchman can, An' smile an' bow some more.

Nex' day, it ees a glorious sight, At half-past twelf o'clock, For see Sir Wilfrid ride on state An' in chapeau de coque!

Lords Solsby, Roberts, Cecil Rhode, An' Chamberlain, an' dose, Were, w'at you call, "not in it," for—Sir Wilfrid was de boss!

Oui, certainement, excep' de Queen Horses, dat glorious day, De greates' man on Angletierre, Is Wilfrid Laurier!

Sir Wilfrid cross de Channel, den, For visit la patrie, An' mak' fine speeches, twi or t'ree, In de city of Paree.

An' shak' de han' an' drink de vin Wit' Faure, de President, An' show him w'at de kin' of man Dis co'ntree represen'.

An' w'en Sir Wilfrid's voice dey hear An' hees fine shape dey see, De men of France was hall surprise, De ladies hall epris!

Den Monsieur Faure, he rise an' say: "Sir Wilfrid Laurier, In de Legi-on d' Honneur you are Un Grand Officier!"

An' to Sir Wilfrid, front dem hall, He mak' some fine address, An' den, de ribbon wit' de star He pin upon hees breas'.

En bref, our Wilfrid capture France, He's capture Anglan' too! I tink he will annex dem bot' To Canada.—Don't you?

Do You Feel This Way?

Do you feel all tired out? Do you sometimes think you just can't work away at your profession or trade any longer? Do you have a poor appetite, and lay awake at nights unable to sleep? Are your nerves all gone, and your stomach too? Has ambition to forge ahead in the world left you? If so, you might as well put a stop to your misery. You can do it if you will. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will make you a different individual. It will set your lazy liver to work. It will set things right in your stomach, and your appetite will come back. It will purify your blood. If there is any tendency in your family toward consumption, it will keep that dread destroyer away. Even after consumption has almost gained a foothold in the form of a lingering cough, bronchitis, or bleeding at the lungs, it will bring about a cure in 98 per cent. of all cases. It is a remedy prepared by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., whose advice is given free to all who wish to write him. His greatest success has come from his wide experience and varied practice. RULE OF THE ROAD.

A London Policeman Explained the Matter Very Clearly.

"The first day in England," says an American traveler, "my heart jumped into my throat several times. Riding on top of a bus, the driver would always turn toward the left when we were about to pass another vehicle, and, although I knew that that was the English custom, I held on tight and got shivers anticipating a collision every time. One morning I stepped up to a policeman at King's Cross to get my bearings, and, as he was disposed to be talkative, I kept him company."

"Among other things, I asked him whether there was any rule requiring pedestrians to keep to the left. No, he told me; it was only for the roadway that the rule held."

"I then asked him why it was that in England they always turned to the left, whereas in all other countries the rule was to turn to the right."

"Oh, it's very important to keep to the left," he said seriously. "I knew it was very important to observe the rule of the road, but why turn to the left?"

"Well," he said, "I'll show you. Now you come here," and he led me to the middle of the roadway. "You see," he continued, "how the traffic moves along the two sides of the road?"

"Yes, I saw, and a pretty sight it was, too—a string of all sorts of conveyances coming toward us on our right and another moving away from us on the left as far as the eye could see."

"Well, now—and he was very impressive—suppose you were driving along in the middle here and another kerriage was coming the other way, and suppose you turned to the right, don't you see you would be getting in the way of all those vehicles?"

"Yes, I saw that."

"Well, that's why we always turn to the left."

"I learned afterward that the 'bobby' expected a tip for all the information he had given me."—Youth's Companion.
