THE LOW LANDS UNDER WATER

In the Neighborhood of Kentville --- Death of Miss De Witt---Hay $16 Per Ton.

Kentville, March 28.—On Sunday last, the death of Carrie Irene, eldest daughter of Doctor G. E. DeWitt, Mayor of Wolfville, occurred at her father's residence, from tuberculosis. Miss DeWitt had been an invalid for some years, and had spent some time at a Sanatarium in Ontario. On her return to Wolfville, her health was so much improved that she took charge of a private Sanatarium, which was closed only a few months ago. Miss DeWitt had a large circle of friends, who will surely mourn her early death.

The death of W. C. Holder took place in Kentville on Saturday. He was a native of Worcester, Eng., and resided for some years at Parrsboro, coming to Kentville last June. He leaves a wife and one daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wentworth Barnaby, who have been spending the winter in Canning, left last week for Sydney, where they will remain for some time before returning to their home in New York.

W. Monaghan, who has been spending a six weeks furlough in North Kingston has returned to England to join his regiment.

Hay is reported very scarce in Cornwallis—A recent report quotes it as selling at sixteen dollars per ton.

Mrs. Leicester, who, since the death of her husband, Professor Leicester, has resided in Kentville, left on Monday last for her former home in England.

A warm south wind set in on Saturday, and continued until Tuesday. The snow went off as if by magic, though there are still some good sized banks remaining. Mill Brook has brought its annual amount of water and ice from the South Mountain, and in consequence the low lands of Kentville are now under water. The carriage factory is surrounded, and the intervale, which surrounds the usual peaceful little stream, known as "the river," is completely submerged. There has been little damage as yet, except the inconvenience and unpleasantness of water in the cellars.

THE RECORD OF GENERAL BATJANOFF.

New Commander of Third Manchurian Army is Active and Energetic.

St. Petersburg, March 29.—General Batjanoff, the new commander of the third Manchurian army, of which General Bilderling had been temporarily in command, since the transfer of General Kaulbars to succeed General Gripenberg, as commander of the second army, is one of the old school of the Russian army, having commenced his military career in 1873. He served with distinction in the Russo-Turkish and Crimean wars of the fifties, in the Asiatic campaigns, in the sixties, and in the Russo-Turkish war of 1878. He was commander of the Twelfth Corps from 1893 to 1896, then commander of the Sixteenth Corps and, after his promotion to be a full general in 1899, he was made a member of the council of war. He is seventy years of age, but active and energetic. It is noteworthy, that he does not belong to the general staff, as also do not Generals Linevitch, Kuropatkin and Kaulbars. General Bilderling probably will re-assume command of his corps, though he has been blamed to some extent, for the defeat at Mukden, by defective dispositions of the third army, during the retreat from the Shakhe River, and permitting the Japanese to break through Fu Pass, just at the moment when Kuropatkin, personally leading the strategic reserves of sixty-five batalions, was rolling up Nogi's right flank, and threatening to sever the third Japanese army from Oku. This destroyed the last hope of winning the battle, and necessitated the quick retreat in which the second and third armies suffered so heavily. The correspondent with the third army, partly excused General Bildering, on account of the blinding dust storm which came up during the retreat, and the failure of subordinates to occupy positions to which they had been assigned, leaving the crossing of Fu Pass guarded by only three companies. It is learned from the general staff, that Kuropatkin, after the battle, severely censured ten generals for failure to execute orders. It now develops that Bildering was included in the number.

Insane Daughter of Dead Man Talks Wildly of His Death.

Hamilton, March 31.—(Special)—Ralph Moore, aged 83 years of age, who resided with his invalid wife, and insane daughter, was found dead in bed last evening by neighbors.

The daughter when questioned said that she gave her father a cup of tea on Wednesday morning, and did not afterwards enter his room. The Lord, she declared, ordered her not to go near him. She also said that her father's death was the result of a blow on the stomach. Asked who struck the old man, she replied that it was the Lord.

As the authorities could get no satisfaction out of her it was decided to hold an inquest.

Not Guilty of Manslaughter---Broke Jail---A Call Declined---New Schooner.

Annapolis, March 30.—A preliminary investigation was held before the Stipendiary magistrate, on Tuesday and Wednesday, in the charge of manslaughter against Don Robinson and Enos Niles of Parker's Cove, in connection with the death of the late George McGarvey from exposure, and as there was no evidence to connect them with his death, except leaving him on the road in an intoxicated condition, they were discharged from custody.

A new railway bill was introduced in the House of Assembly on Monday, which proposes to advance $10,000 to the Middleton and Victoria Beach railway, now nearly completed, secured by a first mortgage on the road. This road is now virtually a part of the Halifax and South-Western Railway system.

A young Indian, named Herman Penall, was arrested on Thursday last by Provincial Constable Avard Anderson, on a warrant charging him with an assault on a young woman living in Laurencetown. The prisoner was brought to Bridgetown and placed in the lock-up there. During the night he made his escape by burning out the staple in a side door. He was re-captured the next day and brought before Stipendiary Fay, on the charge of assault and breaking jail and was remanded for trial in the Supreme Court. The prisoner was lodged in the county jail here on Monday.

A GOOD DEAL OF NONSENSE

About "Blood Purifiers" and "Tonics."

Every drop of blood, every bone, nerve and tissue in the body can be renewed in but one way, and that is, from wholesome food properly digested. There is no other way and the idea that a medicine in itself can purify the blood or supply new tissues and strong nerves is ridiculous and on a par with the fol-de-rol that dyspepsia or indigestion is a germ disease, or that other fallacy, that a weak stomach which refuses to digest food can be made to do so by irritating and inflaming the bowels by pills and cathartics.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure indigestion, sour stomach, gas and bloating after meals, because they furnish the digestive principles which weak stomachs lack, and, unless the deficiency of pepsin and diastase is supplied, it is useless to attempt to cure stomach trouble by the use of "tonics", "pills" and "cathartics" which have absolutely no digestive power, and their only effect is to give a temporary stimulation.

One grain of the active principle in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 3,000 grains of meat, eggs and similar foods, and experiments have shown that they will do this in a glass bottle at proper temperature, but of course are much more effective in the stomach.

There is probably no remedy so universally used as Stuart's Tablets, because it is not only the sick and ailing, but well people who use them at every meal to insure perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

People who enjoy fair health take Stuart's Tablets as regularly as they take their meals, because they want to keep well, prevention is better than cure, and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do both; they prevent indigestion and they remove it where it exists. The regular use of one or two of them after meals will demonstrate their merit and efficiency better than any other argument.

FLED IN AN AUTO WITH $1,000,000.

Another Woman, Who Made Great Wealth in a Swindling Scheme.

New York, March 29.—Detectives and postoffice inspectors have learned of a wild automobile ride from Philadelphia to this city which carried to temporary safety, at least, Sophie Beck and Frank C. Marrin, who are implicated in the get-rich-quick Storey Cotton company of this city and Philadelphia.

The detectives estimate that Sophie Beck, who is to have been the brains of the scheme, and Frank Marrin, otherwise known as "Judge" Franklin Stone, with whom the Beck woman once eloped from New Orleans, had accumulated $1,000,000 by realizing on stock they held, withdrawing bank balances and giving first and second mortgages on real estate in Philadelphia. When the time to depart came they learned that detectives were watching every train.

The two had with them a big auto one of the extravagances of their season of prosperity, and they decided to ride to this city in it. On board the car they are said to have had not less than $1,000,000, most of it in cash, and some unregistered, easily negotiable stock and bonds.

Arriving in this city, the two went at once to a restaurant, where they ate a hearty breakfast, spending two hours in the place, and then left, going northward. At least two persons in the restaurant recognized the couple, and the police found that they were not more than three hours behind when they arrived to make inquiries.

Sophie Beck at different times has been conspicuous in Chicago, New Orleans, Philadelphia and here.

She posed as the $300 a week secretary of the Storey concern, and some time ago married Richard Graham, the son of a Jenkintown widow. Graham's friends were induced to invest liberally in the Storey concern. They all suffered heavy losses.

CANADIAN PACIFIC.

The statement of earnings and expenses of the Canadian Pacific railway company for the month of February shows a decrease in gross earnings of about $200,000 on the figures for January, while the working expenses were proportionately heavier than the previous month. Net profits for February were $302,171, compared with $82,540 for the corresponding period in 1904. The weather during the month of February, 1904, was unusually severe, and operating expenses were exceedingly heavy, which accounts for the present large difference in net earnings. For the first nine months of the fiscal year the statement shows a magnificent return of $9,869,587 in net profits, or an increase of $761,345 over the same period of 1904. The figures are given in detail as follows:

	July 1 to Feb. 1905.	Feb 28 1905
Gross earnings	$3,056,094	$33,460,618
Working expenses	2,753,923	23,591,031
Net profits	$302,171	$9,869,587

In February, 1904, the net profits were $82,540. And from July 1 to Feb 28, 1904, there was a net profit of $9,108,242. The gain in net profits over the same period last year is, therefore, for February, $219,631, and from July 1 to Feb. 28, $761,345.

Four Facts For Sick Women To Consider

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Has an Unequalled Record of Cures—Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Is Confidential, Free, and always Helpful

FIRST.—That almost every operation in our hospitals performed upon women becomes necessary through neglect of such symptoms as backache, irregular and painful menstruation, leucorrhœa, displacements of the uterus, pain in the side, burning sensation in the stomach, bearing-down pains, nervousness, dizziness and sleeplessness.

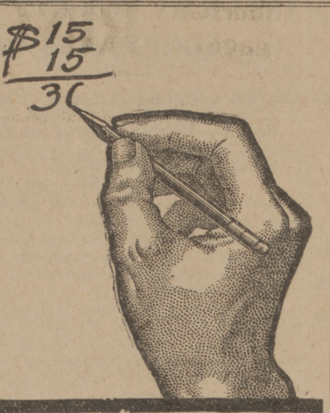

SECOND.—The medicine that holds the record for the largest number of absolute cures of female ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It regulates, strengthens and cures diseases of the female organism as nothing else can.

For thirty years it has been helping women to be strong, curing backache, nervousness, kidney troubles, all uterine and ovarian inflammation, weakness and displacements, regulating menstruation perfectly and overcoming its pains. It has also proved itself invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the change of life.

THIRD.—The great volume of unsolicited and grateful testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., many of which are from time to time published by permission, give absolute evidence of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Mrs. Pinkham's advice.

FOURTH.—Every ailing woman in Canada is asked to accept the following invitation. It is free, will bring you health and may save your life.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women.—Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. From symptoms given, your trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Out of the vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Surely, any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.
