A LAUGHING SUCCESS

"Mrs. Temple's Telegram" Given an Excellent Presentation by the Harkins Co.

"Mrs. Temple's Telegram," as presented by the Harkins Company at the Opera House last night, afforded an excellent idea of how entertaining a good, clean, bright farce comedy can be made when presented properly by a first-class company.

In the hands of less capable artists "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" might not be so successful, for although it affords almost constant opportunity for side-splitting fun, yet it is not a play which in technical parlance "will play itself." Its lines require to be carefully rendered and a great deal of its success depends upon the proper preservation of its atmosphere throughout.

It tells a story of the harrowing complications liable to arise from the slightest deviation from the path of truth.

A young husband tells a lie and, to use a homely phrase, thereby "puts his foot in it." His wife attempts to discover the truth or falsity of this story and manages to get both feet in it.

It is the more laughable for the reason that the young husband, who has never previously held a secret from his wife, is driven to falsehood because his wife will not believe the truth. In the ensuing complications he is aided and abetted by a friend who, as an all-around distorter of the naked truth, would have snatched laurels from the brow of the chief romancer of biblical times and left him disconsolate. Several other characters are enmeshed in the net of trouble, and until a few minutes before the curtain falls the many and varied complications are almost impossible of solution. Finally the truth comes out, the suspicious wife is convinced of her husband's probity and all ends satisfactorily. But it is as funny a piece as any ever seen here, and in the hands of the Harkins Company receives just the proper treatment to make it an artistic success.

Miss Van Duser made a great success as the suspicious Mrs. Temple. Joseph Selman as her husband and Harry English as his friend Frank Fuller, the modern Annanias, kept the audience in roars of laughter. Mrs. Fuller, a trustful wife, was well played by Miss Nelson, and Miss Powers gave just the right tone to Mrs. Brown, the indignant lady from Pickleton, with more husbands than she knew what to do with. A touch of comedy was provided by Miss Ethel Davis and Louis Brensen in their love scenes. Albert Tavernier gave a clever study of the impossible butler Wigson, while Mr. Bowker in a Sunny Jim make-up created much merriment in the role of the unfortunate hairdresser.

"Mrs. Temple's Telegram" will be repeated this evening.

Saturday night is to be military night, and the bill is an attractive one, Brother Officers. The performance will be under the patronage of Lt.-Col. Rolt White, D.O.C., and officers of the militia.

HALIFAX NEWS

Grain Elevator Being Made Ready For the Winter Season.

HALIFAX, Nov. 24—(Special)—The imperial troops, which are leaving this garrison for England, embarked on the Dominion liner Kensington this afternoon, and the steamer will leave for Liverpool this evening.

The grain elevator will be in full running order this season, and within the next ten days, 200,000 bushels of grain are expected to arrive for shipment to the old country.

The Allan line steamer Virginian, due from Liverpool one week from today, is expected to take a large portion of it.

W. H. Daniels is in the city from St. John to look over the elevator, and see that it is put in perfect running order. During the season he will have charge of both the St. John and Halifax elevators, dividing his time between the two cities.

It is understood that two hundred Canadian artillerymen who are coming here from Quebec to replace the R. G. A. will leave Quebec on the afternoon of December 4th, arriving here the next day. The Canadian infantry, from Toronto, and Kingston, are to entrain at Montreal on or about December 7th for Halifax and will go into Wellington barracks. A large number of men are married and will bring their families.

SHEFFIELD

SHEFFIELD, Nov. 22—Thomas McGarrigal has returned to St. John after a pleasant visit to his old home here.

Mrs. James Miles and son, Edward, of Maugerville, were the guests of Mrs. Miles' parents Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bridges on Tuesday.

The Sheffield and Maugerville Baptist sewing circle meets on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Hatfield Dykeman.

Frederick McGirvan, surveyor, has returned home to Fredericton from a business trip to Little River and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Warren Day have left for Portland, Me. where Mr. Day intends taking up medical studies again this winter. His many friends wish him success.

AS OTHERS SEE US

(St. Croix Courier Editorials.)

Too much labor doth make men mad. Just when the freight shipping season is commencing in St. John the longshoremen have gone on strike for a wage rate of thirty-five cents an hour, an increase of five cents.

A Chinaman who came to Canada by the steamship Kensington, who says he was here before, and who has papers to support his claim, is to be sent back to England, because he presented himself at Montreal instead of St. John (N.B.), which is the port from which he sailed when he left Canada. This is because of the regulations of the government under the Laurier anti-Chinese act. The philosopher who was led to remark that "the law is a hass," could, if he was living now, extend his condemnation to the regulations under the law.

The policeman's lot is not a happy one, particularly in St. John, where the police magistrate takes frequent occasion to publicly find fault with the chief of police and the men on the force. There have been other cases where officious individuals have thought that they could do things better than men specially employed for the performance of a duty, and never found out their mistake until they were given a chance to try. The government would confer a favor on the reading public if it would issue instructions that would give these officials, or one of them, a clear knowledge of just what he is being paid for.

MORE SMALL POX

FREDERICTON, N. B., Nov. 24.—(Special).—Dr. James Peake of Oromocto, who was in the city today, reports a bad outbreak of small-pox at Geary, in the parish of Burton. At present there are 14 cases of a mild type, but as Sunbury has not a board of health and no steps have been taken to head off the disease, it is spreading very rapidly.

GAVE LIQUOR TO AN INDIAN

Wellington Gerow on Trial in Fredericton on a Serious Charge.

FREDERICTON, Nov 24 —(Special)—Two colored boys Harry Nash and Jesse Gosman who pleaded guilty to placing oostructions on the I. C. R. track near Marysville were allowed to go by Col Marsh this morning under suspended sentence.

He said that on account of their youth he did not feel justified in sending them to the reformatory or the penitentiary and in releasing them on suspended sentence he was acting under the advice of the attorney-general. The parents of the boys will give bonds for their future good behavior.

Wellington Gerow, livery stable keeper was before the police court this morning on complaint of Indian Commissioner Farrell, charged with furnishing liquor to Indians. Sapper Sockbason, an Indian, gave pretty strong evidence against the accused. He said he visited Gerow's stable on Monday last in company with another Indian and gave Gerow money with which he purchased a bottle of gin. They had a drink all around after which the Indians took the bottle and went away. They made three more visits to the stable during the day and each time obtained another bottle in the same way. Gerow emphatically denies the Indian's story. The case is still before the court.

SMALL POX IN QUEENS COUNTY

Small-pox of a mild type exists in eighteen houses in Waterboro, Queens Co. This was announced last night by Dr. E. B. Fisher, secretary of the Provincial Board of Health.

Dr. Fisher, by order of Premier Tweedie, made a thorough investigation Tuesday and Wednesday and as a result decided that the disease was genuine smallpox.

The cases at Chipman, he found, showed the same symptoms as those at Burtt's Corner, Oromocto, referred to in the papers recently, and he believes that those in the two latter places came from Waterboro.

Dr. Fisher expressed himself as very much surprised at an article which appeared in yesterday morning's Sun about the citizens of Chipman being greatly alarmed over the situation. He said that that was not so, as the nearest case is twelve miles from Chipman.

Senator King, in speaking of an article that appeared in yesterday's Sun, quoting him as saying that there were a large number of smallpox cases in Chipman, says that they misquoted him as he never said there were any cases of smallpox in Chipman, nor in the parish of Chipman. All the supposed cases are in the parish of Waterboro.

THE SHIPLABORERS' STRIKE.

Editor of the Evening Times:

Sir,—I have read with much concern your articles on the present shipping trouble in this port, and consider them fair and just. I know some of the stevedores, who are men of good repute as citizens. A minority of the workers seem to desire to go to work, and these I opine are sufficiently intelligent to take a reasoning view of the situation in the sense that they should not "hold up" the business to a dead stand-still, but would go to work and argue the matter out while working. Such would be a fair-for-all plan, and would save the city from attack of outsiders denouncing us as unfair and lacking wisdom.

Workmen should have a thought for themselves, and not be led as a dog by a string. It should be remembered by some of them that the shipbuilding industry in St. John was utterly crushed out by striking workers some years ago. I think they were getting two dollars a day when they made a demand for two-fifty. This was conceded, but shortly after another demand was made for three dollars a day. That was the straw that broke the camel's back, closed the business and scattered the workers to the ends of the earth. That certainly was a calamity that caused a great deal of suffering and want, and broke many ties of a peaceful and plenteous life, as two-fifty was good pay, and allowed business men only a fair profit on their investment.

The laborers of this city should think well over their action before bringing about such misery and suffering for their families by another mistake of this kind. It seems to me that thirty cents an hour gives a man a good chance to live well and clothe well, and he should know that he can be supplanted by holding out for a sum that would dishearten men of capital who undertake the responsibilities and care of the business.

They should also know that the shipping of the world-over is not in too bright a condition for profitable work, and that men of thought and earnest reasoning power should consider the importance of this state of things. The contention of some of the workers that they have to be idle half the season should not be taxed on the shipping owners, who have also an idle season of laying up of many of their steamers, which also costs to do so for care while out of commission, as rust and decay make havoc on idle machinery, as it does of the human idler.

The whole city's interests are at stake as a community trying to do its best all round, and to let a matter of five cents an hour break up your homes at this inclement season and place in them men of a lower caste in the human scale, will, I sincerely think, be a great mistake on the part of the intelligent working laborers of St. John.

Respectfully,

J. S. CLIMO.

WEDDINGS

Johnstone-Gregory.

A very interesting event which took place yesterday afternoon was the marriage of Miss Hazel W. Gregory, daughter of Mrs. Horace W. Cole, to Guy Johnstone, travelling freight agent for the C.P.R. The marriage, which was a quiet affair, took place at 111 Elliott Row, the home of the bride. The knot was tied by Rev. William H. Pritchard of the Congregational church. Only the immediate relatives of the principals were present. The bride was given away by her maternal grandfather, Samuel Crothers. After the ceremony the guests sat down to an elaborate wedding dinner, and Mr. and Mrs. Johnstone left by the I. C. R. for Montreal, Toronto, Boston and New York. They will be away about two weeks. On their return home they will reside with the parents of the bride.

WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Nov. 24—Wall St.—Opening price changes were exceedingly mixed and wide in special cases. There was trading on a large scale and widely distributed. Met. Tractions stocks, St. Louis and San Francisco second preferred and North American rose in the neighborhood of a point. Thirty-five hundred shares of Union Pacific sold unchanged to ¼ lower; Tennessee Coal decreased 1⅜; Smelting, 1½; Northern Pac. Penna and Locomotive a point and Erie Second preferred and American Car a large fraction. The market opened irregular.

POLICE COURT

Lawrence Larson Fined $8 for Drunkenness and $20 for Window Breaking.

In the police court this morning Lawrence Larson was charged with being drunk and was also charged by Wm. Garnett with breaking a glass panel in the door of his saloon on Main street. Larsen pleaded guilty to drunkenness and was fined $8. The complainant in the second charge stated the prisoner entered his saloon yesterday and asked for a drink. Garnett refused to give it to him, as he considered that he had then had an abundant supply, and asked Larsen to leave his premises. The prisoner refused and started to shout. Garnett remonstrated with him, but to no avail, and he was compelled to eject him. As soon as Larsen found himself on the outside he placed the heel of his boot violently against the glass panel and proved that there was strength in the blow. The prisoner said this morning that he did not remember the incident and made four strong pleas for liberty. The magistrate told him that he was in and out of jail too frequently, and that last spring he made a strong plea for freedom, while working in the chain gang at Cain's Corner, when he saw the magistrate driving by. At that time," said the court, "I got you a place with a milkman, but after working five days you ran away." The court told the prisoner not to plead so hard or it might be persuaded to let him go. Larsen was fined $20 or two months for breaking the glass and $8 for drunkenness.

John Brown said that he lived on the other side of Moncton, and had come to this city to see Alderman McGoldrick about some junk. He got too much aboard and was arrested. He was dead broke and his horse was at Salisbury, and he wished to go home. He was fined $4 or ten days in jail.

While Brown was being arrested on Smythe street Sydney Duncan interfered with the police, and as a result was a companion in court this morning with Brown. Officer Ward said that Brown was lying drunk in an alley off Smythe street, and that two men went into the alley with him, but refused to help to carry the prisoner. He managed to get Brown out on the street, where Duncan interfered with him. He dropped Brown and arrested Duncan, and then got Brown later. The officer stated that Duncan had been drinking, and the latter said that he did not remember interfering with the police, for he was intoxicated. The court informed him that he was liable for a fine of $16.

Officer Wm. Sullivan arrested James Holt between ten and eleven o'clock last night on a warrant charging him with using abusive and insulting language to Charles Cobham on Charlotte street yesterday at noon. Holt deposited $8 for his appearance this morning, but Cobham did not appear.

Michael Fitzmorris was fined $4 for drunkenness and J. Sullivan was remanded. The magistrate told them that they would both be placed on the interdict list.

ANOTHER CHURCH UNION

Brethren In Christ May Unite With the Congregational Church.

HAMILTON, Ont., Nov. 24.—(Special).—Representatives of the Ontario Conference of United Brethren in Christ were in session yesterday with representatives of the Congregational Church Union of Ontario and Quebec, in the First Congregational church, with a view to throwing in their lot with the Congregationalists, instead of remaining under the general conference of the United States.

There are twenty-eight churches of United Brethren in Canada. Union is expected to be accomplished when the matter is in the near future laid before all the church people concerned.
