WEAR RUBBERS NOW!

To be absolutely sure of dry, warm feet during the damp weather, people must wear rubbers.

"Maltese Cross" Rubbers

Are the Best Fitting, Best Looking and Best Wearing Goods Made.

Russell Sage used to say:

"That the longer a man lives the more mistakes he may be counted on to make." One of the common mistakes of the day is trying to keep dry feet without the use of Rubbers.

D. C. Clark said this morning that he had made no attempt yet to raise the No. 3 crib, as was stated in a morning paper. His men, he said, had not been working since Wednesday. He has no intention of trying to move the crib until the site is ready.

A local fish dealer says that never before has there been such a scarcity of haddock in the Bay of Fundy. This is owing mainly to he dog-fish. Finnan haddies have advanced from 7 to 8 cents a pound, but the figures on fresh fish are the same as last week.

John Curry was after free chowders last night but his game failed to pan out. It is said that Curry had been drinking and went into Campbell's saloon, on Main street and ordered a chowder, which was served. On leaving the saloon he refused to pay up and could not be induced to do so until Policeman S. A. Perry was called in.

Policeman Rankine has reported Frederick and William Baxter for ill-treating a horse, by allowing it to remain standing in the rain uncovered, on the Marsh Road yesterday. Secretary Wetmore of the S. P. C. A., when seen this morning, said that the case had not yet come under his notice, but he would look into the matter.

A splendid line of flowers and plants is on view at Mrs. H. S. Cruickshank's flower store on Union street, and for lovers of floral beauty a visit to the store is a great treat. Everything seasonable in the line of cut and growing flowers is shown, from the fashionable chrysanthemum, in many varieties, to the fragrant rose. There is also a choice showing of carnations. In fact no finer floral stock has ever been shown there at this season of the year.

THE CUSHING CASE UP IN EQUITY COURT

The Cushing Sulphite case was resumed this morning in equity before Justice Barker, and argument was heard as to an application to determine whether the rate of interest on the mortgage declared to be due by the trustees be ten per cent. or five. His honor reserved decision until a later date.

BEAR STEAKS ARE NOT APPRECIATED

Market Man Says That Chinamen are Only Ones Who Buy Them Regularly.

According to a dealer in the country market, the only people in St. John who appreciate bear meat are the Chinamen. The chinks buy steaks from "Bruin," but very few of the native citizens invest.

There were two carcases on sale this morning, but there was no rush to secure the choice cuts. The majority of the carcases are shipped to Boston, where they meet with a ready sale.

There is but slight change in the prices of produce this week. All kinds of meats, poultry and vegetables are in good supply. Eggs are very scarce, and it is almost impossible to get any that are guaranteed fresh. Butter still keeps very high and there is no indication of lower prices. WANT GOVERNOR TO PROBE SHILOH

Portland Maine People Petition for Investigation of Holy Ghost Colony.

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 2.—The text of a petition, which is being readily signed by the clergymen and prominent professional and business men of this city, including three former governors of Maine, asking Governor Cobb to investigate conditions at the Holy Ghost and Us colony at Shiloh, has been made public. It is as follows:

"To His Excellency, Gov. William T. Cobb, Augusta, Me.:

"In view of the persistent and seemingly well authenticated reports of gross evils existing in the Sandford community at Shiloh, resulting in suffering and injury to members of the community, especially little children, we, the undersigned citizens of Maine, respectfully petition your excellency, if at all possible, to take such measures as your wisdom may dictate to ascertain the exact facts and abate the evils."

The petition will be circulated in Androscoggin county and other sections of western and central Maine within a few days. It was drafted as a result of the conference, Monday, of three Portland clergymen with Mrs. Alice Phelps of Kansas City, Mo., who has been unable to persuade or force her daughter to leave the colony.

WEST SIDE DREDGING

Mr. Mayes Says He Does Not Know When No. 3 Crib Site Will Be Ready.

Mr. Mayes in reply to a question as to when the No. 3 crib site would be finished said this morning that it was impossible to tell much about it. All depended on the material that kept falling in from the bank at the Union street end. Mr. Mayes said the Beaver was doing good work and he hoped to get finished as soon as possible. Referring to a letter that appeared in the Globe a day or two ago, signed by "Fair Play." Mr. Mayes said he thought it was a very venomous article. If the gentleman that wrote would make himself known Mr. Mayes said he would answer him as everything connected with his dredging contracts was open and above board. For the present he would take no notice of the letter unless the writer would make himself known.

POLICE COURT

John Curren seems to prefer the jail as a boarding house and the Rock Candy Mine as a place of employment, to the life of a citizen at large. When arrested yesterday he informed the officer that he had been released from jail on Thursday, and evidence this morning showed that he had been in jail on several previous occasions. His honor reminded him that he could be sent in for a long period and he was remanded for further hearing.

John Mudge was arrested last night by Policeman Marshall, who said that he found his man trying to get into Biddington's bar room, about twenty minutes after ten, last night. Mudge also was acquainted with the interior of the jail and was fined $4 or ten days.

Andrew Irvine, charged with being drunk on Main street, was fined $8 or 30 days.

CIRCUIT COURT

The case of Mackay vs. the City of St. John was resumed in the circuit court this morning. Supt. Murdoch was examined for the defence and was on the stand when court adjourned till 2.30 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. Murdoch in his testimony claimed that the break in the pipe resulted from a slide caused by the digging of a trench by Mr. Mackay, to the south of the pipe referred to above.

PROBATE COURT

In the passing of accounts in probate, of the estate of Hugh S. Wright, a citation was granted, returnable on Dec. 6. The estate is valued at $24,000. E. P. Raymond, proctor.

Sanford W. Scammell, the confectioner, Charlotte street, is about to open up a restaurant in connection with his business, and has fitted his room up very handsomely. He has taken Edward Wilson, lately steward of the Union Club and once caterer to royalty, in as a partner, and the two will be ready for business on Monday noon, November 5. They will also cater to theatre parties, at homes, balls, etc.
