The case against Robert Garnett, charged with having two doors to his barroom on King square was resumed in the police court yesterday afternoon, and after hearing of evidence was adjourned till noon today. Police Officer Marshall, in the course of his evidence, said that Garnett made him an offer to suppress the report. Garnett disclaimed all knowledge of how the door came to be open.

"And to think that I should have taken you for my wife. I must be the greatest fool of the century."

"But dear——"

"Silence; don't contradict me!"

When Trouble Threatens.

BY RYAN WALKER.

BAD FIX.

Beggar—Mister, won't you assist me? I don't know where my next meal is coming from.

Mr. Slowpay—Neither do I. The butcher and grocer in Londyville refused me any more credit this morning.

THE WAY NOWADAYS.

The Poet—Why did you insist upon the return of your letters when the engagement was broken?

The Novelist—I was afraid she might dramatize them.

WOULDN'T TELL HER AGE.

Prosecuting Attorney (to witness)—How old are you, madam?

Female Prisoner—Call the trial off, judge. I'll plead guilty.

AT THE ART EXHIBITION.

Mrs. Coyne (before life-sized portrait of a girl)—I wish I knew who painted this.

Artist—I did it, madam.

Mrs. Coyne—Ah! then, no doubt you can tell me the dressmaker who made the girl's gown.

CALLED IT OFF.

Tom—I don't believe my wife will give me any Christmas present this year.

Jack—Why not?

Tom—She told me what she intended to give me, and I told her I simply couldn't afford it.

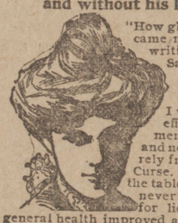

IN THESE DAYS.

The Nurse—I hope you don't blame me for the baby's illness.

The Doctor—I certainly do. You should know better than to leave it alone in the care of its mother for even a moment.

Samaria Stopped His Drinking

A London Lady cures her husband permanently of the drink habit and without his knowledge.

"How glad I am that I overcame my hesitation about writing you for a Free Sample of Samaria. At that time my husband was drinking very hard, and I was in despair. The effect of your treatment was immediate, and now our home is entirely free from the Drink Curse. I gave my husband the tablets in his tea, and he never knew. As the taste for liquor left him, his general health improved and is now splendid —many, many thanks. I will be glad if you will tell others of my experience.

Free Package and pamphlet giving full particulars, testimonials and price sent in plain sealed envelope. Correspondence sacredly confidential. Address: THE SAMARIA REMEDY CO., 26 Jordan Chambers, Jordan St., Toronto, Canada.

LOSS WILL REACH QUARTER MILLION

Already Surface Losses in Burning Cape Breton Mine Have Totalled That Figure.

Halifax, Dec. 18—Good progress is being made in flooding the Hub colliery, and the ocean water is pouring into it rapidly. It is now believed that by the end of the present week the amount of water necessary to flood the burning area will be in the mine.

An exact estimate of the damage cannot be given yet, but it will amount, including surface losses through destruction of houses and machinery, to more than $250,000. Under ground losses are purely conjectural. A new shaft will have to be sunk in all probability, to resume mining operations.

A family living in a house near the shore and just above the burning colliery workings were nearly overcome with fire damp tonight and had to be removed to another dwelling. The husband on returning from work noticed that his wife and family and boarders appeared stupid and dazed. A doctor was summoned and it was found that they were under the influence of gas.

BLOODY PRIZE FIGHT

Tonopah, Nev., Dec. 17—It was an eventful day in the history of the Herman camp today. The event was the announcement by J. H. Sullivan, a brother of "Larry" Sullivan, of Goldfield, who backed Gans at the time of the Gans-Nelson fight, that he would offer a purse of $40,000 for a finish fight between Nelson and the winner of the Gans-Herman fight. This is one of the largest purses ever offered and Herman said he was "on."

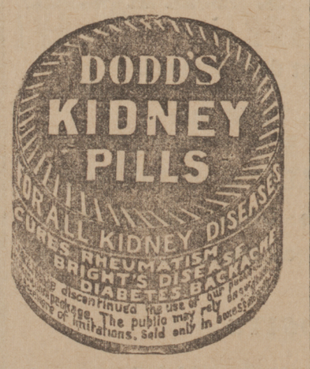

"I will whip Gans," said the Kid, as Sullivan told him of the offer.

Gans is not making the weight for his battle with Kid Herman as easily as he thought he would. The colored champion is finding the problem of removing the surplus hard and the public here are beginning to realize that the holder of the lightweight title may have to "work himself to a frazzle" to make 133 pounds at the ringside Jan. 1.

KING EDWARD VII TESTS POWERS OF THOUGHT READERS

LONDON, Dec. 18—King Edward was a guest at dinner tonight of Mr. and Mrs. William George Cavendish-Bentinck, where Agnes and Julias Zancig, thought-readers, whose performance at a music hall here is now the talk of London, gave an exhibition. King Edward himself entered with much zest into the performance and personally tested the powers of the readers. He expressed himself as amazed and delighted with their science and invited the Zancigs to Buckingham Palace in order to enable Queen Alexandra to witness their powers. Other guests at the dinner and performance were Consuelo, Dowager Duchess of Manchester and Walter Burns, who is engaged to marry Miss Evelyn Cavendish Bentinck.

Especially For Women

FRUIT-A-TIVES are the finest medicine in the world for women.

As a mild and gentle laxative—as a positive and speedy cure for Constipation and Biliousness—as the only cure for weak and irritated kidneys and especially for "that pain in the back"—as a positive cure for headaches—and as a general tonic to build up and invigorate the whole system — FRUIT-A-TIVES stand supreme.

In cases of irritated Ovaries, Ovarian Pains, Vaginal Catarrh, Excessive and Scanty Menstruation, Ulcerations, Bearing Down Pains—and all those troubles peculiar to women—

Fruit-a-tives
OR "FRUIT LIVER TABLETS"

have the most remarkable effect.

Ninety-nine cases out of a hundred of Female Troubles are due to neglect. Bowels become constipated — kidneys irregular — skin neglected — and the poisons of the body, which should be carried off by these important organs, are taken up by the blood carried to the female organs and poison them, thus starting up a train of female troubles.

FRUIT-A-TIVES are made from fruits and by their remarkable action on bowels, kidneys and skin, rid the system of poisons, purify the blood, and restore the delicate organs of generation to new vigor and health.

No woman, who suffers, should ever be without them. 50c. a box—6 for $2.50, at your druggist's or sent postpaid by FRUIT-A-TIVES LIMITED - OTTAWA.
