BROAD HINTS FOR MINING EXCHANGE

Toronto Globe Intimates that Speculation in Mining Stocks is Not Altogether on the Level---Publicity is Demanded.

(Toronto Globe.)

A large public interest has undoubtedly been attracted to Cobalt mining stocks by the sensational rise in the price of Nipissing stock, which followed the discovery of the rich vein No. 49, and which discovery actually brought into the stock market as purchasers some of the original holders who had "cashed in" Another influence in the general buying movement has been the glowing reports of the Cobalt camp brought back to nearly every town in Ontario by some one or other who has spent the summer working or prospecting in the camp. This last influence is shown by the large number of orders from the province. Toronto's speculative population has a suspicion of all mining issues since their experience in British Columbia properties. And so far much of the business transacted here in Cobalt issues has come from the country orders. It seems a peculiarity of speculation in stocks that the speculator does not operate in this field with the same judgment which he would apply to ordinary business transactions. Yet the conditions are not radically different. What the speculator needs most is to be protected from himself; yet he also needs to be protected from the "tout" and from buying a stock certificate which represents nothing but the paper on which it is printed. Speculators will avoid at least this one pitfall if they confine their dealings to issues of companies which have already proved the possession of valuable mineral. The history of the valuable new discoveries on the Nipissing property and the subsequent advance by that stock show that the chance of speculative profits will not be eliminated by such a limitation, for it is quite possible that the full value of any of the existing working mines has not yet been fully determined.

E. P. Earle, President of the Nippissing Mines Company, is pursuing a most commendable policy in paying attention to the wild reports which are spread about Nippissing going to buy this or that property. In making an authentic statement, too, of that company's output Mr. Earle is further employing the policy of publicity, which must always be one of the public's safeguards. The directors of the North Star mine have taken an equally commendable course. They both are doing their share to protect the public from purchases under false representations. It is doubtful if some of our past misfortunes in mining speculation would have been so extreme had directors of other companies been equally attentive to reports so widespread that they must have reached these directors' ears. Of course it is not safe to say that the danger of public losses in mining speculation is not so much in dealing in stocks of companies which have already proved some value in their claims as in "wild-cat" propositions which follow in their wake. BUTTER AND CHEESE

(Montreal Star, Monday.)

Although the undertone of the market for cheese still shows a slight improvement, in conformity with reports in these columns last week, there is no change to note in prices. Throughout the country on Saturday prices at country boards moved up a fraction, one board being cleared at 13c., which is practically at the top for the season At the boat here this morning, prices were a shade higher than a week ago, the range being 21⅝ to 21¾c. everything being taken at these figures.

There was some demand in the market here for export, but, as is usual at the beginning of the week, it did not amount to a great deal, so far as could be learned. Prices continued to range from 12¾ to 12⅞c for Quebecs, 12c for Townships, and 13⅛ to 13¼c for Ontarios.

The market for butter showed no change this morning. Finest Townships creamery was still quoted at 24c. while good to fine might be had at 23½ to 23¾c. and seconds at around 23c. Ontario dairy butter was steady at 19¼c to 20c. and Manitoba at 18¼ to 19c. Practically nothing was being done for export, nor do merchants look forward to much demand from this on.

HAMILTON HAS BAD BOYS' SOCIETY

HAMILTON, Oct. 16—As John Allan was returning home one night last week, he was suddenly stopped by a young lad, who, pointing two revolvers at him, demanded his money or his life. Allan stopped, looked the boy over, and told him that he recognized him, when the latter decamped with two of his chums who were hiding behind a tree. The lad was arrested, and when brought up in the police court, said that eight boys had formed a society to frighten "chumps," and chose Allan as their first victim. He was remanded for a few days. Dime-novel stories put the idea into the boy's head.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE

The Ellis Stock Co. played "The Red Rose" in the Opera House last night, and the fair sized audience that greeted them greatly enjoyed the performance. Miss Barbara Clement, as Rosalind Mason, and Waldemar Burkhardt, as Gerald Gordon, came in for the greater part of the applause, merited by an excellent portrayal of their difficult roles. Winifred Mason, Silas Smart, William Osmond and Charlie Lee were characters well looked after by Miss Elsa Buerger, Danl. Bagnall, Algernon Eden and Owen G. Coll respectively.

"The Red Rose" will be repeated again this evening.

A ST. STEPHEN GIRL VICTIM OF SHOOTING

smoking revolver, who threatened her with death if she attempted escape.

Attracted by the first shot, Charles Carter and Jeremiah Curley, who were standing across the street, rushed into the restaurant, there to find McEwan with the pistol to his head, pulling the trigger time and time again. His quick firing of the first shots jammed the barrel, however, and the revolver failed to go off.

Curley is said to have struck McEwan a blow on the head, while Carter knocked the gun from his hand.

McEwan sank to the floor as the result of the attack, while Carter and Curley, assisted by District Chief H. A. Fox, Hoseman W. C. Luken and Driver Fultz of the water tower, held the man, despite his struggles, until the arival of Patrolmen Carby and Burke, who placed McEwan under arrest.

On the way to the patrol box McEwan took a cigar from his pocket, bit the end off, and by a wonderful display of coolness, despite the preceding crime, smoked it all the way to the station house.

At the patrol box, McEwan stated to Inspectors Patterson and Norton that "if the gun had not jammed I would have done a good job."

Mrs. Martin and Miss Stott were brought to the station house, and after being examined by Captain Joseph Dugan were held as witnesses.

The shooting is the culmination of five years of married life, filled with sensational incidents. Five years ago McEwan, who comes from Lawrence, wooed and won Miss Anna O'Brien of St. Stephen, N. B. McEwan was then employed as a clerk in the Hotel Brunswick, William J. Hanrahan, proprietor. His prospects were good and they were married at St. Stephen.

Two years ago, Mr. and Mrs. McEwan went to Quincy, where he secured employment as an electrician in the Fore River works, while Mrs. McEwan secured employment as a waitress in restaurants and boarding houses.

During their stay in Quincy the stork visited the home, leaving a baby boy.

While there had been numerous petty quarrels previous to the birth of the child, the real trouble in the McEwan family had its origination a few weeks after the naming of the child.

On the complaint of Mrs. McEwan her husband was arrested three times, twice for non-support and once for disturbing the peace. McEwan stated to Captain Dugan yesterday that he was released in all of the cases, although "it cost me a lot of money."

Because of the quarrelling and for some reason still unknown to the police, McEwan took the child and placed him in some institution located in Lawrence.

MOTHER FOUND THE CHILD.

Day and night did the young mother search for her lost child, but to no avail. Her husband would not tell where the child was.

Then they came to Boston. McEwan secured employment as an electrician on Boylston street, while his wife went to work for Mr. Lew, at the corner of Howard and Bulfinch streets.

During her stay in Boston, Mrs. McEwan obtained a clue as to the whereabouts of her child. She went to Lawrence and is stated to have secured the boy, bringing him to Boston.

Several times did McEwan get a clue as to the whereabouts of the boy, only to find upon an investigation that his wife had again outwitted him in the battle for possession of their offspring by transferring the youngster to another hiding place.

Despite the fact that the child was in hiding, Mr. and Mrs. McEwan lived together now and then. On last Friday night they separated with a quarrel, McEwan threatening his wife with death unless she produced the boy, it is alleged.

On Saturday night he went to the restaurant and stated that he would kill his wife in three days and that her hours on earth were limited.

Again on Sunday did he call, making the same threats and was finally given a hasty exit by people about the restaurant.

Mrs. McEwan had made known her fear of her husband's intent, to many. At the Derby House, Cambridge street, where she had a room, she warned the proprietor against letting her husband into her room.

For some time McEwan has been rooming at 51 Chambers street, but would frequently stay away many nights at a time.

Barge in Trouble with Six Helpless Men on Board of Her.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Oct. 16—Somewhere along the Virginia coast the whaleback barge Berkshire, with Captain Alson Trudo, and five seamen aboard is adrift in the storm unless she has been driven ashore.

Holy Ghosters Bark Safe

(Bangor News.)

"Elijah" Sanford's yacht, the old Boston bark Rebecca Crowell, which is bound for Jerusalem with about 60 members of Shiloh's Holy Ghost and Us Society, for which fears were entertained, has been heard from.

A. D. Farrington, of the Boston colony, has received a cable message from the captain at the Azores. According to the despatch the vessel was then headed for Gibraltar, and everybody was well.

When asked if the Rev. Frank H. Sandford was with the company which left Boston mysteriously about 52 days ago, Mr. Farrington said that he was not.

COOL ROBBER GETS $1,000

Donned Uniform, Forged Order Took Soldiers and Looted Town Hall

BERLIN, Oct. 17—A unique and daring robbery was committed at Coepenyek, a small town seven miles east of Berlin, yesterday. The robber, in the uniform of a captain of guards, met a detachment of 12 men on a street in Berlin, who were returning from target practice. He produced a forged cabinet order authorizing him to take command. The men recognized his authority and he then ordered them to march to Coepenyek. Upon arrival there they proceeded to the town hall, arrested the Burgomaster and took possession of the cash, $1,000. The robber detached several of his men to conduct the prisoners to headquarters. He ordered the remainder to hold the Town Hall for an hour. He then rode off alone in the direction of Berlin with the money. The burgomaster and the treasurer were greatly mystified at the meaning of their arrest. Upon their arrival in custody at headquarters in Berlin they learned that the ostensible captain was a fraud and were immediately discharged. The bogus captain has not been heard from, the police and military authorities are without any clue whatever as to his identity.

WERE WEDDED IN MONCTON

Sydney Man Gets Bride in Railway Town---Victim of Football Game.

MONCTON, N. B. Oct. 17—(Special)—Will Edington, son of City Engineer Edington, while playing football on the M. A. A. A. grounds last evening, had his collar bone fractured. He will be laid up several weeks.

D. B. McDonald, maritime traveller for J. C. Wilson & Co. of Montreal, left last night for Montreal where he will be married on the 22nd. inst. to Miss Amanda Doyle, daughter of the late James Doyle, of Jacquet River.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Beaumont, former stenographer in the Iron and Steel works at Sydney, to Perley R. Smith, accountant of the Nova Scotia Furniture Co., Sydney, was solemnized at two o'clock this afternoon at the bride's home here. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. E. Whitehouse, pastor of the First Baptist church, in the presence of the immediate family and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left this afternoon on a wedding trip to Montreal and other cities. The bride is one of Moncton's bright and highly esteemed young women. She was the recipient of many handsome wedding presents.

INDUCTION OF REV. MR. DICKIE

Sketch of Career of New Pastor of St. Stephen's Church.

A large number gathered at St. Stephen's church last evening to witness the induction of Rev. A. Gordon Dickie into the church pastorate. At the conclusion of the ceremony a reception was held in the school room.

Rev. Frank Baird, moderator of presbytery, presided, and Rev. A. H. Foster told of the steps leading to the call. The charge to the minister was delivered by Rev. Dr. Macrae, Rev. Dr. Fotheringham addressed the congregation and the induction prayer was offered by Rev. David Lang.

The addresses, which were very able, were listened to with marked attention.

When Mr. Dickie had pronounced the benediction, most of those present adjourned to the school room, where refreshments were served and an enjoyable programme rendered.

During the evening a telegram from Rev. Prof. D. J. Fraser, of Montreal, former pastor of St. Stephen's church, was read, congratulating both the church and the new pastor.

Rev. A. Gordon Dickie, a son of Rev. A. B. Dickie, of Halifax county, N. S., is a class-mate of the moderator. He took his degree as a Bachelor of Arts at Dalhousie in 1896, and graduated in theology from Pine Hill Seminary, Halifax, in 1899. In 1900 he graduated from Harvard as a Master of Arts. He then went to the old country and spent a year at Berlin and Marlborough.

Mr. Dickie's ordination took place at Milford, N. S., in 1902. Here he spent a year in charge of a mission, and then went to North Sydney, as assistant to Rev. Dr. Jack, and in 1904 took charge of a church at St. Stephen, where he served most acceptably for two years, or until his call to St. Stephen's, St. John.

THE AFFAIRS OF THE SUN LIFE

At the insurance enquiry in Montreal yesterday T. B. Macaulay, secretary of the Sun Life, contended that policy holders should not vote. He considered that when they did vote it would be usually at the behest of an agent, and that the only occasion on which they would want to come to an annual meeting would be one on which some enterprising agent, who aspired to the position of manager, would gather his friends and bring them along to run things.

Discussing the contingent fund, Mr. Macaulay contended that the company's policy had been a conservative one and that their judgment had been vindicated. "The fund is made up of stocks," said Mr. Macaulay, "which are of the highest class and ones in which I would recommend the widow to place her money."

Mr. Macaulay stated to the commission that the Sun Life did not keep a regular cash book, but a sort of journal instead, in which other items than cash were also entered.

Commissioner Kent criticized this system strongly, on the ground that it was unbusiness like, and Mr. Shepley said that it made going through the books very difficult and misleading.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I. Oct. 17—(Special)—Summerside is determined to profit by the lesson of her quarter of a million dollar fire. At a big meeting of citizens last night reorganization and thorough equipment of the fire department was decided on. Resolutions were passed unanimously favoring construction at the earliest possible date of water works and restoration of the electric light works which were destroyed. Both works will be owned and operated by the town.

A deputation of mail clerks on trains waited on the Hon. T. P. O'CONNOR DELIGHTED Tells in New York of His Great Reception in Canada.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17—T. P. O'Connor, Irish member of parliament, returned to this city from a visit to Canada last night.

"I spoke in Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto," said Mr. O'Connor, "and I found not only enthusiasm for the cause of Irish freedom, but the Canadians subscribed liberally for our work. Of course I found some opponents, but Canada as a whole is for home rule for Ireland. At the meeting at Ottawa Sir Wilfrid Laurier sat in the front row, and at the close of my speech proposed a vote of thanks. He said that every true Irishman was in our favor. Several ministers of the different provinces subscribed, as did Chief Justice Fitzpatrick. I expect to sail for home next week, on Wednesday, and my time this week will be taken up in preparation for the mass meeting in Carnegie Hall next Sunday."

"Never since the days of Parnell did I see such feeling toward Ireland as there is in this country today. From the president down I have met no American who does not hope that the end of Ireland's affliction is at hand. We are going to win, and win soon."

Mr. O'Connor said that two members of parliament, Messrs. Hazelman and Kettle, were on their way to this country on the steamship Baltic. They will spend some months on this side, making speeches and organizing branches of the United Irish Society.

The vines are not all killed on the late patches. The season, on the whole, has been the most prosperous the growers ever experienced.
