"Money Back"

means merit. No house would offer to refund money, unless they were sure you would not want to have it refunded. When a house with a well-earned reputation says, "your money back if you are not satisfied with our goods," you may be sure the goods are right.

We have such implicit confidence in the virtues of that we authorize druggists to refund the money if they fail to cure.

We KNOW they WILL CURE all Kidney Troubles—strengthen weak Kidneys, and relieve pain in the back, dull headaches and all other distressing symptoms of Kidney Disease.

That is why we make this emphatic offer. It's worth 50c to be relieved of the agonizing pains—its worth $1 or even $2.50 to be completely cured. And we refund the price if they fail. You certainly get your money's worth either way. 50c box, 6 for $2.50, at druggists or direct from

YESTERDAY'S GOLF MATCH

Miss Thomson Won by a Narrow Margin at Montreal---Semi-finals Today.

Montreal, Sept. 20—(Special)—Exciting finishes were the rule this afternoon in the second round of the ladies' golf championship at Dixie, only one match failing to go to the eighteenth, while one ran to the nineteenth before a winner was declared.

The successful contestants were: Miss Young, Royal Montreal; Miss Greene, Royal Montreal; Miss Thomson, St. John; Miss McAnulty, Victoria.

In the consolation cup the games and results were: Miss Linton beat Miss Molson, five up and four to play; Mrs. Albert Mussen beat Miss Cassils five up and four to play; Mrs. Robertson beat Miss Mona Thomson nine up and seven to play; Miss Towne beat Mrs. Laing three up and one to play.

The pairing for tomorrow's matches follow:—

Championships, semi-final—Miss Young vs. Miss Greene; Miss Mabel Thomson vs. Miss McAnulty.

Consolation, semi-final—Miss Linton vs. Mrs. Albert Mussen; Mrs. Robertson vs. Miss Towne.

A driving competition had been on the programme, but the heavy rains so seriously interfered with the comfort of the ladies that it was decided to postpone the event until tomorrow.

GEORGE DIXON KNOCKED OUT

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 20—George Dixon, the former feather weight champion, was tonight knocked out in the second round of what was to have been a six round bout, by Tommy Murphy, of New York, at the National Athletic Club. The contest was spirited while it lasted, although it could be seen that Murphy was master of the situation from the start. The first round was a sparring contest, but in the second Murphy assumed the aggressive and succeeded in flooring Dixon early in the round. Later, after an exchange of blows, Murphy drove a left to the solar plexis, and Dixon went down and out.

TO SEND SHEPHARD FOR DIAMOND SCULLS

BOSTON, Sept. 19 — It is very probable that this country will be represented in the diamond scull race at Henley next year, for the Seawanhaka Boat Club of Long Island is preparing to send its great sculler, Fred Shephard, there. Shephard is the man who surprised the oarsmen of this country by his showing at the national regatta in St. Louis last year, when he walked away with the events he entered. This year at the St. Louis in Baltimore Shephard rowed in five events and only once did he fail to get a first, when he was beaten by Frank Greer of this city, in the senior single sculls championship event.

Though Shephard is still a little crude in a shell, he is undoubtedly one of the best oarsmen in this country. With proper instructions there is little doubt but what he would give Greer the hardest race the East Boston man has ever had, and there are plenty who are firmly convinced that in another year Shephard will whip Greer. At Baltimore it was said that if Shephard had not rowed in so many races he might have whipped Greer. Outside of Greer, Shephard is undoubtedly the best man in this country to represent American oarsmen at Henley, and with proper coaching this winter many think he will be the only one for the job.

BOXING TALK

Sam Langford, of Cambridge and Young Peter Jackson of Baltimore have been matched to fight at the Eureka club in Baltimore one week from next Friday night, Sept. 29.

Mike (Twin) Sullivan's victory over Joe Gans stamps him as one of the best lightweights in the game today. Perhaps Nelson, Britt and Gardner will take him into consideration now.

Harry Lewis will fight Kid Sullivan at Al Herford's club next Friday night 15 rounds, the weight to be 132 pounds at 3 o'clock. If Lewis wins he will challenge Bat Nelson to a fight.

Kid Herman is after Battling Nelson for a fight. It is hoped that Herman will not train on strawberry shortcake, as he is said to have done the night he refused to box Matty Baldwin at Lawrence.

Charlie Neary and Benny Yanger are to meet in a 20-round fight in Spokane sometime this month. Neary and Yanger met in Milwaukee about a year and a half ago and Yanger outpointed his man.

Eddie Santry, the former featherweight champion and Johnnie Morrison of St. Joseph, Mich., will probably be matched for a fight in the near future. Kalamazoo, Mich., wants the fight. Santry is willing, and so it's up to Morrison.

Jack Hanlon has an offer to match Harry Lewis against Young Corbett. The matchmaker of the Douglas A. C. has made an offer for the match. Matty Baldwin would be a worthy opponent for either of these boys, and, being a local boy and about the best around here just now, it ought to prove a good attraction as an opener for the Douglas club.

Tommie Sullivan of Lawrence is another of the boxers who has joined the ranks of white boxers who refuse to meet colored men. Tommie had a good offer to meet Jack Blackburn, but turned the offer down, as he draws the color line.

There are going to be great doings in Hegewisch, Nelson's home, when he returns there. He will be banquetted like a lord, and not only his home town, but also Hammond is to join in the festivities, for it was there that Nelson fought his first fight and received his early training.

Philadelphia Jack O'Brien's trip to the Klondike was quite profitable for him. He cleaned up a lot of money, and in his fight with Jack (Twin) Sullivan got $8,000 for his end, the same as Sullivan. O'Brien had several other fights besides this one, and earned in all nearly $15,000.

Ted Murphy, who at one time managed Battling Nelson, is now managing Young O'Leary, of whom he is now talking as enthusiastically as he did of Battling Nelson when he was doing his business. It is probable that O'Leary will fight Sayers in Milwaukee next Friday night.

George Gardner says that an offer has been made by a San Francisco club for a battle between Jimmy and Joe Gans. Just at present, however, George thinks it better to pass Gans up, as he prefers to wait until the fall, when the racing season is on, when he feels that the fight would draw much better.

Billy Nolan, manager of Battling Nelson, has this to say: "Bat will not give away weight to Jimmy Gardner, and under no consideration will he meet Joe Gans. Nelson will box Gardner if he will make the lightweight limit, but no 135 or 136 pounds, as Gardner is too good a man for Nelson to take a chance with other than at 133 pounds."

TWISTED NELSON'S NOSE

Willie Fitzgerald and the Fighting Dane Have a Mixup, in Which the Latter Gets the Worst of It.

Battling Nelson and Willie Fitzgerald had a mixup in San Francisco the other day in which the Battler got the worst of it.

Fitzgerald had made some disparging remarks about the Dane which angered the latter. When they met Fitzgerald seized Nelson by the nose and gave it a twist and followed this with a few wallops. The first one staggered Nelson, who tried to get into a clinch, but Fitzgerald kept him off. Nelson was down on one knee and bleeding from mouth and nose, when friends separated them. The affair may lead to a match between the pair.

NEW LIGHTWEIGHT BOXER

Sam Fitzpatrick Has a New One To Spring On The Pugilistic World

Sam Fitzpatrick, who brought Kid Lavigne before the public, has taken Andy McGarry of New York city under his wing. McGarry comes from the Bronx and those who have seen him in action declare that he has the makings of a champion. Fitzpatrick told a reporter that McGarry was ready to accept the challenge of Art Edmonds, Tom O'Rourke's new fighter, who claims the lightweight title of Canada. Sam says that McGarry is prepared to fight Edmonds twenty rounds or to a finish in public or private for $250 to $500 a side, at 130 pounds. Fitzpatrick says that as soon as the challenge is accepted he will post a forfeit and sign articles.

BOXING IS POPULAR IN GAY "PAREE"

LONDON, Sept. 10—Boxing is gaining in favor in France. A number of boxing matches have taken place recently in France and others are scheduled.

Most of the fighters are Englishmen, the French not having as yet developed a really first-class man with the gloves. Kid Lavigne at one time a topnotcher in America, had a prosperous boxing school at Paris, though for some reason he has given it up. Several good English fighters give lessons in the French capital and are well patronized.

"Le Boxe" bids fair to become a permanent institution across the channel.

FITZSIMMONS WANTS TO MEET HART

Bob Fitzsimmons, the ex-champion heavyweight, arrived in Boston Monday to fill an engagement in his new play at the Grand Opera House.

Fitzsimmons says he has no intention of retiring.

"It is my opinion," said Fitzsimmons, "that the sporting public regard Hart and myself as the only ones entitled to box for the world's championship.

"I am ready to meet Hart in six months on the winner-take-all basis. If Hart wants a side wager I'll give him as big a one as he wants."

Fitz looks to be in fine condition and he says that he is satisfied that he can defeat Hart.

THE TURF

A Trotting Record

Columbus, O., Sept. 20—Susie N., equal favorite with Bon Voyage in the Kentucky Stock Farm Futurity betting today, broke the three-year-old record for the year by steadily trotting two mile-heats in 2.10 and 2.09¼. She came within half a second of the world's record for three-year-old trotters and set a new mark for time in a "2 in 3" race for youngsters.

Vanderbilt Won in France

Paris, Sept. 19—W. K. Vanderbilt's Rooney won the Prix Saint Michel at the St. Cloud races today.

BASEBALL CHAT

President Frank of the Baltimore team offers the players $1,500 if they win the Eastern league pennant.

Third baseman Bradley of the Clevelands avers that he intends to retire this season, but it is believed he will feel differently with the advent of another playing season, and be in line again.

Concord does not appear as fast as Fall River, judging by the games that have been played in Holyoke this week. It was weak at the bat, and not as snappy in its fielding play.—Springfield Republican.

Billy Luckhart tried to get Otis Clymer, the big Pirate, to umpire the Ohio Works-McKeesport game the other afternoon, but Otis said: "Not for me. If you want any one to crack an umpire over the head with a bat, I'm your man, but I wouldn't handle the indicator for a fortune."—Pittsburg Press.

D'jer ever play an' get shut out?
That's just the meanest thing about!
The other side'll laugh an' bawl
An' snicker, too—doggone it all.
I tell you, boys, they ain't no doubt
It sure is mean to get shut out!
—Florida Times-Union.

Experience has fully demonstrated that no man is capable of playing good ball and managing a ball club in the big leagues at the same time. Either his playing or his work outside will soon tell and his game grow weaker. An eastern critic states that the happiest man in baseball is the clever player who takes no responsibility, but plays his game and lets the captain, manager and owner of the club do the worrying. That view of the situation is correct.—St. Louis Republic.

Moran, the umpire, and Catcher Steelman of Rochester had a run-in, Thursday, at Baltimore. It came in the second half of the sixth inning. Steelman had fanned the air in the previous half with the sacks full and two out, and he felt mighty blue. Umpire Moran called a ball on Jordan, and spectators were surprised to see Steelman grab Moran by the throat, and a little bit of jiu-jitsu followed. Moran quickly caught Steelman around the neck and they grappled. Chief Zimmer was soon on the scene, and a little twist on his part soon found Steelman sprawling on the ground. The Broncho catcher stated that Moran had called him an ugly name.

A QUOIT MATCH

F. Powers and C. Dodd of the Young Newman Brook Quoit Club last evening defeated Ernest Harrington and Ernest Bradley of the Newman Brooks by a score of 21 to 16.

BASEBALLISTS HOLD DINNER

Pleasant Gathering at the Alexandra Last Night.

The Mercantile League baseball men, who have been playing ball at Watters' Landing during the months of June, July and August, in connection with the City Cornet Band Excursions, closed their season by a supper last night at the Alexandra Hotel. The four teams, representing the establishments of W. H. Thorne & Co., Ltd., Emerson & Fisher, Ltd. The Maritime Nail Works, Ltd., and A. Isaacs, and a number of friends, sat down to go through one of Mr. Parkin's best score cards. The chair was taken by Charles H. Stevens, president of the League.

The good things partaken of, toasts to the four firms represented in the league, were made the order, Arthur Thorne and George Hoyt responding for Messrs. W. H. Thorne & Co., Ltd.; Mr. Seeley for Messrs. Emerson & Fisher, Ltd., Eben Perkins for the Maritime Nail Works, and I. Isaacs for A. Isaacs.

Prizes were then presented as follows: Messrs. W. H. Thorne & Co.'s team, winners of the league, ten silk umbrellas, presented by the City Cornet Band; Edward B. Call, best batting average, an Iver-Johnson shot gun, presented by W. H. Thorne & Co.; Messrs. E. B. Coll, and John McEachern tied for largest number of runs, each receiving a pearl-handled jack-knife, donated by the Maritime Nail Works. J. M. Ritchie received the prize, a clock, for the greatest number of stolen bases. J. Fred Payne, official scorer, was presented by the league with a fine silk umbrella. A. Holinquick, manager of the Maritime Nail Works team, was presented by his firm with a very nice signet ring. After the presentations the evening was spent in speech-making, and music, the gathering breaking up early this morning.

HANLON AND HERRARA MATCHED

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19—The Hanlon-Herrera match will take place, both men having signed articles. Forfeits of $500 are to be posted and a $1,000 side bet will be deposited today at noon. The papers call for a meeting on October 17 at the Pacific Athletic Club of Los Angeles, the combatants to weigh 133 pounds ringside and to receive 50 per cent of the gross receipts to be divided 75 and 25.

HOOF BEATS

The grand circuit drivers are out against three in five racing.

Sadie Mac's total winnings were $31,700, won in eight races.

Wentworth with his new record of 2.06¼ looks pretty good for a cast off.

Miss Adrian (2.09¼) is another new (2.10) performer to the credit of Adrian Wilkes.

Harry Simmons (2.12¼), by Hesperous (2.10¼), is spoken of as a sure 2.10 trotter.

The 3-year-old filly Sadie N, worked a mile in 2.10¼ over the Syracuse track last week.

John A. McKerron, the champion matinee stallion, now has two 2-year-olds in the list.

Old Lord Vincent (2.08¾) is going sound in his work and may get to the races this fall.

James B. Haggin has consigned all his trotting stock to the sale to be held in Lexington, Ky., next month.

Trainer John Wall scored two well-earned victories at Concord last week with Harry Hill and Lady Nelson.

Score another for the record mares. Gramattan (2.11¼) is by Grattan (2.13), out of Sylpha (2.13¾), by Greystone.

Lilian (2.09¼), winner of the 2.50 pacing stake at Milwaukee, is still another 2.10 performer for Adrain Wilkes.

Out in California they are predicting that the 3-year-old colt North Star (2.13¼) will equal Fantasy's record of 2.08¾.

Lady of the Manor (2.04¼), the former pacing queen and fastest daughter of Mambrino King, has a filly foal at foot by Direct Hal (2.04½).

W. D. Chisholm, of Cleveland, has purchased the 3-year-old pacing filly Miss Abdell (2.13¾), winner of the pacing division of the Hartford futurity.

The pacing gelding Red Bud, by Red Wing C., reduced his record to 2.05¾ in the first heat of a winning race at Indianapolis last Wednesday.

Harry Stinson is at the Lexington (Ky.) track with Katherine L. (2.12¼). He will devote his entire attention to preparing the filly for the Kentucky futurity.

The green pacing mare Laura Bellini, by Moquette (2.10), stepped a workout mile over the Lexington (Ky) track recently in 2.08. She is in the stable of Clem Beachy.

Red Heart (2.19), by Red Wilkes, is dead. He was the sire of the fast trotter Chain Shot (2.26¼), and two pacers in the 2.10 list. Red Tell (2.09½) and Red Seal (2.10).

Trainer Jack Trout will remain in charge of the stable of horses owned by C. B. Knox for the present. Trout will get the horses that are to go to auctions this fall ready for the sale.

The fast pacer Allanwood (2.07¼) is by Knott Allan (2.13¼)) son of Allandorf (2.19¼), the son of Onward, and Alma Mater, that was formerly owned by Col John E. Thayer, Lancaster, Mass.
