FREDERICTON'S SENSATION

Mrs. Susan Briggs, a Charwoman, Arrested for Murdering the Infant Whose Body Was Found on One of the City Dumps.

Fredericton, Oct. 11—(Special)—Mrs. Susan Briggs, a widow, earning her living as a charwoman about the city, was arrested while at work in one of the hotels this afternoon on a warrant charging her with the murder of the infant whose body was found on the city dumps last Tuesday.

Since the discovery of the body the police have been working diligently on the case and today received information which led them to believe that the child belonged to Mrs. Briggs.

It is claimed that the infant was strangled to death by her and the body hauled to the dump by her two little boys. On the strength of this information a warrant was sworn out and the arrest followed. She was taken before Police Magistrate Marsh and remanded to jail until Friday morning when she will be brought up for examination.

Mrs. Briggs is a woman of about forty years of age with seven children. Her husband died about three years ago and she is said to have had a hard struggle to keep the wolf from the door. Up to a few days ago she resided in a house in York street, where the crime is supposed to have been committed, and was turned out for non-payment of rent. At the time of her arrest she was living at the Scotch Barracks, Regent street.

According to a story told by neighbors Mrs. Briggs gave birth to a child a few days before moving, and the theory of the police is that finding herself unequal to the task of supporting it through the winter, in addition to her other children she was led to commit the crime with which she is charged.

Coroner McEwens held an inquest this evening on the body of the infant, and the evidence brought to light cannot fail to shock the moral sense of the community. The witnesses examined were Dr. Bridges, Dr. W. H. Irvine, William Darlington, Henry Boulter, Miss Ellen Briggs, George W. Adams and Mrs. Samuel Dykeman.

Dr. Bridges gave evidence as to the result of his post mortem examination. He expressed the opinion that the child had been born alive and that death was due either to strangulation or suffocation from something being pressed over the mouth.

Dr. Irvine spoke of having viewed the body, which he considered had been born about three days. He did not notice from a superficial examination any marks of violence.

Miss Ellen Briggs, aged seventeen, and the second eldest daughter of the woman under arrest, said she never knew that her mother had been ill. She is employed as a servant and is in the habit of calling at her home once or twice a week.

The two boys—Darlington and Boulter—testified to the finding of the body while rumaging on the dump. It was wrapped in an old pillow slip which was covered by an old piece of carpet.

Mr. Adams, the undertaker, who had charge of the body for burial, stated that he noticed no marks of violence.

Mrs. Samuel Dykeman, who resided in the lower flat of the house in York street, where Mrs. Briggs lived until a few days ago, testified that she noticed Mrs. Briggs was in a delicate condition and said that on Sunday week Mrs. Palmer, who also lived up stairs, had told her Mrs. Briggs was very ill. She went up and the woman appeared to be suffering. She denied the cause of her trouble. The witness went up several times during the day and gave Mrs. Briggs food. She paid a final visit about 7.30 in the evening, and nothing more was seen or heard of the woman until the following morning, when she came down stairs into Mrs. Dykeman's apartments. Witness noticed a difference in her appearance. Mrs. Briggs told her a few days later that she was going to send her boys to the dump with a piece of old carpet, and asked for the loan of a bag. On the following evening she said she had sent her boys for some groceries. Witness did not see the boys go.

When shown the piece of carpet removed from the body of the child, Mrs. Dykeman was partially able to identify it. In the course of her evidence the witness mentioned that Mrs. Briggs had said two of her girls had sent a doctor to her. It transpired that the girls denied having done so.

If Subject to Salt Rheum

WHY NOT MAKE A THOROUGH AND LASTING CURE BY USING

Dr. Chase's Ointment

Many people write to tell us that they are attacked by salt rheum every spring and fall, and have been unable to obtain a cure.

Others write that they were formerly subject to salt rheum, but have been entirely cured by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

If you are suffering from salt rheum, eczema or any form of itching skin disease, it is worth your while to make a test of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and you can do so with every confidence that the results will be lastingly beneficial.

On the first few applications you may find the ointment a little severe, but this is necessary for a proper cleansing of the sores so that the cure may be thorough.

Use warm water and Packer's Tar Soap only as often as is necessary for cleansing purposes and apply Dr. Chase's Ointment plentifully.

Dr. Chase's Ointment has a world-wide reputation as a cure for the worst cases of salt rheum and eczema. It is not like experimenting with internal medicines when you use it, for you can see the benefit derived from day to day.

Mrs. John J. Delory, Linwood, Antigonish county (N.S.), writes: "I want to say that Dr. Chase's Ointment has proven a great blessing to me. I had salt rheum on one hand and could not get it healed up. The itching was most distressing at times. Two boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment has cured me completely, and I gladly recommend it to every sufferer."

Wherever there is itching of the skin or a sore that will not heal, Dr. Chase's Ointment can be used with positive assurance of relief and cure. 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. The portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box.

WOULD KILL INCURABLES

Cincinnati Woman Wants Legal Permission to Use Anaesthetics On Persons Dying In Agony.

Philadelphia, Oct. 11—The transportation of cattle was discussed at today's meeting of the American Humane Association, in annual session here. The subject was brought before the convention in a paper read by James M. Brown, president of the Toledo Humane Society.

Miss Anne S. Hall of Cincinnati, startled the convention by proposing the adoption of a resolution favoring legalizing the administration of anaesthetics to persons dying in agony. Miss Hall said that there often incidents in time of railway wrecks when trainmen and passengers were so injured that their lives could not possibly be saved. In such cases Miss Hall thought it ought to be permissible to administer anaesthetics to relieve their sufferings.

She also favored the use of anesthetics when persons were dying of incurable diseases in which they suffered agony. After a discussion the resolution was ruled out.

Examined and found correct.

(Signed) ANNIE P. FORREST.

The report was passed.

The report of Miss Maude Forbes, board of management secretary, said that the monthly meetings had been well attended. Interesting letters from missionaries had been received and printed in the Message. A union meeting for Miss McCully returned missionary from Corea, was held in St. Mathew's church, Halifax, and another meeting in St. Andrew's church. During the year Miss Forrest, secretary of supplies, has resigned on account of ill health. The position she held for twenty years efficiently and ably. Miss Saunderson, secretary-treasurer, on her departure for Toronto, had to resign her position which she so well filled.

The thanks of the boards was declared due both ladies for their work.

A motion to make the treasurers of presbyterials delegates to the general meeting of the W. M. F. S. brought out quite a discussion. Those in favor of the motion argued that it was essential that the information of the convention that in discussing the finances, the treasurers should be present. The opposition came from those opposed to the increased number of delegates, believing that there should rather be a decrease.

The motion was ultimately carried.

The greatest discussion was caused by a motion to change article 8 which constitutes the presidents of the various presbyterials delegates to the convention. The motion was to add the words "or substitute," after the word "president." This created a lot of debate in which nearly all the delegates participated. The idea of the promoters of the motion was that in cases where the president could not be present at the annual meetings, it was but fair that a substitute should go. Then it was felt in cases where the president of a presbyterial was a member of the board of management of the society; that a substitute should be granted to make the two allowed to the annual meeting.

Those opposing spoke strongly against the plan as it was thought by them that it went back to the question of an increased number of representatives, and further that it gave those presbyterials whose presidents were members of the board of management practically three delegates.

The motion was carried by the close vote 19 to 15.

The question of the vice-presidents of the presbyterials being made members of the board of management was also discussed and a motion in accordance with the idea passed. This brought the meeting to a close.

A public meeting was held last evening when suitable addresses dealing with missionary work and the W. F. M. S. were delivered by Rev. Dr. E. D. Miller, of Yarmouth; Miss McCulley and Rev. Mr. Forbes, returned missionary from Demerara.
