THE CHRISTMAS MARKET

Business Reported Brisk This Morning and Prices Remain High---O'Neil Bros.' Fine Showing.

There was a business aspect in the city market this morning, and despite the fact that there is an abundance of everything prices remain high.

Turkeys are selling from 22 to 24 cents; geese, $1.50 to $1.75; ducks, $1.50 to $2.00; chickens, $1.00 to $1.85; beef, 10 to 22 cents; moose, 20 cents; venison, 12 to 18 cents; partridges, $1.00 per pair; pork, 9 to 10 cents by the carcass.

There is an unusually fine display of Xmas stock in the stalls, one of the best being the display of O'Neil Bros. Their stall is magnificently decorated, and a full line of game, meats and vegetables is in evidence. On Saturday an 800 pound pig will arrive from Carleton county and will be placed on exhibition. A special feature in this stall is a display of ten fine carcasses of Ontario beef. There are also fancy lamb, tons of turkeys, geese, ducks, chickens, and fowls. An unusual display of fancy feathered ducks can also be seen. A large supply of partridges is lined in front of the stall, and in all the display is very fine.

FINED $100 FOR BUYING VOTES

Man so Charged in Saskatchewan Election Admits His Own Guilt and Implicates Others.

REGINA, Sask. Dec. 21—(Special)—Michael Voll, of North Qu'Appelle, who was arrested on election day at Balcarres charged with buying votes, yesterday confessed in a signed statement and was fined $100. He declared that the money with which he operated had been given to him by John Gillespie, president of the liberal association at Balcarres in North Qu'Appelle, where the minister of agriculture, Hon. W. R. Motherwell was a candidate. Gillespie was one of Motherwell's most active workers and Voll was one of his most energetic assistants. Voll stated that Gillespie instructions to him were to buy votes "as cheap as possible."

LAST NIGHT'S BATTLE

Attendance Broke All Records for Boxing Matches in Frisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 21.—The gate receipts of the Fitzsimmons-O'Brien fight last night were $16,407. Of this sum 60 per cent. went to the fighters, the winner receiving 75 per cent. and the loser getting 25 per cent. It was the largest crowd that has ever attended any fight in San Francisco.

A LUCKY BABY

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 21.—A granddaughter of Senator W. A. Clark of Montana was born yesterday at San Mateo, the parents being Mr. and Mrs. Charlse H. Clark, the mother having been Miss Celia Tobin, of this city. When informed of the birth of the baby Senator Clark announced that he would give the little girl $1,000,000, following the example set by himself at the birth of his first grandchild.

PRESSMEN WENT OUT

Some New Developments Today in Local Printers' Strike.

The strike inaugurated last Saturday by the Printers' Union is still on. This morning the pressmen and apprentices in J. & A. McMillan's came out in a body as well as two of the pressmen in Barnes & Co's establishment.

Members of the printers' union claim that a statement made this morning that at a meeting of the union last evening nothing was done, is slightly incorrect, as today's result is evidence that something was done. The printers say they are fully as determined as the employers and have the whole force of the International Typographical Union at their back. They claim that there are no non-union men in the city except one "suspect."

Barnes & Co. said this morning that two of their pressmen had not come to work but they did not know whether they were on strike or not as nothing had been heard from them. They said no non union men had yet been brought here from outside, but would not say whether any would be brought in or not.

Alexander McMillan, of J. & A. McMillan, said it was probably correct that their pressmen and apprentices had gone out on strike as they had not come to work this morning, and he had received no word from them, excepting the head pressman, who had sent word he was ill. Asked if he was making an effort to get men to take their places he said: "We are getting men to take their places."

NEW YORK, Dec. 21—The Periodical Publishers' Association yesterday decided to stand by the typethetae, the employing printers, in refusing the 8-hour day to compositors in book and job offices.

TALKED OF A PLEBISCITE

Reported That Temperance People Intended Asking Mayor to Act.

There has been considerable conjecture in some quarters as to the object of many recent secret gatherings of the temperance people. It was learned this morning that it had been the intention of temperance workers here to ask the mayor to order a plebiscite in the various city wards to learn the feeling regarding the granting of licenses to liquor dealers in each ward. It is said, however, that no action will be taken at present as it is not considered that the time is opportune for the matter to be treated favorably. Probably in the near future some definite line of action will be decided on, and it will be interesting to note the result. Liquor License Inspector John B. Jones was asked about the matter this morning, but beyond stating that he had heard a rumor that some action was to be taken, he had no information on the subject.

SHORTHAND INSTRUCTOR

Remembered by the Students of the Currie Business University, Limited.

Yesterday was the closing day, previous to the Christmas holidays, at the Currie Business University, Ltd., and without doubt it marked the close of the most successful term in this school's history. Thirty-two were awarded diplomas.

About 11 a. m., the students, representing all the departments, met in the shorthand room, where a purse, containing quite a sum in gold, was presented to Miss Elise M. Trimble, shorthand instructor, and the following address was read by Miss Agatha Maxwell:—

Dear Miss Trimble:—

It seems so very natural, that we, your pupils, should come together as a body, at this time of peace and good will, for the purpose of expressing to you, in some manner, our heartfelt thanks for the many kindnesses we have received at your hands.

We wish to assure you that your character is held in affectionate esteem by every pupil who has ever had the pleasure of taking instruction from you. How many, many times have we wished that we could be like you—always so perfectly natural—no affected mannerisms, patient, kind, refined and cultured, and yet so intensely firm in matters pertaining to our commercial education.

It is said that real merit is always modest, and as you have accomplished such a vast amount of work, in such a modest, untiring and unselfish manner, we have come to look upon you as real merit personified.

It is to your keen and untiring efforts, in warning us against the disastrous effects of careless inattention and demonstrating to us (by your own quiet example) the immense benefits to be derived from the power of concentration, that so many of us have been successful in passing the trying examinations of the past few weeks. Your exalted patience has many times inspired us with courage, when we might otherwise have halted and become disheartened.

In closing, we beg you to accept this Christmas gift, as an appreciative token of your faithful watchfulness over the welfare of your very grateful 1905 classes.

Wishing you and yours all the joys of this Christmas season and hoping that you may be spared to return to your duties after the holiday season, much refreshed, we beg to remain, your sincere friends,

MARGARET SEELEY,
IDA MALLORY,
EDITH CUMING,
AGATHA MAXWELL,
ETHEL PURCHASE,
Committee,

Signed on behalf of the students of the Currie Business University, Limited, this 20th day of December, 1905.

Although taken completely by surprise, Miss Trimble made a very appropriate reply, thanking the students for these very encouraging words which meant so much to her. She assured them that the very energetic manner in which they had worked had placed the 1905 classes as the most memorable in her experience. In closing, she urged the students to be just as loyal to the institution, as they should be to their own families, and they would be sure of success.

THE QUEEN'S RINK

The office of Queen's Rink will be opened this evening from eight till ten for the sale of season tickets. The grand opening will occur Christmas day. Many tickets are being purchased as Christmas gifts.

CLOSING FOR CHRISTMAS

Vacation in City Schools to Commence Tomorrow---Good Programme at the High School.

Much interest is being manifested in the Christmas closing of the public schools, which takes place tomorrow morning, when excellent programmes will be rendered and prizes presented. The High School will probably be the centre of attraction, and those in charge of the arrangements have spared no effort to make this year's exercises the best in the history of the school. A number of essays will be read by the pupils and the following medals presented by His Worship the Mayor:

Donald.

Corporation gold medal, Frank McDonald.

Governor-General's silver medal, Mary Gilliland.

Parker silver medal, Alston Cushing.

Chairman's gold medal, Dora Jones.

Lieut.-Governor's silver medal, Dora Jones.

Senator Ellis's prize medal for best essay in Grade II., Dorothy Manning.

The programme is as follows:

High School Orchestra.
Recitation, George Stevens, Grade IX.
Chorus, girls of Grade IX.
Essay, Gertrude Hamilton, Grade XI.
Solo, Percy Bonnell, Grade VIII.
Recitation, Helen Fotheringham, Grade XII.
High School Orchestra.
Essay, George Keirstead, Grade XI.
Solo, Sybil Craigie, Grade X.
High School Orchestra.
Presentation of medals.
Addresses.
The National Anthem.

Both teachers and pupils are eagerly looking forward to the short vacation, when books are laid aside and they can enter into the festivities of Yule-tide.

Good progress has been made since the schools opened after the summer holidays, and teachers and pupils alike will lay aside their daily tasks and enter upon the Christmas vacation with the feeling that the short rest has been well earned.

CHRISTMAS AT HOME

During Christmas Day there will be many homes re-united, and those who wish to make the home look cheerful, should read the advertisement in today's issue of Amland Bros., Waterloo street, who are offering some rare bargains in sideboards, dining chairs, parlor tables, ladies' dressers, ladies secretaries, bookcases, china closets, buffets, and all kinds of fashionable furniture at greatly reduced prices. Amland Bros., have all their entire stock of furniture marked down at greatly reduced prices and intending purchasers should not miss this sale.

VIC OPENING SATURDAY

It was found necessary to defer the opening of Victoria Rink from this evening until Saturday afternoon because of the mildness of the weather. Therefore children and ladies will have the chief benefits of the first skating. However, on Monday morning—Christmas—all the little ones in St. John may skate to their heart's content for nothing in the big rink, while in the afternoon and evening the band will be present. Vic tickets make great Christmas gifts.

CUT IT OUT---IT'S GOOD

On page 2 of this issue a long list of holiday remembrances in their price order—from 25c. to $5.00—will be found for the convenience of Times readers. It is one of the last guns to be fired by the M. R. A. publicity department, and is a very handy list to cut out and carry either in your vest pocket or your shopping bag.
