

AN UNPROFITABLE MONGOLIAN.—An Wouu, one of our saddle-tinted aliens, had the effrontery to be taking a walk at 2.15 a. m. on Tuesday last, and was "stood up" by one of our freeborn hoodlums. Imagine the disgust of the white man to find the total yield of his supposed Mongolian bonanza to be just fifteen cents, every cent he had taken in the night, too. This amount was hardly enough to pay for a day's interest on one of the new kind of silver-plated, self-cocking revolvers, now used by all our best known foot-pads. This significant incident illustrates one of the worst peculiarities of this besotted people—we mean the Chinese—they never carry any decent sum of money around with them, which is another reason why we should at once be released from the mendacity of these oriental vampires. If their immediate exclusion cannot be secured on account of the pigheaded obstinacy of "Pigtail Arthur," at all events Congress might compromise by passing a law compelling them to go about in parties of six or eight, especially on moonless nights, when the city is made shadowy and dismal by the gas company, so that by trying out a whole lot of them at one time, poor but deserving highwaymen may at least take in expenses these hard times.

NO CURE FOR LIARS.—A Michigander who took in the White Sulphur Springs of Virginia on a recent trip, one day approached an aged negro who was loitering on the street, and confidentially informed him that he had come to the springs to be cured of the habit of lying, and he asked the old man's opinion of the chances for a cure.

"How long has you bin in de habit of lyin', sah?" was the honest query.

"About fifty years."

"Lyin' all de time?"

"Right along, day after day."

"Big lies?"

"Yes—the worst old whoppers you ever heard. Give me your honest opinion, now, as to whether a course of baths will help me."

"Well, sah," said the old negro, as he scratched his head, "pears to me dat if you kin git the water hot 'nuff it might help you some, but de trouble is dat in sweatin' out de lies you may cook de body, an' my 'sperience wid white men am dat I kin git 'long better wid a well man who lies dan wid a parbiled man who tells de truf!"

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.—Preventing Mould.—To ensure paste from moulding put into it a proportion of alum and resin. A few drops of any essential oil will preserve leather from mould, and a single clove put into a bottle of ink will have the same effect upon it.

HARTSHORN COOKIES.—Two cupfuls of sugar, one of butter, one of milk, three eggs, lemon extract, and one tablespoonful of hartshorn, pulverized. Bake soon after mixing.

DISINFECTANTS.—Coffee pounded in a mortar and roasted on an iron plate, sugar burned on hot coals, and vinegar boiled with myrrh and sprinkled on floors and furniture in a sick room, are excellent deodorizers.

INK ON FURNITURE.—Ink stains on black walnut furniture may be removed by touching the spots with a feather wet in a solution of nitre and water, eight drops to a spoonful of water. As soon as the stains are erased rub with a cloth dipped in water.

A MAN WHO WOULDN'T TAKE TAFFY.—Collector (Judge) Robertson tells the following good joke of himself. A short time after his retirement from the State Senate, he happened to meet an old friend, whom he had not seen for some time. The judge, all smiles and heartiness, effervesced over his "dear friend" in such a way as to provoke the enquiry:

"What office are you a candidate for now, Judge?"

The Judge made a deprecatory movement with an outward turned palm, and said: "For none at all, my dear brother; I'm simply a candidate for the kingdom of heaven."

His friend regarded him sorrowfully for an instant, and then, with more wit than politeness, and more profanity than either, said: "I'll bet you don't carry a township."

Doubtless the judge lost sight of the man's profanity in admiration of his sublimely truthful candor.—N. Y. Mercury.

The largest inland sea is the Caspian, lying between Europe and Asia. Its greatest length is 760 miles, its greatest breadth 270 miles, and its area 180,000 square miles. Great Salt Lake, in Utah, may be more properly termed an inland sea, is about 90 miles long and has a varying breadth of from 20 to 35 miles. Its surface is 4,200 feet above the level of the sea, whereas the surface of the Caspian is 84 feet below the sea level.

ALABASTINE.

A Natural Material for finishing
Walls, Ceilings,

ROUGH PLASTER, NEW SMOOTH SAND FIN-ISH, A SOILED HARD FINISH, PAINT-ED WALLS, WOOD CEILINGS, WALL PAPER, BRICK, ROUGH BOARDS,
CANVAS, Etc., Etc.

Superior to Kalsomine.

READY FOR USE BY ADDING HOT WATER.

CAN BE MIXED BY ANY ONE.

Any Housekeeper can Apply it without the aid of Skilled Labor.

Alabastine is a Valuable Discovery.

It constitutes a permanent finish for Walls,
assimilating with the plaster, and will not rub
off. It does not deteriorate by age; in this respect it is unlike all other preparations of a similar character. Alabastine is a disinfectant, and renders apartments healthful. Cracks in the Walls can be filled by mixing the Alabastine thick, which cannot be done with Kalsomine.

Five pounds of ALABASTINE will cover 50 square yards, or 450 square feet, two coats.

Have just received direct from New York sixteen cases of the above, comprising Thirteen Different Shades.
