

TOLD COUNCIL OF DRY DOCK

George Robertson, M.P.P., Heard Before Today's Meeting OF CITY FATHERS He Makes a Statement of the Present Condition of Affairs in the Dock Project—Question of the West Side Berth Discussed.

The common council met this morning at the city hall at eleven o'clock, when George Robertson, M.P.P., spoke at some length with reference to the dry-dock project. Mayor White presided, and those present were: Deputy Mayor Lewis, and Aldermen McArthur, Sproul, Baxter, Macne, Holder, Hamm, Tilley, Pickett, Common Clerk Wardroper, and Recorder Skinner.

In the course of his remarks on the West Side project, Mr. Robertson referred to the last years of his mayoralty and then passed on to his negotiations with the British admiralty, which covered a period of thirteen months, and what transpired on his return from England to Canada and of subsequent delay in the affair. He also made reference to the trouble of financing after the Boer war, and of his repeated efforts to obtain assistance from the Dominion government, in whose opinion it was very heavily subsidized.

Passing on, Mr. Robertson said that financial arrangements now are in good shape and very likely to materialize at an early date. Matters in connection with the leases and portions of the property for the site of dock are at present the most important to be settled.

In concluding, Mr. Robertson asked for the assistance of the common council, the corporation and the people of St. John in finding a means for removing the difficulties at present existing, which, when removed, will enable the completion of negotiations, and stated that in that event the contractors would probably be at work within a few months.
