Five Kisses.

The Toronto Methodist Conference is worried over the following osculatory exertions of a reverend gentleman:—Rev. N. R. Willoughby was for several years pastor of the Bloor-street Methodist Church, Yorkville. In 1880 he was President of the Toronto Conference. In that year he was assigned to Brampton station, much to the satisfaction of a majority of the congregation. Among his strongest friends was Mr. Graham. When he arrived in Brampton to take charge, the parsonage was being repaired, and the new minister was therefore invited to remain at Mr. Graham's house until his own house was ready for his reception. Mr. and Mrs. Graham went off on a trip about that time, leaving their guest in the care of the other members of the family, among whom was Miss Georgie Graham, their daughter, the young lady before alluded to.

STATEMENT FOR THE PROSECUTION.

Though access to the only infallible source of information was denied, the substance of the case against Mr. Willoughby was obtained from outside sources. The young lady, it is understood, claims that one Sunday evening about ten days after Mr. Willoughby first came to her father's house, while she was going through the hall, he came out of the parlor, and catching hold of her suddenly, kissed her. She rebuked him, and said that she would tell Mr. Star, then her affianced, who was at the time preaching in Peterboro. He said she would not do that, for being President of the Conference he could do Star a good deal of injury. Within a day or two Mr. Star came to Brampton, stopping at Mr
