A ROYAL DESPOT.

Wurttemberg Prince Who Sold His Subjects Like Cattle.

Cruel and despotic were some of the petty princes who ruled the fatherland before the Napoleonic wars swept them away. Charles Eugene of Wurtemberg, born in 1728, died in 1793 and during his sixty-five years of life tormented his parents, his wives and his subjects. His first consort, Freder-icka of Bayreuth, was worthy of him. When entering Wurttemberg soon after their marriage the girls threw masses of flowers in front of him. "What do those dogs want?" the princess asked her husband. They were always quarrelling and never spoke to each other without snarling.
The prince was always short of money and sold 6,000 of his subjects to England to raise the wind. He took the poor wretches from the fields, clapped a uniform on them and sent them to their destination as if they were cattle.
Once he called all the young men of a certain district before him and made the following speech: "My brave boys, do you want to go to fight in the ranks of the English heroes against the savages of the continent? No reply was made for the moment. Then a number of the youths stepped forward, and one of them said, "We do not want to be sold like sheep." The prince promptly gave orders for two of them to be seized, put against a wall and shot at once. Then while the blood was running from the mutilated bodies of the two unfortunates the prince by divine right said: "Run away. You see I do not want to impose my will on you. I think of your welfare like a father does of his children. You want to fight by the side of the valiant English." All consented. Schiller heard his father tell this story, and he himself related it in a scene of one of his plays.

Phil May's Drawings.

The late Phil May was popularly supposed to be the "lightning artist" par excellence of England. It is quite true that he could draw many wonderful things "straight off." But when a subject had been chosen for a Punch illustration many drawings were made from a model or models who first had to be discovered. By a process of selection each drawing of the subject bore fewer lines. When the drawing was published most of those who looked at it thought that it had been done with a few rapid strokes of the pen, whereas it probably represented a week's hard work.

Bank of England Watchers.

When you enter the Bank of England by any door four pairs of eyes watch you, though you are unaware of this fact. Situated close to the doors are hiding places in which are four guardians of the bank. You cannot see them, but they can watch you with the aid of reflecting mirrors in which they can see your entrance and exit and every movement from the time you enter the portals of wealth to the moment you leave them.

CATTLE MARKETS.

Cattle Steady—Hogs Lower at Buffalo and Chicago.

LONDON, July 12.—London cables for cattle are firm, at 13 3/4 to 14 1/4 per lb. for Canadian steers, dressed weight; refrigerator beef is quoted at 11 1/2 to 12 per pound.

Toronto Junction Live Stock.

TORONTO, July 12.—Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards were 98 carloads, consisting of 1981 cattle, 13 hogs, 225 sheep and lambs, and 11 calves.

Exporters.

There was nothing doing in the way of selling exporters, drivers waiting for Tuesday's market, when the buyers of this class will be on hand.

Butchers.

The number of buyers was not as large as usual, but there was enough to buy all the offerings in the sale. Trade for them was slow early in the day, but later on became better. Prices were considerably fair by drovers, who had cattle on sale.One drover said he did better than he expected. Prime picked lots were quoted by one of the heaviest buyers at $5.50 to $5.70; loads of good, $5.20 to $5.50, and one load at $5.20, medium, $4.80 to $5.10; common, $4 to $4.50; cows, $3.25 to $4.70.

Milkers and Springers.

Receipts of milkers and springers were moderate and prices also were reported to be moderate, more so than at any time this season. Fred Rowntree bought the bulk of the milkers and springers, 15 in number, at $5 to $45 each.

Veal Calves.

Not many calves were on sale and prices were unchanged at $3 to $6 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs.

Receipts of 225 sheep and lambs, found ready sale and more could have been sold.

Export ewes, $3.50 to $4.12; rams, $2.50 to $3 per cwt; lambs, the bulk sold at $2.50 to $7.50 per cwt., and one lot of extra choice brought $8 per cwt., or 8c per lb.

Hogs.

Market for hogs is firm at $3.15 per cwt.

for select, fed and watered, and $7.50, l.o.b., cars, at country points.

Montreal Live Stock.

MONTREAL, July 12.—(Special.) At the

Montreal Stock Yards, West End Market, the receipts of live stock for the week ending July 10, were 225 cattle, 250 sheep and lambs, 210 hogs and 150 calves.

The offerings this morning consisted of 1103 cattle, 250 sheep and lambs, 150 hogs and 25 calves.

There was a stronger undertone to the market for cattle and prices show an advance, as compared with those noted on Wednesday last, but they show no change with the market of a week ago. The strength was attributed to the fact that supplies were smaller and especially so of the top grades, as the bulk of the offerings consisted of half finished grassers.

The demand for good, useful stock was grade in which was fairly active, notwithstanding a close entry wednesday, but the lower grades moved slowly. There was no demand for exporters on account of the weaker cable advices received from Liverpool, which noted a decline in prices since this day week of 1/2c to 1c per lb., owing to warm weather and a very slow market. Choice steers sold here at $4.25 to $4.50; cows, at $3.50 to $4.25; $4.25 to $4.50; medium, at $3.50 to $4.25; common, at $2.50 to $3.50, and inferior, at $2.50 to $3.50 per lb.

The demand for sheep and lambs was good, of which supplies were somewhat limited and in consequence the tone of the market was steady, with no change in prices noted. Sheep sold at $3.50 and lambs, at $3.50 to $4.25 per lb. A fairly active trade was done in calves at prices ranging from $2 to $4 each, as to size and quality. A much stronger feeling developed in the market for hogs to-day and prices advanced 1/2c per cwt., which was due principally to the keen competition between buyers for supplies and the fact that receipts do not increase any. Sales of selected lots were made at $3.75 to $3.85 per cwt., weighed off the cars. Calves from Liverpool, London and Bristol on Saturday were very strong on Canadian bacon and noted an advance in prices for week of 48 to 78 per cwt., which probably had some influence on the local market for live hogs.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.
