

THE DAILY HERALD.

CHARLES H. LUGRIN, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.
FREDERICTON, N. B., JULY 4, 1882.

THE LOCAL LEGISLATURE.

Latest advices show conclusively that the estimates of the strength of parties made after the election by the friends of the local government were altogether wrong. Several of the members who were named in the Government papers as favorable to the administration have since declared themselves to be in Opposition. Indeed if a vote were taken in the Assembly to-day it would be seen that our estimate of fifteen as the full government strength would be quite high enough. Many persons make the mistake of supposing that because a member of the late House supported Mr. Fraser he is therefore to be counted upon as a supporter of Mr. Hanington. They do not distinguish between the circumstances then existing and those of to-day. True many members supported Mr. Fraser; but they only tolerated Mr. Hanington as a member of the Executive, considering both him and Mr. Adams a source of weakness to their party. With Mr. Landry the case was different. He was acknowledged in a measure as a representative man, but even he could not claim that he strengthened the administration in the House. The majority of the late House was not pledged to Messrs. Landry, Adams and Hanington, and did not give their allegiance to the Executive because these gentlemen were in it.

A review of the situation leads us to anticipate that a strong Government will be formed at an early day by the present Opposition. They have excellent material to select from. Indeed in point of ability and influence they are far beyond the Government and its acknowledged supporters. The Executive is as we have said, a collection of weak men, some of whom have political records which are far from creditable. On the other hand the Opposition consists of men who are strong in their hold upon the confidence of the country. It does not require a prophet to foresee that the weaker must go to the wall. It is only a question of time when Mr. Hanington and his colleagues shall lay down the reins of power, and we think the time is not very far off.

A QUESTION WHICH IS ASKED.

During the election campaign the Capital has contained articles of a most abusive character directed against several public gentlemen. Probably no one objected to them very seriously at the time, as they did those at whom they were directed more good than harm; but now that this sort of thing has been continued, after the excuse for it has ceased, people are beginning to ask whence this abuse originates. The personnel of the staff of a journal is the last thing we desire to say anything about; but if, as is freely stated upon the streets, these articles are written by a person in the public service, and whose time is supposed to be paid for out of the civic treasury, it is nearly time that some little notice was taken of it. If a man who occupies an important educational position can, with impunity, scandalize persons in every sense of the word his superiors, it is well that the public should know it at once, so that they may understand for what they are paying when they contribute towards his salary. We are far from objecting to any official exercising his full franchise as an elector, or employing his leisure in the discussion of political problems, but if a person in the public employ heaps abuse upon public men in the columns of a journal which makes nauseating tirades a specialty, it becomes a question for serious consideration whether, in the interests of the service with which that person happens to be connected, the offender should not be given his choice between abandoning one occupation or the other.

The New York Herald says: "The massacre of all the inhabitants of a little village on a railroad line in Dakota Territory by a band of Indians is reported by Gen. Terry, the commander of the military department. It will largely depend upon his vigor and discretion whether the murderers shall be reached and punished without the repetition of a costly Indian war in that region, and we are glad to believe that he is entitled to confidence as one of the most energetic and prudent officers the army possesses for such an exigency."

Reuter's correspondent at Constantinople says that the Ambassadors expect that the Porte will be the first to make a commencement with regard to the sending of Turkish troops to Egypt without awaiting a request from the conference.

NOTES AND NOTIONS.

It will be eighteen months before the Old Testament revision is completed. In the meantime the ten commandments are in force. We beg to draw the attention of our contemporaries to this fact. Probably they will then give us credit for what they crib from us.

The Sun grows very funny over the political situation in the local House. It will laugh on the other side of its mouth pretty soon.

The Toronto World thinks voting by ballot has not had a fair trial in Canada.

An Ontario newspaper correspondent wants a Canadian flag. He suggests a tri-color, red, for England and Scotland, green for Ireland, and white for France. Better make it all green as signifying that state of public opinion which condones the N. P. Fraud and the C. P. Outrage.

Brother World, we acknowledge the corn; but why don't you explain about that man's leg?

The World, in its kindness towards the Opposition, has undertaken to form a new Government. It says:—"Mr. Blair's Government, should he be called upon to form one, would contain himself as Attorney General, Mr. Ritchie as Solicitor General, and either Mr. McLellan as Board of Works or Mr. Elder as Provincial Secretary. This would leave two departments—one for the North and one for the West. Mr. Barberie expects the Northern portfolio." Either this or some other arrangement will be made. The World is so far correct.

A wicked Ontario paper suggests that the story about the Duke of Edinburgh being nearly drowned by a big fish is "a fish story," and intimates that H. R. H.'s reputation for truthfulness never was any too good.

The Governor of Wyoming Territory says that female suffrage has worked admirably in that region, and he wants Uncle Sam to confer the right upon all his nieces. There no doubt that female suffrage is gaining ground all over the world.

Emigration to Canada is growing quite popular with working men in England.

Three Governments have been defeated at the elections, namely those of New Brunswick, the Nova Scotia and the Prince Edward Island. Yet they hold on to office. These are Tory governments. Liberals would bow to popular opinion.

It seems to be settled at last that Sir Alex. Galt will go back to England for a year.

It is amusing to note how the weather-cocks veer with the wind. We had the spectacle yesterday of a clique manager apologizing to a gentleman whom he had blackguarded all through the campaign. But his apologies, like his abuse, are to no purpose. "Saltpetre" won't save him.

Six candidates are contesting for a seat in Parliament in one constituency in British Columbia. We believe there are at least 12 votes in the constituency.

The Quebec Chronicle slobbers over an Ontario murderer because he gave his brother some apple and orange seeds to plant in memory of him. The gallows tree ought to keep his memory sufficiently green.

News of the World.

Boston, Mass., July 2.—A despatch from Cairo says that in consequence of the manoeuvring of the British fleet Arabi Pasha proposes to send an Egyptian officer on board the flagship to ask for an explanation of the movements of the vessels.

A Vienna despatch says the Political Correspondence positively asserts that with the agreement of all the Powers, including England, eventual active intervention in Egypt, to be carried out in the first place by Turkish troops alone, is contemplated.

Arabi Pasha is alarmed at the general immigration of Europeans and Turks, and proposes to confiscate their property.

A rumor spread that the Khedive was going afloat. There was great excitement in consequence. Arabi Bey is now commencing operations against the Suez canal. Barges laden with stone have been sent down to be sunk when necessary. Explosives are also being hurried down. England is most dilatory in not sending gunboats to guard the canal. Arabi is now at Damietta looking after the coast defences. Gen. Stone, it is feared, is throwing in his lot with Arabi and endeavoring to do his utmost to hamper English action. His conduct, generally inscrutable, is universally blamed.

The Bedouins are crossing from the Syrian side into Egypt, and are a very serious source of anxiety.

The Journal Des Debats says: "Great Britain is right in desiring to act alone in Egypt. We firmly believe that France will afford her no assistance. The control of the Suez Canal belongs by right to England and will belong to her de facto. It is for her a question of life or death."
