McKELVIE IS FREED

Judge Leask Acquits New Liskeard Mining Man.

FINDS NO CORRUPT PLAN

Vice-President of Mining Company,
Charged With Bribing John Piche to Leave the Country to Avoid Testifying in Suit, Is Cleared—
It Was Natural for Piche to Go Away, Says the Judge.

North Bay, Sept. 3.—Angus A. McKelvie of New Liskeard was yesterday acquitted by Judge Leask of the charge of having bribed John Piche to leave the country and not give evidence in a suit brought by the Attorney-General's Department against the Temiskaming & Hudson Bay Mining Co., affecting the title of that company.

McKelvie was vice-president of the mining company, against which several suits were pending in the spring of 1906. John Piche, who was a prospector for the company, was a material witness in a suit against Henry Thompson and the company, and plaintiff in another to recover 484 shares of stock in the company, which he had hypothecated with Thomas McCamus, a director of the company.

F. W. Scott of the records' office, Osgoode Hall, produced the papers in the suit and Inspector Rogers told of searching McKelvie's premises and finding certain checks, one of $800, dated April 12, 1906, paid to Mrs. Elizabeth Burwash, sister of Piche.

Mrs. Burwash swore her brother left the country April 13, 1906, in consequence of pending law suits in which he was interested. She told of interviews with McKelvie leading to a settlement of Piche's claims against the company, and of Piche agreeing that he would take $2,000 and 100 shares of stock and leave the country. Witness said she broached this offer to McKelvie and he compromised at $1,000 and 100 shares of stock, and she received for her brother $200 in cash and a check for $800, with 100 shares. After Piche had been away some time, he wrote her to sell the stock, but she said McKelvie had objected as Piche might, both the company after the money was gone.

John Piche told of his interview with McKelvie and of receiving money and stock. He admitted that he had sold the stock outright to the company and did not wish to go on with the case although pressed to do so by Pinkerton. The settlement he made was on condition of his not appearing as a witness in several law suits pending against the company. He stayed away three years and returned thinking the matter had dropped.

Angus McKelvie swore that he had an interview with Mrs. Burwash in regard to her brother's suit against the company for shares, and that no other suit was mentioned. He had talked the matter over with Piche at the same time and a quarrel resulted, but a settlement was made next day by Thomas McCamus, at whom the suit was directed, witness being present. Witness never arranged with Mrs. Burwash to go to Edmonton to warn Piche.

Thomas McCamus, Fergus Hutchinson (secretary of the T. & H. B. Co.), S. H. Ryan (chief despatcher T. & N. O. Railway), and D. T. K. McEwan, and A. N. Morgan, solicitors for the mining company, gave evidence discrediting portions of Mrs. Burwash's statements.

Judge Leask, in summing up the evidence, could find no corrupt plan to induce Piche to leave the country. Piche was tangled up in law suits and it was only natural that he should wish to go away, especially as he believed his lawyer wished him to swear falsely.

One strange thing was the payment of $200 to Mrs. Burwash to go to Edmonton. This had not been clearly explained, but no connection had been shown as far as McKelvie was concerned.

Two Years For Perjury.

Toronto, Sept. 3.—Solomon Altman learned the golden value of truth when in the Police Court yesterday he was sentenced to two years in Kingston Penitentiary for perjury which he admitted having committed in a civil case. He declared that he had been offered $50 and paid $20 by Morris Levy, one of the parties to the suit, who is now before the court charged with subornation of perjury.

Crown Attorney's Denial.

Peterboro, Sept. 3.—Crown Attorney R. E. Wood has made an emphatic denial of a statement which appeared in a Toronto paper to the effect that there would be no prosecution in the Bolland case. Mr. Wood says he never said anything of the kind, and characterizes the "interview" published as imaginary on the part of the writer.

Three Killed; One Other Will Die.

Reading, Pa., Sept. 3.—A Pennsylvania railroad train yesterday afternoon struck an automobile at Douglassville of this county, and killed three persons—Wm. L. Groul and wife of Temple, and the wife of Dr. S. L. Stiegel, a well-known dentist of Reading. Dr. Stiegel had both legs broken and cannot survive.

Shot By a Homesteader.

Saskatoon, Sask., Sept. 3.—Word reached the city yesterday morning from Zealandia that a man, at present unknown, had been shot dead there Wednesday night by a homesteader named Hope.

Corpl. Gray, N.W.M.P., arrested the murderer, who confessed. Details are very meagre.

Raymond Hitchcock Free.

New York, Sept. 3.—Raymond Hitchcock, the comedian, was given a clean bill in the Criminal Court records yesterday, when the Court of General Sessions dismissed the remaining four indictments against him, charging misconduct.

Many a man's so-called goodness is due to the fact that an interesting brand of temptation has never been handed him.

After a man has tried in vain to borrow a few paltry dollars you can't convince him that the world isn't growing wiser.
