THEY FEAR MASSACRE WILL END REVOLUTION

Apprehension That the "Black Hundred" Will Complete the Work Begun by the Troops and End Russian Rebellion With the Horrible Massacre of the "Reds."

St. Petersburg, Dec. 28—According to advices received by the government tonight the "Rebellion" at Moscow is entering on its final stage.

The same guerilla warfare was continued today, but on a smaller scale.

Governor General Doubassoff is acting with great energy and hundreds of members of the "Drujina" are already behind the bars.

The strikers have lost heart and the workmen's council is considering the question of calling off the strike.

The principal danger now seems to be that the "Black Hundred" will complete the work begun by the troops and end the revolution with a horrible massacre of the "Reds." The lower classes are represented as enraged at the attempt of the revolutionists to overthrow the Emperor, and even with the best intentions, it may be impossible for the authorities to restrain the fury of these classes once the opportunity is offered them. The attacks made on striking railway men at wayside stations sufficiently shows the temper of the present class.

Four thousand strikers marched out of Moscow and completely destroyed several miles of the railroad track between St. Petersburg and Moscow, thirty miles outside of Moscow, in order to prevent the arrival of troop trains bearing the Seminovsky battalion of the Horse Guards, and the trains backed twenty miles to Clyne, whence it is understood the troops willl proceed tomorrow on foot for their destination.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 29, 1.30 a. m.—The Bourse Gazette this morning prints a rumor that Lieutenant General Mistchenko, while in the streets of Moscow, was wounded by a stray bullet.

The paper also prints a rumor that Count Vorontzoff-Dashkoff, viceroy of the Caucasus, has been recalled on account of his failure to pacify the lieutenancy.

Kovno, Lithuania, Dec. 28—The city is under martial law, and the field guns in the squares and machine guns posted at strategic points have overawed the revolutionaries.

Members of the Jewish Bund fired on a passing patrol today, and the patrol fired a volley, killing two persons.

Reval, Esthonia, Dec. 28—The police and troops today surrounded and arrested seventy persons while they were discussing the tactics to be used in an armed revolt. Among those captured were City Councillors Themany and Strandman and Acting Mayor Prats.

The insurgents continue to drive into the city the troops operating in the country.

Berlin, Dec. 28—The emigration of nobles and well-to-do persons out of Russia continues almost to the limit of the means of transportation. Trains going to Russia are nearly empty but those coming from that country are full. Pressing around the bulletin boards of the newspaper offices are wearers of tall, fur hats, seeking the latest news out of Russia while at the banks fur-clad persons are in altercation with the assistant cashiers over the raising of money on Russian properties or securities which are not listed on the bourses of Germany. Want is begining to press upon those whose remittances do not arrive or whose sources of income have been destroyed with the result that relief committees are kept busy. The military authorities at Koenigsberg, the capital of East Prussia, are providing lodgings for poor Russian families in the fortifications, while the citadel at Pillau, East Prussia, is being used for the same purpose.

The steamer Prinz Heinrich arrived at Pillau today with 23 passengers from Reval and the steamer Freda arrived at Dantzig from Riga. They report that both towns are quiet. Those and other steamers will return to the ports mentioned with many young men students at foreign, mostly German, institutions whose families sent for their sons to join the militia companies which are being organized to assist the government in restoring order in the Baltic provinces.

London, Dec. 29—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Telegraph describes as follows the execution of the chief of police of Moscow:—

"The revolutionists entered the lodging of the chief of police at midnight and told him to bid an eternal farewell to his family, because he was condemned to die. Finding it was no joke, the chief expostulated, but to no purpose.

"Realizing his awful position he said farewell to his family and was hurried into the street and shot. His body was left lying in a pool of blood."

The same correspondent relates as follows the terrible operations of the "Vehmgerichte" in Riga:—

"Persons disappeared mysteriously and a few days afterwards their bodies were found with identical marks—four bullet wounds on the breast, four on the back, and the skull cloven in twain. Of the many brought before the 'Vehmgerichte,' one escaped death, but in doing so he was seriously wounded. He probably escaped death owing to some interruption of his executioners. This person says that he was seized and bound and hurried to the room in which the tribunal was sitting. The proceedings were brief. He was condemned to death, carried to the outskirts of the town, laid flat on the ground, and shot."

London, Dec. 29—The Times this morning prints a despatch from Moscow, dated Dec. 27, which says:—

"If the revolutionaries could secure guns they would be assured of victory, and the troops would be obliged to take refuge in the Kremlin, where the governor-general and other authorities have already sought safety. Fortunately the arsenal is inside the Kremlin."

London, Dec. 29—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times reports that the relations between Russia and Germany are distinctly strained, and there is a possibility of international complications arising from the rebellion in the Baltic provinces.

THEY MAY SEND MAN FROM TORONTO FOR MR. PENDER

Toronto, Dec. 28—(Special)—The tack combine enquiry began before the police magistrate this afternoon. The first work done was in straightening out the information, some of the men charged being now residents of the United States and some being dead. The defendants named in the information are: James Hardy and Thomas Jenkins, Toronto; E. J. Fry, J. Mowat, J. C. Robertson, W. Bruckhoff and E. Perkins, Portland Rolling Mills Company, St. John (N.B.); H. M. Blaiklock, W. H. Woodhall, J. E. Kinghorn, A. H. Huff, W. McMaster and A. F. McPherson, Montreal Rolling Mills Company; F. W. Knowlton, United Shoe Machinery Company, Montreal; F. H. Whitton, Ontario Tack Company, Hamilton; James H. Beck, T. Edmond Peck, W. T. Cumming, R. T. Sinclair and M. A. Irwin, the Peck Benny Company, Montreal; James Pender, St. John (N. B.); W. W. Near, The Pillow Hersey Company, Guelph; G. Boyd, G. A. MacAggy and R. Hersey, Pillow Hersey Company, Montreal.

The charge against them is conspiring, combining, agreeing and arranging with the Portland Rolling Mills Company, Peck Benny & Co., Pillow Hersey Company, Montreal Rolling Mills Company, The Ontario Tack Company, The United Shoe Machinery Company, and the James Pender Company, W. H. Woodhall, and other persons and corporations of unduly limiting the facilities of producing, manufacturing, supplying and dealing in tacks and to restrain and injure trade in relation to the said article.

The names of the following defendants were withdrawn: J. Mowat (who is in British Columbia), E. Perkins, J. C. Robertson, R. Hersey, W. W. Weir (away in United States), A. F. McPherson, J. H. Peck, R. T. Sinclair, M. A. Cowan, G. A. MacAggy (deceased). The names of all the other defendants remain in the information, but some of them have not been served. A general plea of not guilty on behalf of the accused was put in by W. N. Tilley.

James Pender, the St. John man who had refused to come, was not on hand, though served.

"We can send for him," said the magistrate.

CHRISTMAS FUNCTIONS

Several Pleasant Entertainments Held in the City Last Night.

In St. John's (Stone) church last night the little ones of the Sunday school had their annual Christmas tree. In one corner of the room was a large tree beautifully trimmed and loaded down with the gifts of Santa Claus. The school room was filled with the children and their parents and friends, and judging by the beaming countenances and the sounds of a merry laughter the youthful members were having the time of their lives.

To add to the enjoyment was a real Santa Claus in the person of D. Arnold Fox, who moved about among the throng to the delight of all. To the Girls' Association and the junior girls belongs the credit of the decoration of the tree, and the procuring of the gifts, which were distributed by Santa Claus. A very happy evening was brought to a close by the serving of refreshments.

Last night the Sunday school of St. James church held the annual Christmas entertainment, the primary department having had their Christmas tree Wednesday afternoon. The rector, Rev. A. D. Dewdney, presented prizes as follows: General excellence, Robbie Allen; Georgianna Sulis, Willie Allen, Hebert Morton; perfect marks during year—First year: Jack Murray, Georganna Trueman, Kathleen Dewdney; second year: Mabel Sulis; third year; Marion Dewdney, Fred Murray; fourth year: Annie Morton, Nellie Morton; fifth: Katie Allen, Nellie Evans, Florrie Allen; 6th: Jennie Merry, Edith Kee; seventh year: Janie Kee; eighth year, Edith Kee.

The prizes for the fifth year were gold medals. The rector also presented prizes for the best report on the annual sermon, the senior prize going to Edith Kee, and the junior to Georgianna Trueman. The presentations were followed by the showing of lantern slides by Messrs. Morton and Milden. The evening proved a most enjoyable one.

A largely attended Christmas concert was held last evening in the Sunday school room of St. Luke's church. Recitations were given by Willie Morrison, Elsie Wright, Marion Myles, May McKenzie, Florry Whittaker, Bennie Boyce, Roy Segee, Olive Brayley, Reta Tapley, Ruby Morrison, Helen Brown, Constance Atkins, Marion Murchie, Gladys Atkins and Muriel Jordan. Ada Moore sang. There were also several choruses and lullabys, and gramaphone selections.

A presentation was made to Miss Iddles by her Sunday school class.

In Exmouth street Methodist church last evening the members of the infant class were visited by Santa Claus and gifts from a large tree were presented.

A children's jubilee was held last evening in the Salvation Army hall, West End. In addition to the entertainment there was a Christmas tree for the children.
