

SECOND EDITION

ONLY FOUR ALIVE NOW

Hon. Wm. McDougall,
One of the Fathers of Confederation, Dead at Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Ont., May 29.—(Special)—Hon. William McDougall, one of the fathers of Confederation, died at his residence, 10 Dalhousie street, today. He was 83 years of age, and had been confined to his room for the past eight years. Sir James Grant, who was his physician, as well as his friend, for many years, states that death was due to general debility. The death of Mr. McDougall leaves only four of the makers of Confederation compact alive. They are Sir William P. Howland, Sir Hector Langevin, Sir Charles Tupper and Hon. A. A. McDonald. About 12 years ago Mr. McDougall fell and broke a leg, and he was never able to be around very much since that time. The last political contest he was engaged in, was in South Grenville when he ran in the Liberal interest and was defeated by the late Walter Shanly. Mr. McDougall was always recognized as one of the ablest men in the Dominion. He leaves a widow and family.

TOOK HIS OWN LIFE

Young Ottawa Man Shot Himself Through the Head in Regina.

REGINA, N. W. T., May 29.—(Special)—While despondent George Bethune, a clerk in the Northwest Mounted Police office shot himself through the head last night and died instantly. His parents reside in Ottawa. Mr. Bethune had his feet badly frozen last winter and since then had been in hospital until a few days ago. This no doubt inspired self-destruction.

IT AFFECTED STOCKS

NEW YORK, May 29.—Stocks had a buoyant opening today in sympathy with reports to the London market. The Russian naval defeat was interpreted as indicating early peace. Three classes of Japanese government issues are dealt in on the New York Stock Exchange; bankers' certificates for the 4 1/2 per cent bonds opened 1/4 higher than Saturday and then reacted 1/4 on realisation. The 5 per cent second series rose 1/4, and the first series 1/4. Industrials opened 1/4 to 2 points higher than Saturday, and demand proved dull at these advances, and part of the gains were lost during the first hour.

NEW YORK, May 29.—There was great activity and excitement at the opening of the cotton market today, following a very bullish report by a New York newsman, a tremendous advance in the Liverpool market and reports of a Japanese victory in the Far East. The market opened at 15 to 16 points higher, followed by a gain from 15 to 16 points. The close of Saturday of about 25 points. Trading was very active with both commission houses and professional heavy buyers.

NEW YORK, May 29 (noon).—Prime mercantile paper 3 1/2, 4 1/2. (Wall Street noon).—Opening prices were recorded during the first hour the markets showing the effect of profit taking by the room traders. Trading was quiet on the decline. Later prices were supported and showed a recovery above the opening level on light dealings, but receded again at noon. There were active declines in Japanese bonds, and a few miscellaneous bonds were dull and steady.

BERLIN, May 29.—Prices on the Bourse generally were somewhat higher, owing to London advices and hopes of peace in the Far East. Russians were 4 1/2 per cent lower.

SANDFORD IS SHORT OF CASH

Reported He Does Not Pay
Bills Promptly and Has
Asked More Time on Farm
He Bonded---Shilohites on Short Rations.

AUBURN, Me., May 27.—The Boston Herald correspondent was told today that "Eljah" Sandford is evidently pressed for money; that he is not paying his bills promptly, and has asked a man to whom he recently gave a bond for the purchase of a farm to extend the time. Another man from whom a farm was purchased says a payment on it is now overdue. There are now between 700 and 800 people at Shiloh, and if all reports are true, their rations are exceedingly scanty. A day or two ago one of the members of the colony went to a farm house and bought a quart of milk and some apples and said he was going to have a real feast all by himself. The report is that only skimmed milk is purchased for the use of the members of the colony. Farming is being carried on, but with no system whatever, and the results are meagre.

Sandford and his friends are evidently very much pleased that the trial for manslaughter has been postponed until September. Judge William H. Newell today filed a petition in the supreme judicial court asking for a preliminary injunction against the inhabitants of Durham and William D. Trufant, treasurer of the town, to prevent the payment of salaries to teachers in the school said to be under Sandford's control. The substance of the petition was printed in The Boston Herald this morning. The court is also asked to grant a restraining order to prevent the defendants from interfering with any of the matters set out in the petition.

This petition is signed by David Crockett, Jr., Fred Harrington, Joseph H. Davis, Henry M. Snow, Francis W. Bowie, Emory J. Bowie, George H. Lancaster, William W. Brown, C. E. Green, and J. B. Greene, citizens and taxpayers of Durham. Lawyers believe the preliminary injunction will be given until July 4th to file their answer, and the hearing will be held as soon after as possible. The case cannot come up in June because the law requires that 30 days' notice shall be served. The town officials probably will fight the case. The position of the school board is that it has done what it believes best for the town. The petitioners for this injunction are all well known citizens of Durham, and their counsel believes they represent the sentiment of the majority of the citizens of the town. Mr. Davis, one of the petitioners, has served as selectman of Durham.

OUTLOOK NOT HOPEFUL

May Not Be a Very Bright
Lumber Season---Drives Bring Up.

The outlook for a successful lumber season is not very hopeful. The driving is about over and it is estimated that about 30,000,000 feet of lumber will be hung up. This will mean a considerable shortage for some of the mills, though a portion of the lumbermen will have enough to put them through the season. About the only thing that would help the situation now would be a heavy freshet in June, and this is very unlikely. The scarcity of rain this spring is accountable for the shortage, and although a heavy rain now would be a help, it is thought that the most of the logs will have to remain where they are until next spring. Last year there were only about 15,000,000 h-d up, but this year there is double that amount, so it is probable that the business will be hampered considerably.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., May 28.—The dory the day of the Fire Island life saving station was probably one of the dories sold recently by the Captain of the Gloucester fishing schooner Paragon to "Netters" at the Banks. The Paragon is now in this port, having arrived last week with a cargo of halibut, and none of her crew are missing.

NORFOLK, Va., May 28.—With fire raging in her forward hold and her crew exhausted from two hours and a half hard work fighting the flames the old Dominion steamship Hamilton, after leaving port for New York, returned to Norfolk at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon. There were no passengers aboard.

The Hamilton left here at 4:30 o'clock this morning and when she was about five hours out the fire was done as well as sounded in the engine room, indicating a fire somewhere between decks in the forward hold.

When the crew responded to the alarm it was found that it would be impossible to reach the fire without shifting the cargo. As much of this was done as was possible, but Captain Boaz decided that it would not be safe for him to try to
