GREAT DAY IN ST. PETERSBURG

Russians Celebrated Liberty by Revolutionary Processions---Much Disorder and Many Small Conflicts With Troops---How Other Russian Centres Celebrated New Found Freedom.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 31.—All Russia today celebrated enthusiastically the emperor's gift of freedom which the greater part of the people received with deepest joy, although in St. Petersburg, Moscow and other cities, socialists and revolutionaries organized anti-government demonstrations and red flag parades, which, with the patriotic manifestations, led to a number of conflicts between the "Reds" and "Whites" as the anti-government and royalist factions are respectively termed. On the whole the day passed more quietly in Russia than had been expected, though collisions between the people and the troops are reported from Poltava, Kazan and Kishineff, and two men were killed.

In each of the two capitals, St. Petersburg and Moscow, the day was one such as the Russians never before have seen. The Slavic people, which during the long war just closed and the anxious period preceding the announcement of the new era of constitutionalism, seemed half-restrained and apathetic, gave itself up fully to the exuberance of the moment and spent the entire day in parades and assemblies, which for the first time in the history of Russia were freely permitted. Under the order of Count Witte and General Trepoff the troops generally were withdrawn from the streets of the cities, and the fullest rein given the people to let out their enthusiasm in demonstrations, which so long as they were not destructive were not interfered with.

The shop keepers and better classes of people became panic stricken, fearing that the mob would get control of the city. The stores were closed, and people fled to their homes. The Nevsky Prospect and other streets were boarded up from end to end as a precaution against possible pillage.

The strike committee during the afternoon decided to continue the strike, joining with the students in their demand for the deposition of General Trepoff, general amnesty, the removal of the troops twenty miles out of the city, and the creation of a national militia.

Odessa, Oct. 31—The promulgation here of the emperor's manifesto was followed by the wildest excitement, vast crowds are exultantly parading the streets, a notable feature being the numbers of troops marching and cheering with the people. The church bells are ringing, thanksgiving services are being held and a public holiday has been proclaimed.

Rome, Oct. 31—General satisfaction is expressed here at the manifesto of Emperor Nicholas granting Russia a constitution and at the position taken by Count Witte. The hope is expressed that order is established and that Russia will become prosperous, there being a community of interests, especially in foreign trade between Russia and Italy.

King Victor Emmanuel learned the news on a railroad train after he had left Genoa and was most pleased.

The Pope heard the news this morning from Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state, and exclaimed "May this mean a new and happy life for Russia."

London, Oct. 31—In official circles there is reticency about things in Russia. Among those who have had experience in Russia, the opinion was expressed that the popular movement would not prove as successful as the people hoped for. One prominent official pointed out that the Russian people are not ready for universal suffrage and there is danger of the government getting into the hands of irresponsible persons. "However," he added, "anything to bring more solid conditions to Russia will be welcomed in England."

The newspapers herald the great forward stride taken by Emperor Nicholas and express the hope that Count Witte will succeed in carrying out his programme. All agree that Count Witte is the only Russian statesman who has any chance of extricating his country from its troubles.

Lodz., Russian Poland, Oct. 31.—The situation here tonight is extremely serious. The general strike is still in progress. On Piotrokowski street at 7 o'clock this evening, the infantry fired on the mobs, killing two persons and wounding three. An hour later on Konstantin street two persons were killed and eight wounded. At the same hour a collision took place in the suburb of Baluty, where three persons were killed and eight wounded.

The military governor has ordered the troops to mercilessly quell all disorders.

Kieff, Russia, Oct. 31.—The publication of the imperial manifesto granting constitution to Russia created tremendous enthusiasm here.

Odessa, Oct. 31.—9.15 p. m.—Something approaching panic prevails in this city tonight. There is much indiscriminate shooting and bands of roughs are prowling in various quarters looking for an opportunity to pillage.

It is openly stated that the police and military are indignant at the changed order of things resulting from the emperor's manifesto and are abetting the disorderly elements in order to give excuse for violence.

With darkness came a serious outbreak when the roughs attacked the Jewish shops in Dalmtzkai street. It is reported that they were accompanied by fifty policemen disguised as workmen. The Cossacks in aiding the shop keepers used their whips and the flats of their swords freely while the shopkeepers discharged revolvers and rifles on the crowd. It is reported that several persons were killed or wounded.

Collisions also occurred in other quarters and it is stated that in every case shots were fired by disguised policemen compelling the Cossacks to use their knouts, resulting in numbers of persons being badly injured.

The situation is considered criticical, especially in view of the possibility of trouble at the funeral tomorrow of students who were killed in the recent disturbances.

Warsaw, Oct. 31—11.16 p. m.—The employes of the Vienna Railway have decided to remain on strike until the question of the use of the Poolish language is settled and until the government proclaims amnesty for political prisoners and self-government for Russian Poland.

The newspapers are appearing without being subjected to censorship.

Petrokoff, Russian Poland, Oct. 31.—It is report[illegible] a company of reservists refused to [illegible] an order to fire on the demonstrators here today, but that the officers emptied their revolvers and several workmen were wounded.

Pabianice, Russian Poland, Oct. 31.—Infantry fired on a procession of workmen here this afternoon, kil[illegible] and wounding 24.

Warsaw, Oct. 31—Special editions of the newspapers containing the text of the manifesto were in the hands of everybody this morning. The streets were filled with crowds, eagerly discussing the news. Many persons were unable to realize its significance.

The factories and many shops are still closed. The Socialists are trying to maintain the strike until full amnesty is granted to political offenders and Governor-General Skallon is removed.

There is no hope of the railroads starting up today. Cossacks and infantry patrols are still in the streets.

The officials here received the manifesto with mixed feelings. Many of them did not conceal their anger at the defeat of the bureaucracy.

Two unknown men at noon held up the cashier of the [illegible] iron works in the Praga suburb, [illegible]ded him severely, and then decamp[illegible] $7,000.

The employ[illegible] the Vistula railway will meet tomorrow and discuss the question of returning to work.

London, Oct. 31—A despatch to a news agency from St. Petersburg says Count Witte authorizes the announcement that the minister of police will free all political prisoners whose release at the present moment will not endanger public order. Details of the release will be arranged at ministerial conference during the next few days.

TERRIBLE PAINS ACROSS BACK

SUFFERED EIGHT MONTHS WITH KIDNEY TROUBLE. WOULD HAVE TO STAY IN BED FOR THREE DAYS AT. A TIME

Doan's Kidney Pills CURED HIM

Mr. Thomas Fitzgerald, Hazeldean, Ont., writes us as follows: "I was a great sufferer from kidney trouble for eight months. I had terrible pains across the small of my back. I would have to stay in bed for three days at a time and could not do any work. I tried several remedies but of no avail, and also plasters but they were of no use.

One day a neighbor of mine advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I was so much discouraged I told him I was tired of trying remedies, but he urged me to try one box so I purchased one, and before I was through using it, I found a change for the better so I got five boxes more, and I have had no trouble with my kidneys since. I would not be without Doan's Pills in my house."

It is really not difficult to cure kidney trouble in its first stages. All you have to do is to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial. They are a never-failing cure for all forms of kidney trouble. They quickly relieve the conjested, overworked kidneys, and gradually bring them back to health.

Doan's Kidney Pills 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25, all dealers or The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

BOSTON LINE TO AUSTRALIA

Elder-Dempster Company to Establish Monthly Sailings, Starting This Month.

Ottawa, Oct. 31—(Special)—The establishment of a direct line of steamers from Australia to Boston constitutes an important development both in the wool trade and in the relations between Australia and Canada and the United States.

The line is to be established by the Elder-Dempster Company, of Liverpool. The first steamer for Boston is scheduled to leave Melbourne in November, followed by monthly sailings, and cargo may be booked for Canadian centres.

The new line will give facilities required for the direct purchase of wool by American buyers in Australia. During the past seasons the quantities of wool purchased at the colonial wool sales for the United States and Canada show a steady increase in the imports into the United States, despite a duty.

Canada has no duty against Australian wool, and the people of the commonwealth hope to increase their wool export by means of the new steamship service.

The largest cargo which ever left New York for Australia was recently delivered in Melbourne. The vessel brought 12,000 tons of general freight, valued at $1,500,000. In the cargo were some 48,000 cases of kerosene oil, 3,000 cases benzine, 4,889 packages of lubricating oil. The balance was the usual miscellaneous goods.

MYSTERY SOLVED

Boston Police Say That Doctor Much Wanted in Suit Case Mystery Is Located.

Boston, Oct. 31.—Just before leaving his office at police headquarters tonight, chief inspector W. B. Watts stated that the doctor who dismembered the body of Susanna Geary, the suit case victim, had been located. He did not expect, however, that any arrest would be made for a day or two, intimating that the police were awaiting something more definite from Morris Nathan, the lover of the girl, who is now in custody in Pittsburg (Pa.)

Chief Watts statement was as follows: "The doctor has been located. We know where he is and can probably put our hands on him when we want him. There is no need of seeking any further clues as far as this one man is concerned, because we know where he is."

The chief then added that he did not look for an arrest either tonight or tomorrow.

The theory of the police regarding the whole affair is that Miss Geary went to a woman and submitted to a criminal operation. It was not a success and a male physician was called in who attempted to save the girl's life by a second operation for peritonitis. Miss Geary, however, died. The doctor then dismembered the body and distributed portions of it in two suit cases, which were subsequently found. The charge against the woman can only be one of manslaughter, while according to Supt. Pierce of the local fore, it will be difficult to bring any charge against Nathan unless he should be accused of concealing a crime.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Catherine Malone

Mrs. Catherine Malone, widow of Squire Malone, of Petersville, died last Saturday at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. John Hassen, at the advanced age of seventy-four years. She is survived by six sons and two daughters. There are also a number of relatives in this city. The funeral took place yesterday from St. Ignatius' church. Rev. C. P. Carleton said requiem mass, and burial was at Petersville.

Louis Parlee

Louis Parlee, aged nineteen, died in the General Public Hospital Monday night. He had gone to the hospital from Penobsquis, where he was born. The body was taken to Penobsquis last night for interment.

John R. LeBlanc

Moncton, Oct. 31—Working at the Lewisville brickyard this morning, John Cummings heard groaning on the other side of the shed. Going around, he found Fireman John R. LeBlanc lying on a heap of lumber, with life almost extinct. He picked up the fallen man, but he died a few minutes later. Heart disease was the cause. Dr. Ross did not deem an inquest necessary. Deceased was fifty-seven years old, married, with a grown-up family, and had never been sick a day in his life. He had worked for the brick company more than thirty years, and lived at Fox Creek.
