A Jolly Five Minutes.

FIVE FERROUX.

AN ATHLETIC AMOUR.

She—Do you think Miss Backnumber is trying to draw him out?
He—No, I think she is trying to persuade him to double up.

SVOIRE TRULY

She—You've been out every night since I married you, and you swore you would be as true as the stars above.
He—Well, ain't the stars above out every night, too?

The Heiress—He says he cannot live without me.
Miss Cutting—Don't believe it. He will live, but he may have to economize.

HE AUTO GET ONE.

Bontion—Say, my dear, that auto costume of yours is a stunner!
Mrs. Bontion—Yes; all we need now is an auto.

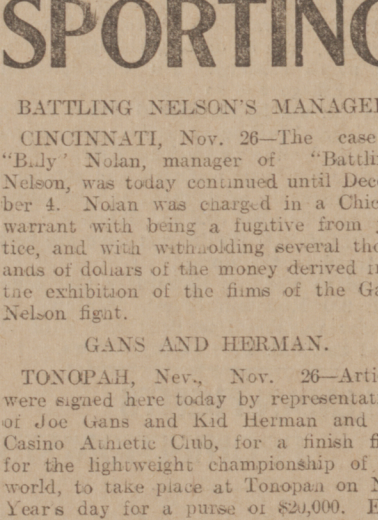

LIVED AND LEARNED.

Jack—I thought I knew all about skating when I was a small boy.
William—And didn't you?
Jack—Why, no, I merely knew how to skate.

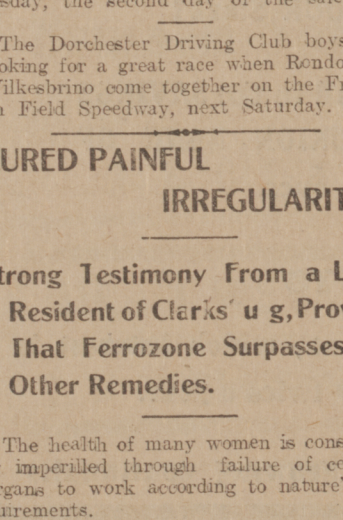

VERY SIMPLE.

Edith—I don't see how you can tell a wild duck from a tame one.
Reggy—Dead easy. If you can get near enough to shoot him he's a tame one.

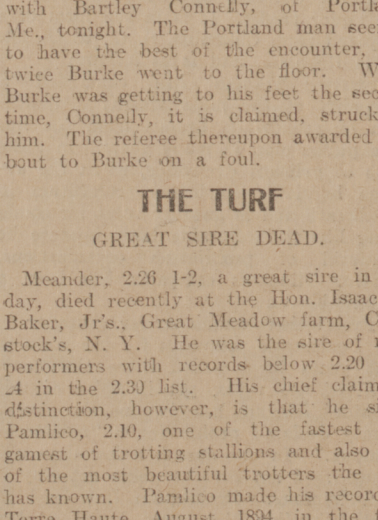

GANS AND HERMAN.

TONOPAH, Nev., Nov. 26.—Articles were signed here today by representatives of Joe Gans and Kid Herman and the Casino Athletic Club, for a finish fight for the lightweight championship of the world, to take place at Tonopah on New Year's day for a purse of $30,000. Each party agreed to post a forfeit of $3,000. Should either of the contestants be over-weight he is to forfeit $2,000 to his opponent.

BULKE AND CONNELLY.

WEBSTER, Mass., Nov. 26.—Billy Burke, of Providence, was given the decision tonight in the third round of what was to have been a fifteen round contest with Bartley Connelly, of Portland, Me., tonight. The Portland man seemed to have the best of the encounter, and twice Burke went to the floor. While Burke was getting to his feet the second time, Connelly, it is claimed, struck at him. The referee thereupon awarded the bout to Burke on a foul.

THE TURF.

GREAT SIRE DEAD.
Meander, 2:26 1-2, a great sire in his day, died recently at the Hon. Isaac V. Baker, Jr.'s, Great Meadows farm, Concord, N. Y. He was the sire of nine performers with records below 2:20 and 4 in the 2:30 list. His chief claim to distinction, however, is that he sired Pamlico, 2:10, one of the fastest and gamest of trotting stallions and also one of the most beautiful trotters the turf has known. Pamlico made his record at Terre Haute, August, 1894, in the fifth and deciding heat of a race in which he defeated Agate (2:04 3-4), Lord Clinton (2:08 3-4) and William Penn (2:07 1-4). Soon after this he was taken sick with pneumonia and died. Meander was sired by Belmont, out of Minerva, by Phil, Jr. He was bred at Woodburn farm, Spring Station, Ky., and was foaled in 1879.

NOTES OF THE TROTTERS.

Nancy Hanks (2:04) is believed to be surely with foal by Todd (2:14 3-4).
Nancy Hanks' suckling filly by John A. McKernon has been named Nancy McKernon.
W. T. Bates is thinking strongly of breeding Emma E. (2:00), to Engen, the coming season.
J. M. Johnson's consignment of ten head to the Old Glory stallion will be shipped next Monday, and will be sold Wednesday.

A Necessity in Every Kitchen

Armour's Solid Extract of Beef

(POTTED IN CANADA)
is a wonder worker in the kitchen. It is almost indispensable in giving flavor and tone to all made over dishes. It makes tempting soups and rich beef tea.
Armour's Extract of Beef is solid, not fluid. It is the condensed essence of prime beef, put up in dainty porcelain pots. It is more economical than other brands because it goes four times as far. Send for free booklet, "Culinary Wrinkles."
