ALL ARE INVITED.

LOCAL NEWS.

No ARRIVALS in port to-day.

RETURNED.—The Duke of Manchester's party returned from Grand Falls to-day, and went to St. John via Woodstock.MEETING AT KESWICK RIDGE.—Mr. Gregory will address the electors at Keswick Ridge, in Mr. Pickard's interest, to-night.MESSRS. BLAIR AND THOMPSON were in town yesterday. They find the current of popular feeling setting strongly in their favor.PERSONAL.—The Rev Dr Kingdon arrived home Monday from his trip up river.
Senator O'Dell was in town Monday.AMERICAN POSTAGE STAMPS.—Any person wishing to obtain American postage stamps, can procure them from Mr. E. A. Vavasour.ARREST.—Last evening, about seven o'clock, a St. John man named Henderson was arrested on Regent st. He was drunk and accordingly very noisy.ACCIDENT.—Yesterday afternoon a tree was being felled in front of the Parliament Building, when it caught and broke the telephone wire leading to Sheriff Temple's house.MR. PICKARD'S MOVEMENTS.—Mr. Pickard spent last evening in town. His meeting at Stanley was one of the grandest demonstrations of the campaign. He will speak at Tay Settlement to-night.UNPLEASANT.—At the lower end of the Cathedral grounds there is a compost heap from which a very unpleasant odor arises.
It would be well if the person having charge, would tend to its removal.BICYCLES.—Yesterday afternoon Messrs.
Andrews and O'Brien, of Boston, accompanied by Messrs. Turnbull and Smith, of this town, had a ride around the town on bicycles. Considering the splendid chance this place affords for bicycling it is a wonder that more of the young men have not procured machines.

To the Editor of the Herald:

MR. EDITOR.—Messrs. Blair and Thompson held a meeting here Saturday night. It was the largest held here yet. The house was packed full. The meeting received the candidates with great applause. Their remarks were pointed and well put, and all present, with the exception of four Tories, were well pleased. It was generally said in the crowd at the door after the meeting broke up, that Blair and Thompson must be elected. Liberalism prevails here. Yours, S. O. P.
Mouth Keswick, June 14.ACCIDENT AT THE RACE COURSE.—Last evening about seven o'clock, a four year old Morris colt, owned by George Morecraft, while being driven by James Perry at the race course, ran away. After a few springs the horse brought the sulky in contact with the fence when Perry was thrown from his seat, and severely on his head and his collar bone broken. The horse ran to the gate where he broke the sulky to pieces against the posts, and running back up the track was only caught with difficulty. Mr. Hagerman at once took Perry to Dr. Brown's where his injuries were attended to.THE PROTEST.—The ground of the protest against Mr. Fraser's nomination is as follows:—The election law provides that a candidate may be nominated by twenty-five electors by the production to the returning officer of "a writing in the form of Schedule F. under their hands" Schedule F. gives the form of nomination, and directs that the signatures shall have the "residence and additions" of the signers. In Mr. Fraser's paper the names are in the handwriting of the persons signing but the residences and additions are all in one handwriting and were evidently interlined afterwards. The question therefore arises whether this is such a signing in the presence of a witness as complies with the provisions of the law.SUPREME COURT.—Trinity Term of the Supreme Court opened yesterday, all the Judges being present. The following papers were made up:—Motion paper—Mullin et al vs Armstrong et al. Mr. Jordan to move for judgment as in case of a nonsuit.Macdonald vs Potts. Mr. Sturdee to move to set aside a judgment of Mr. Justice King.Appeal paper—Small et al, appellants, vs Belyea, respondent. Appeal from the Queen's County Court. Mr. G. G. Gilbert to support appeal.Special paper—Macdonald vs Potts. Mr.
Sturdee to move to set aside judgment of Judge King.Forbes vs Lawlor. Mr. Tuck to move for new trial.Doe ex dem Rankin vs Andrews. Mr. G.
B. Seeley to move for new trial.Sheehy vs Miliken. Mr. Vanwart to shew cause.Jones, assignee, vs Miliken et al. The like.Fogarty et al vs Miliken et al. The like.
Morrall vs Brideau. Mr. Davidson. The like.

Nomination in York.

About ten o'clock, yesterday, people began to gather in large numbers at the Liberal Committee rooms. They were chiefly persons from the country, and many of them were men of extensive influence, who have proved a power in previous election contests. Mr. Pickard was expected at any moment, and as the time slipped away without his coming, the crowd grew quite impatient. Shortly after twelve o'clock he arrived from Stanley, and was received by a hearty

ROUND OF CHEERS.

His friends gathered around him and assured him of their confidence in his success, while he, on his part, told of the grand reception he had met at Stanley, a place which his opponents have chosen to call one of their strongholds. Mr. Pickard, having signed his nomination, it was handed to the Sheriff, with the deposit of $200, as required by law. He is nominated by the following gentlemen:—James Love, Thos Jones,
Jeremiah Heron,
Chas H Lugin,
Arthur Limerick,
P A Logan,
A J Marstin,
G S Peters,
W H White,
J Henry Thorae,
G N Kisten,
T N Richards,
Moses White,
Robt Sutherland,
Robt Richards,
Judah Hammond,
E S Hammond,
Ross Currie,
G A Strange,
Joseph Mazerall,
Absalom Grant,
G L Pugh,
Alfred Rowley,
Stephen Carlisle,
C L Estabrooks,
Valentine Pickard,
Ezra Ingraham,
Charles Carlisle,
G W Foster,
J E Reid,
B A Everett,
John Scott,
C A Burpee,
Jonathan Hawkins,
Robert Winters,
M O Leary,
A McKenzie,
J A Edwards,
J R Mathews,
J E Colter,
James Henry,
John Palmer,
James Colter,
W W Graham,
Fred Bird,
Robt Macklin,
R Davis,
G N Bookhouse,
Geo W Ross,
John Edmonds, and others.Mr Fraser nomination and deposit were also handed in. His nomination paper is signed by—Benjamin Close, H A Davidson,
Henry S Strange,
Jos E Smith,
Alex Mitchell,
John C Humphries,
Asa D Brooks,
W H Lawrence,
David Cropley,
Henry Boone,
and others.On an inspection of this paper it appears that the residence and description of the nominators, was not written in their own handwriting; but were filed in afterwards by some person. A protest was thereupon filed by Messrs Myshraill and Gregory, as nominators of Mr. Pickard, against the reception of the nomination, and afterwards Mr Gregory demanded that the Sheriff should declare Mr. Pickard elected. This the Sheriff declined to do, saying that he must take the papers as being what they purported to be, and the hour of two having come, he declared the nomination closed. In 1878 he was opposed by Mr. Fisher in an honorable contest. Every man had a right to his own opinion, and Mr. Fisher had a right to oppose him if he choose. To-day he found himself opposed by his former friend, John James Fraser. The battle would be fought out squarely, and if elected he would promise the people to do everything which lay in his power to advance the best interests of the country. Mr. Pickard's short speech was received with ringing cheers. About two hundred people were present, of whom five-sixths were supporters of Mr. Pickard.
Mr. Fraser was not present, nor was Mr.
Fisher.

Nomination at St. Andrews.

(Special To THE HERALD.)

ST. ANDREWS, JUNE 13.

There was a large gathering at the Court House here this afternoon. Messrs. Gillmor and Stevenson were nominated, and both made speeches. There is great enthusiasm for Gillmor and all indications point to a great Liberal victory.COMMITTEE MEETING.—Mr Pickard's committee held a well attended meeting last night. A great many people were present from the country. Stirring speeches were delivered by Mr Pickard and others and the meeting separated with the determination to succeed and with every assurance of success.THE BAZAAR.—The Fredericton Brass Band will play in front of the Exhibition Building from 7 till 8.

The Baptist Bazaar.

The Baptist bazaar opened yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in the Exhibition Palace, with a large attendance. The ladies have used their best efforts to make the place attractive, and have succeeded admirably. The building is beautifully decorated with banners, mottoes, and evergreens, which presents one of the finest appearances ever witnessed in the city. The centre of the building is occupied by the fancy table, which is placed in a large square at the entrance, and is supplied with everything the heart can wish for in that line. The work is of the finest we have ever seen for sale, and does the ladies in charge the greatest credit. It is presided over by Mrs J G Mc-Nally, Mrs W Wheeler, Mrs Dr Rand, Mrs Dr Currie, Mrs A F Randolph and Mrs Asa Coy.
Directly behind this is a large triangular table, devoted to the showing and sale of aprons and dolls. This is presided over by a number of young ladies of the church. On the left of the entrance is the magic lake, which always attracts the attention and money of the younger attendants. Directly opposite the lake, on the right of the entrance, is still another attraction for the children in the shape of a swing, and this is kept on the move all the afternoon. A little further up, on the same side, is the ice cream stall, which is run by eight or ten of the young ladies of the church. The ice cream is from Babbitt Bros' confectionary, and has received no little attention during the day.
Still further up on the same side is the refreshment stand, which is presided over by Mrs R McNally, and this section of the building received its quota of visitors, who went away satisfied that they had spent their money well. In a side room, on the right of the building, is something that is not always shown at bazaars—a display of dissolving views—presided over by Messrs J Babbitt and Wheeler. Numbers availed themselves of this rare opportunity of seeing many things that were useful as well as amusing to them. The soda water fountain was well patronized, and is positioned on the right of the dais. A very important feature in the building is a large and handsome display of flowers from Mr Babbington's gardens, and many were the purchasers at this table, which is on the left of the dais. The children made use of their time by selling bouquets all over the building, and one can hardly resist complying with requests of the little ones to purchase. The tea tables were the most attractive feature of the evening, and numbers appeased their appetites with the many good things provided for them by the ladies, who are noted for their ability to cater to the tastes of the "hungry man from Harlem." In the evening the Fredericton Brass Band furnished music, which served to enliven the proceedings.
The bazaar will continue this afternoon and evening. The Fredericton Brass Band will also be in attendance this evening. The ladies deserve credit for their successful efforts in getting up the bazaar, and if the public gives it as liberal patronage this afternoon and evening as last, their efforts will meet with the success they merit.Consumption is a disease contracted by a neglected cold—how necessary then that we should at once get the best cure for Coughs, Colds, Laryngitis, and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs,—one of the most popular medicines for these complaints is Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. Mr J F Smith, Druggist, Dunville, writes: "It gives general satisfaction and sells splendidly."Mr H McCaw, Custom House, Toronto, writes: "My wife was troubled with Dyspepsia and Rheumatism for a long time; she tried many different medicines, but did not get any relief until she used Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. She has taken two bottles of it, and now finds herself in better health than she has been for years."Jabesh Snow, Gunning Cove, N. S., writes: "I was completely prostrated with the asthma, but hearing of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, I procured a bottle, and it done me so much good that I got another, and before it was used I was well. My son was cured of a bad cold by the use of half a bottle. It goes like wild-fire, and makes cures wherever it is used."Great age carries with it a certain respectability whether it attaches to a person or thing. This is seen particularly in the case of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, which is the most marvelous internal and external remedy ever discovered. It ought to be kept in every house.If farmers and others continue to buy dust and ashes put up in big packs and sold for condition powders it won't be our fault.
We have exposed the swindle time and time again. Sheridan's Powders are the only kind we know of worth carrying home.
