

CANADA PAYS HOMAGE TO THE MEMORY OF A HERO

Handsomeness Unveiled In Ottawa to H. A. Harper
Who Gave His Life Trying to Save Miss Bessie Blair From Drowning in Ottawa River—Both Died Together.

OTTAWA, Nov. 20.—The unveiling of the memorial to the late Mr. Henry A. Harper on Saturday commemorates a deed of heroism which has been commended from one end of Canada to the other. At the head of Metcalfe street stands the monument. The bronze veiling which covered it from view all week was lifted this afternoon by His Excellency the Governor-General.

It is nearly four years since Henry A. Harper performed the deed of heroism which has made his name famous. Probably no event ever cast a greater glow over the capital of Canada, or more profoundly stirred the feelings of all classes in the city. Among the young people of Ottawa there were few, if any, who were more generally esteemed, respected and loved, both because of their splendid characters and fine personalities, than Miss Blair and Mr. Harper. Though comparatively young in years, Mr. Harper had already distinguished himself as a journalist and a member of the Civil Service. He had, for a time, been city rescued till some time after the accident had occurred.

On the day of the funeral a public meeting of the citizens of Ottawa was called. It was held in the City Hall, and presided over by the mayor, and was largely attended. At this meeting the resolution was unanimously adopted:—

"That the public be invited to join in the erection of a monument, in the city of Ottawa, in memory of Henry Albert Harper, who lost his life by drowning, in the Ottawa river, on Friday evening, Dec. 6, 1901, in the gallant attempt to save the life of another."

Within a few weeks after it had been decided to erect a public monument, a sum amounting to between two and three thousand dollars was subscribed.

The following resolutions, determining more precisely the nature and form of the monument, were adopted by the committee appointed for the purpose:—

"That the memorial to be erected at Ottawa to the late Mr. Harper shall be a permanent monument of stone or bronze, in the open air."

"That the monument to be erected shall take the form of a figure symbolic of heroism, and of character, such for example, as suggested by the figure of Sir Galahad, in the painting of that name by Sir Frederick Leighton, R.A."

"That the choice of a sculptor shall be made on the basis of a public competition unrestricted in any way."

The committee received up to March 31, 1903, and then selected the one submitted by Ernest W. Keyser, a native of Baltimore, Maryland. He was attracted by the circulars sent out on account of the hero's birthday being the same as his own. The early training of this sculptor was in the Maryland Institute of Art. He was a pupil of Augustus St. Gaudens, and under his advice went to Paris, where he spent four years studying at the Academie Julian under the best sculptors of France. He is a gifted natural painter as well as a sculptor. Although one of the youngest sculptors of America, he has already been accorded rank among the best living artists. His figure of Sir Galahad to commemorate the Harper deed, which the committee had selected as the best in thought and execution of Keyser's creation. He was present at the unveiling.

Among other instances of recognition may be mentioned the following. The testimonial of the Royal Humane Society of England was awarded by that society to the surviving members of Mr. Harper's family. A memorial tablet has been placed in the rotunda of the University of Toronto, of which Mr. Harper was a graduate, by fellow graduates. Similar memorial tablets have been placed in the school and church attended by Mr. Harper while a boy at Barrie, Ont., where he was born.

Mr. Harper was associate editor of the Labor Gazette, having entered that department at the time of its institution. At Ottawa he was very popular and a moving spirit in intellectual circles. Shortly after the death of Mr. Harper, the Federal government by Mr. W. L. Mackenzie King and accepted by Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

To understand the nature of Mr. Harper's heroism the accident in which he met his death must be recalled. On Dec. 6, 1901, a party of four, of whom Mr. Harper was one, were skating on the Ottawa river. Miss Bessie Blair, another member of the party, a daughter of the Hon. A. G. Blair, ex-Minister of Railways and Canals, was skating with a gentleman at some little distance in front of Mr. Harper and a friend of Miss Blair's, Miss Blair and her companion, having come suddenly upon an open part in the river, and not having observed that the ice terminated, skated into the water. Mr. Harper, seeing what had happened, sent the young lady with whom he was skating to the shore to secure help from persons in the neighborhood. He himself laid down on the ice and worked his way along its edge, in hope that by extending his arms he could reach the other side, and seeing that the only assistance which he could render was to plunge into the water himself, with the hope of effecting a rescue, he threw off his coat and, answering to a warning not to come in, "What else can I do?" took a short run on the ice, and plunged into the river, swimming directly toward Miss Blair. It is unknown whether he reached her or not, but both he and Miss Blair were drowned, and their bodies were recovered on the day following, not very far from each other. In some miraculous manner, the young man who had skated into the water with Miss Blair was saved, although not

Very important it is in this age of competition to have a clear cool head, a strong heart and steady nerves.

Too much rush and bustle, work and worry, fall to the lot of the average business man, his heart and nerve system will not stand it. He gives them too much work to do. Women also are doing the same thing attending to their household duties and looking after their social obligations. The constant strain under which they have to continue day in and day out, the irregularities of habits and loss of rest will soon shatter the strongest system. Before long you become nervous, starting at the least sudden sound, the heart flutters and palpitates, specks float before the eyes, the pulse becomes weak and irregular, you have faint and dizzy spells, lack of self-confidence, rush of blood to the head, irritability of temper, shortness of breath, starting in sleep, sensation of pins and needles, sleeplessness, restlessness and finally physical breakdown or nervous prostration.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS are the remedy you require to restore your strength and health. Their extraordinary curative power manifests itself immediately they are taken. Through the medium of the nervous system they impart a strengthening and restorative influence to every organ and tissue of the body. Many have been cured, among them being Mr. Ray V. (Joniier, Wellington, P.E.I., Mrs. E. Kilmer, Humberstone, Ont., Mrs. C. McDonald, Portage la Prairie, Man., Mr. Walter Cleveland, Baywater, N.S., Mrs. (Irene Martin, Alma, N.B. and thousands of others.

The price of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills is 50 cts. per box or 3 boxes for $1.25. It is procured at all drug and general stores, or sent on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

The board of trade has appointed a committee on new industries with J. A. Lively as chairman, and will be pleased to have people submit ideas on betterment of the industries now here and with reference to what new industries can be brought here and successfully carried on. Notice to the board's secretary, W. E. Anderson, will result in action by the committee.

Twenty-eight more men, at a meeting of the South African Veterans' Association last evening, said they were willing to join the 19th Field Battery. The names were received by Capt. F. C. Jones. The impression has gone abroad that the new corps will be composed exclusively of ex-South African men, in fact it is not the case. Any one, providing he fulfills the requirements, is free to join.

T. Q. Dowling and Gay Reid returned on last evening's train from a two days' duck shooting trip, and were successful in bagging fifty fine large ducks. They report the season for this sport about finished, as the lakes and streams are fast closing up and the birds are migrating south in large numbers.

Thomas Hunter, a North End teamster, was stunned last night by being thrown from his eleven in Sydney street, between 11 and 12 o'clock. The police say that Hunter had been drinking, and as he was turning the corner of King street east to Sydney street, the horse ran away. Hunter was thrown out opposite the graveyard. When the police came up they found him unconscious. They carried him off the street into the graveyard. Dr. T. H. Lunney examined the man and said that he was only stunned. In the meantime his horse had run very far, but was caught in Union street. It was brought back, when Hunter was put into the eleven and driven home.
