MORE HAPPY BRIDES

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of the bride's father, C. Albert Holder, Long Reach, on the 20th inst., when his daughter, Frances Brown, was united to Frederick Edwin Smith of Elmsdale.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. A. Pierce in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was charmingly gowned in cream nun's veiling and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas; her travelling suit was of blue with hat to match.

After dinner the happy couple came to St. John and left on the Prince Rupert this morning on a trip through Nova Scotia. On their return they will reside in Long Reach.

Many useful and beautiful gifts testified to the esteem in which the young people are held.

A Double Wedding

SUSSEX, Sept. 21 — A double wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the brides' home, when Miss Mabel, eldest daughter of the late Richard Walker, New Line Road, was united in marriage to Arthur Friars of Ward's Creek, and the second daughter, Ida, was united in marriage to George Hornbrook of Mount Hebron.

The brides were attired in beautiful grey voiles with white trimmings. Their travelling suits were of navy blue broadcloth with hats to match.

Only the immediate relatives were present. Rev. J. B. Gough performed the ceremony, after which the party sat down to luncheon. The happy couples left by the evening train for Fredericton, where they will take in the exhibition. The brides received many pretty gifts.

Browne-Stuart

A Sussex correspondent sends the following particulars of the wedding of Miss Mary Stuart to Gilbert C. Browne, which took place at Sussex on Tuesday:—

"A very pretty wedding took place on Tuesday morning at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Celia Stuart, School street, when her eldest daughter Mary was united in marriage to Gilbert C. Browne, of the Dominion Iron & Steel Co., Sydney (C.B.). The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. N. Nobles. in the presence of only the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The bride, who looked charming in a brown travelling suit and black picture hat, was attended by her sister, Miss Hazel Stuart, who was attired in a very pretty suit of light grey.

The groom was supported by his cousin, Walter C. Grant, of Halifax.

After a wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Browne took the C.P.R. for a trip to Halifax, after which they will make their home in Sydney (C.B.).

The bride received many useful and valuable presents testifying to the high esteem in which she is held.

The groom's present to the bride was a set of furs, and to the bridesmaid a gold bracelet.

Donald-Coburn

Sheffield, Sept. 21 — A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Little River, Wednesday, Sept. 20th, at 10 a.m., when William Donald of Blackville, Northumberland county, and Bessie Coburn, third daughter of Henry Coburn, were united in marriage. The wedding was a quiet affair, and the nuptials were witnessed only by the immediate friends of the contracting parties.

Rev. G. W. Peppers, pastor of the Little River and Sheffield Methodist churches, officiated.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a travelling suit of brown, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of white asters. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple drove to Fredericton.

The bride is one of Sheffield's most popular and highly esteemed young ladies, and was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents. The members of the Methodist church, of which Miss Coburn was organist, gave her a silver service.

Lewis-Isaacs

A pretty wedding took place at the Jewish Synagogue at 1 o'clock this afternoon, when Miss Adelaide Isaacs, daughter of A. Isaacs, was united in marriage to Harry H. Lewis of Hamilton, Bermuda.

Rev. Dr. S. Rabinowitz performed the ceremony in the presence of many relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The bride who was given away by her father, was becomingly gowned in white crepe de chene over white taffeta. She carried a white ivory prayer book.

Miss Mildred Isaacs was bridesmaid, and was attired in white crepe voile over taffeta and carried a bouquet of red and white carnations. S. H. Green supported the groom.

A reception was held at 84 Sydney street after the wedding.

The happy couple leave this evening for New York, from whence they will take steamer for Bermuda, their future home.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. James Belyea of West End Have Been Wedded Fifty Years Today.

This evening a very pleasant and interesting event will be held at the residence of Charles Belyea, 115 Duke street, West End, when his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Belyea will celebrate their golden wedding. Up till last evening one hundred and six invitations had been issued and something less than one hundred and fifty guests are expected to be present. Last evening Bedford B. Manzer, of Woodstock, N. B., with his wife and son arrived to be present at the event, and a number of guests are expected from across the bay today. One very interesting feature of this evening's celebration is that both the bridesmaid and groomsman who officiated at tthe wedding fifty years ago, are expected to be present and take a prominent part in the celebration. The bridesmaid was Miss Eliza Ann Hazlett at that time, and is now Mrs. Geo. Henderson of Rothesay. The groomsman was Dr. McFarland of Fairville.

Mr. Belyea was born on Middle street, Carleton, on Nov. 27th, 1827. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Belyea, and the eighth of a family of eleven children. Two of the older brothers, Samuel and John, both of whom have now gone to their rest, celebrated within a few years of each other their golden weddings in a house they occupied for many years standing on the Old Fort, a few rods away from the house at present occupied by James Belyea on the wharf at the foot of King street.

Mrs. Belyea will be 70 years of age on the 17th of October next. She is the youngest of a family of nine, the other members of the family surviving being her oldest brother, William, who still lives at White Head, on a farm, less than a mile away from the old homestead. William is 85 years of age, and is still in good health and able to do a good day's work on the farm. A few years ago he married for his second wife a lady of 45 years, and they have now a three-year-old baby to cheer and comfort them. Mrs. Belyea had a visit from her brother, with his wife and baby, one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Belyea have for many years been prominent members of the Baptist church at Carleton, and have always been very highly respected members of the community.

POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning three drunks were fined $4 each. Wm. Kilpatrick was arrested yesterday by officer Jas. Simple for profanity on Marsh Road; he is also charged with assaulting and striking the police officer in Maher's blacksmith shop, and furthermore, with violently resisting the police. Acting magistrate Henderson remanded the prisoner this morning. The latter had to be carted to the police station and gave the officer a hard tussle. Policeman Semple could not place the handcuffs on Kilpatrick's wrists as they were too large. The officer had his face badly scratched while the prisoner had to have his head dressed by Dr. D. Berryman.

"What are you doing; making jokes?" "They're all written. Now, I'm blunting the points, so that they will be seen."—Judge.
