A WILD PANDEMONIUM ON PARIS RACE COURSE

Crowd, Furious at What They Deemed a False Start, Attacked Bookmakers, Scrambled for the Money and then Fough With Police.

PARIS, Oct. 16.—One of the most extraordinary scenes probably ever witnessed on a race track occurred at Longchamps, Bois de Boulogne, Sunday afternoon. A riot of wild proportions turned the race course into pandemonium, and violence reigned unrestrained for over an hour and a half. Men and women were assaulted and injured, shots were fired, and the mob, in the excess of its fury, resorted to incendiarism, joyfully burning the betting booths, and twice attempting to set fire to the grand stand. The cause of the rioting was the crowd's belief that there had been a false start. When this belief spread, which it did like an electric shock, the people seemed to go mad, but with a clear and definite purpose, namely, to wreak vengeance on the managers of the races and the operators of the betting system, the Paris mutual. The trouble started at three o'clock, when the third race was called. There were probably 100,000 persons present. Only three horses got away. Those left at the post included the favorite. The start was so patently false in public estimation, that the people supposed the horses would be recalled, but this was not done, and as soon as the spectators realized that there was to be no recall those in the grand stand became extremely excited and those in the immense field seemed to go wild. As one man, the crowd cried, "Catch the robbers!" Those in the field made a rush for the many betting booths, which form practically one building in the field, demanding their money. They contented themselves with demanding only momentarily. Then they stormed the booths, set them on fire, and assailed the occupants. Men and women were knocked down and tumbled over each other. The men about the booths were seemingly crazy or drunk, and waved over their heads great rolls of bank notes, which had been taken from the cashiers. The sight made the crowd madder than ever. They overpowered the booth-keepers, both tally men and cashiers. Bills and gold and silver pieces flew in all directions. The crowd fought and scrambled for the money and many were injured. Meanwhile the fire was spreading.

The crowd in the grand stand were also frenzied, but were somewhat less violent. They demanded their money at their booths and denounced the Societe d'Encouragement, which controls all sport in France, threatening legal proceedings.

Twice flames started in the cheaper part of the grand stand, newspapers being used to encourage the flames, but the stand was not burned. When the firemen reached the scene the infuriated mob would not let them reach the burning booths. The mob cut the harness of the horses attached to the fire engines, and the animals, which were at high tension, and frightened by the screams, galloped across the course. They rushed uncontrolled into the dense crowd, bearing down many persons. The police and gendarmes were powerless. They were threatened by the crowd almost the same as the betakers, and several of them were injured before reinforcements arrived.

The police authorities ordered the races stopped for the day, but the crowd refused to go home. In the meantime aid was summoned from the city. M. Lepine, prefect of police, arrived and the crowd cheered him, but even from him they demanded that he refund their money. M. Lepine restored order. His reinforcements slowly and with difficulty forced the crowd from the field, but not before the iron chairs the ladies had occupied had been hurled even at the policemen. Storm was the favorite in the betting. Monsieur Perichon won. The mutuals had begun to pay bets at 14 to 1 on Monsieur Perichon when the rioters got the upper hand.

The fire had destroyed every one of the 75 booths and the tall tower where the races were bulletined before it was got under control. The damage amounts to $10,000. The pool sellers say that only $2,000 was stolen by the rioters, but report places the money thus lost at $40,000. It was the worst outbreak that ever occurred on this, the greatest race course in France. There was a similar one at Colombes 16 years ago and one since at Vincennes.

OVER 7,000,000 PEOPLE SAW GAMES.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17—Careful compiling of the daily attendance figures for the season 1906, shows that 5,719,289 persons witnessed the combined games of the American and National Baseball Leagues during the season just closed, Chicago alone drawing one-fifth of the grand total. If these figures included the attendance at minor league games, and at the post-season series in Chicago, the total would reach 7,000,000, representing in gate money $3,000,000.

This year's figures in the National and American Leagues, however, show a decrease of more than 85,000 from last year, the American League falling behind by 132,676, while the National League showed an increase of 46,903. Despite the close race of the American League and the one-sidedness of the National League, this was the best season the Nationals have had since the Americans came East, and the best season the older organization has had in its history.

The grand total of the American League was 2,938,076, while the total of the National League was 2,781,213, it being the third successive year that the Americans outdrew the Nationals. The difference in the two leagues' figures this season was 156,863, while last year's difference showed 326,442, the Nationals making a gain of 169,579 on the Americans.

The Chicago Nationals lead all the teams in both leagues with a total of 654,300, outdrawing the White Sox by nearly 70,000. While the latter won the American League championship, their figures show a decrease of more than 100,000, while the Cubs' figures increased 145,000.

The New York Americans outdrew, in this city, the world's champion New York Nationals by more than 20,000, the first time the Yankees have made such a showing. The total attendance in this city was 837,550, representing gate receipts of about $554,307.

In the cities where two clubs are located the total attendance shows Chicago leading by more than forty thousand, New York city follows Chicago, while Philadelphia is third. The American League teams outdrew the National League teams in New York, Philadelphia, Boston and St. Louis, while Chicago Nationals outdrew the Chicago Americans.

SPRINTING

Eatman Heard From.

Elbridge Eatman, the colored sprinter of West St. John, was heard from on Tuesday. He and George Wallace, the English sprinter, run in a number of handicaps in Wales. Eatman writes that the hardest race he ran was against Wallace when he defeated him by a half yard. Eatman and Wallace may come to St. John in December.

THE TURF

Roseben's Record Time.

New York, Oct. 16—D. C. Johnson's Roseben, carrying 126 pounds, created a new world's record for seven furlongs for circular and straightaway courses, when he won the fifth race at Belmont Park today. He stepped the distance in the fastest time ever made on an American race course—1.22. When he finished and the phenomenal time was hung out by the official timer, the big crowd gave the great sprinter a rousing cheer which continued for several minutes in spite of the fact that they were unable to bet on him at the prohibitive odds of 1 to 80. Johnson and Frank Farrell are reported to have won over $25,000 on his victory, as they bet that the son of Bensrome-Rose Leaf would run faster than 1.25.

Fourteen horses were carded to go in this event, but they were all scratched except Beauclare and it was after the withdrawals that it was decided to send Roseben against time. Roseben ran the first furlong in 12 seconds, passed the quarter in 24 4-5, and the three-eighths in 35 1-5. Around the long upper turn the horse continued in faultless style and flashed by the half mile pole in 46 4-5. When he turned into the stretch the high wind was behind him and he came to the three-quarter mark in 1.10 3-5. He was now beginning to show signs of tiring and Shaw took no chances with him and rode Roseben out to the flash under the wire a winner in 1.22. The best previous time was 1.24 4-5, held by Halifax, around the turns, and the straightaway record was established by Della B. of 1.23½.

FOOTBALL

WILL PLAY TOMORROW.

A game of football will be played on the Shamrock grounds tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock between the Victorias and Portland Y. M. A. This will be the first appearance of the Portland Y. M. A. team, and as they have been putting in considerable practice, a good game may be expected. The Victorias have already shown their capabilities by defeating the Rothesay fifteen and tying with the High School.

C. B. U., 8; HIGH SCHOOL, 6.

On Tuesday afternoon the Currie University took the High School into camp on the Victoria grounds to the tune of 8 to 6. The spectacular play of the game was the 50 yards run of O'Neil of the High School team. Curries scrim showed plainly that they needed practice, as the High School scrim put it over them. By the excellence of the halves and quarters, Curries won their game. The tries for Curries were made by Sullivan and Elderkin. Sullivan nicely converted his own try. Pike played a star game at quarter. Kennedy put up the best game of the scrim, but had the misfurtune of injuring his eye quite severely.

BASKETBALL

WILL PLAY TONIGHT.

This evening in the City Hall, Carleton, a game of basket ball will be played between St. George's and Carmarthens. This will be the first of the series of games which will be played this season, and each team will put up a strong line-up, as the Carmarthens have put up a cup for the season.

THE RING

JACK O'BRIEN WINS.

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Oct. 17.—Jack O'Brien of Philadelphia knocked out two men before the Pacific Athletic Club here last night. He put out Fred Cooley, his former sparring partner, in three rounds, knocking him down in every round. Cooley landed scarcely a blow. Jim Trimble, a local boxer, he succeeded in putting out after nine rounds of fighting. In the terms of the match O'Brien had agreed to put out each man inside of ten rounds. Trimble complained of the decision of the referee in counting him out, contending that he was on his feet at the count of ten.

MELLODY WINS FOR WOLCOTT.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 17. — Honey Mellody, of Charlestown, was given the decision over Joe Wolcott, the welterweight champion, at the end of a 15 round bout before the Lincoln A. C. in Chelsea last night. While the bout does not actually settle the welterweight championship, it generally is conceded to have an important bearing on the possession of the title. Nearly 3,000 people saw the contest. The men were weighed in at 145 pounds. In the first round Wolcott scored a knock-down before Mellody had really sized up the colored lad. After that Mellody got in more blows and inflicted more punishment than did Wolcott. Mellody tried almost exclusively to land effective body punches.

Bouts This Week.

Wednesday—Terry McGovern vs. Young Corbett, Philadelphia. Amby McGarry vs. Kid Sullivan, Baltimore.
Friday—Willie Fitzgerald vs. Jack Dougherty, Milwaukee.
Saturday—Tommy Murphy vs. Johnny Dwyer, Philadelphia.

LEWIS DOWNED FITZGERALD.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 14—That Harry Lewis has always been held too cheaply was proved at the wind-up at the National Athletic Club last night when, in the second round, Lewis got inside of Willie Fitzgerald's guard, and, sending down his right, hit Fitzgerald on the danger spot. The punch was delivered so quickly that even those in the immediate vicinity of the ringside scarcely knew what was coming off.

Willie went down for the limit, and showed no particular inclination to get up. Getting up Fitz was visibly groggy, and was compelled to stall a bit. Lewis, however, seeing his advantage, was after him. As soon as Fitz assumed a standing position Lewis walked into him.

Again Fitz went to the floor. By this time Lewis was carried away with excitement, and, when Younge Erne tried to throw water on his back, Lewis, forgetting himself, essayed to kick through the ropes in the direction of Erne's chops. This was entirely out of order, but before Fitz, still groggy, had a chance to get up, the bout was stopped by the officials.

CHAMPION POOL PLAYER

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 16—John Morgan, champion continuous pool player of the world, tonight formally surrendered his title and returned the diamond championship emblem to the donor. It is stated that an open tournament will be held to determine Morgan's successor.

Morgan's interest in billiards, he says, caused him to give up the pool title.

Barker, of Lowell, champion checker player of the world, played a simultaneous game against 24 of the best players from Lawrence, Haverhill, Andover, North Andover and Whitingsville tonight in this city. Immigrants at North Sydney

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 16—More than 100 immigrants arrived at North Sydney this morning from St. Pierre, Miquelon, in charge of Dr. T. A. Brisson, head of the colonization department for the province of Quebec. They proceeded west, where work will be procured for them in railway construction. Affairs are in a bad state in St. Pierre, and the people are leaving it as fast as they can. The fisheries have been a failure for the past two or three years, and many cases of extreme hardship are reported.

Dr. Brisson says that on the next trip some 200 more will come to Canada, and that the end will not be even then. The population is decreasing rapidly, so rapidly that France is becoming a little alarmed over the situation, in view of the fact that St. Pierre is made a recruiting ground for her navy.

Harry H. Brown returned home yesterday from Montreal and Toronto.

Charles Damery and wife returned yesterday from Boston.

MR. BOURASSA TAKES THE STUMP

He Opposes the Government Candidate and is Rebuked by Postmaster-General.

QUEBEC, Oct. 17.—(Special). — Henri Bourassa yesterday took the stump for Mr. Robitaille, a Liberal, who is running in opposition to Mr. Amyeot, the government candidate.

Mr. Bourassa advised his hearers to send to the house of commons a man with independence instead of a party slave, as Mr. Amyeot would be. The day was passing when it was necessary to send voting machines to parliament. He asked the electors to do away with the question of Liberal or Conservative and send to parliament a man of the people.

The postmaster general was also a speaker and rebuked Mr. Bourassa for supporting a man who opposed the wishes of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Senator Choquette also spoke in favor of Amyeot.

NOVEMBER DELINEATOR

The November Delineator treats of the established styles for autumn both in dress and millinery, and also devotes much space to the accessories of dress which women find so alluring. The spirit of Thanksgiving season is preserved in a poem by Theodosia Garrison, a foot-ball story by Violet Coen, and an old-fashioned Thanksgiving story by Harriet Prescott Spofford; and the kitchen department is stocked with suggestions for a variety of Thanksgiving feasts ranging from "A Rational Thanksgiving dinner" to "A Vegeterian Thanksgiving Dinner." For the feminine fingers that grow so busy proparing Christmas gifts between November's and December's great feast days, there are numerous suggestions for practical and ornamental gifts in the Needlework department. In the children's department "The Doll's Dressmaker" will help educate the little mothers in the fashioning of garments for their dollies.

Besides the fiction mentioned, the three serial stories, "Fraulein Schmidt and Mr. Anstruther" by the author of "Elizabeth and Her German Gardener," "The Diary of a Baby" by Barry Pain, and "The Chauffeur and the Chaperon" by the Williamsons, continue to hold the interest displayed in them from the start. Storiettes by Anne Warner and Louis Macke, and several bright skits fill the department of "Miscellanea." The children will be pleased at the appearance of a "Bunny Rabbit' story by Grace McGowan Cooke and the conclusion of Florence Wilkinson's fairy story, "The Princess Who Came Into Fashion Again."

Lida A. Churchill in her Department of Real Life discourses on "Playing to the Upper Audience," George William Jordan gives good advice for "When We are Face to Face with Trouble," and the fourth paper of "Little Problems of Married Life" treats of "Making Marriage a Success."

Mr. Shatford is at present connected with St. John's church, North Sydney, and will enter on his new field of labor here on December 1, which is the date on which Mr. Almon Abbott is to leave for Hamilton. Mr. Shatford is very popular in Sydney, where his good qualities have been recognized both as man and as minister.

TOLEDA, Ohio, Oct. 17. — Louis A. Geisler, of Paulding, a senior at Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware and right end on the varsity football team, fell dead on the field yesterday after running down a punt. Heart trouble was the cause.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cowan have returned from Boston.

THE UNION MUST BE RECOGNISED

The question of the recognition of the 'Longshoremen's Union will again be a factor in the coming winter port season. It was learned yesterday from a reliable source that in Montreal at least five of the lines doing business here in the winter season have agreed that while the rate of ship laborers according to the agreement drawn up here some few months ago will be paid, the 'Longshoremen's Union or any union shall not be recognized; in other words the steamship people interested wish to hold themselves free to employ whom they like irrespective of membership in any 'longshoremen's organization.

The lines referred to are understood to be the Allans, Head Line, Donaldson Line, Elder-Dempster and C. P. R. Three lines, however, namely, the Battle Line, Furness Line and South African Line, are prepared to stand by the agreement in its entirety, which means that the 'Longshoremen's Union will be recognized.

The rate of wages agreed to is 30 cents an hour, 40 cents on grain, half time for waiting after 7 o'clock and double time for Sunday and holidays.

That the steamship people will be asked to recognize the 'Longshoremen's Association, is the opinion of John Killen, former, and Charles Daley, present, acting business agent of the association.

Both Mr. Killen and Mr. Daley expressed the opinion that there would in all likelihood be but one organization this season.

HARRY THAW'S CASE

New York, Oct. 16—There was a revival of interest today in the case of Harry K. Thaw, charged with the murder of Stanford White, when, in court, District-Attorney Jerome intimated that there might be other indictments in the case.

The statement by the district-attorney was made in the course of an argument before Recorder Goff against the writ of prohibition restraining the district-attorney's office from further preliminary action in grand jury proceedings in the murder case.

Following the hearing, Clifford W. Hartridge, Thaw's counsel, called upon the prisoner at the Tombs and later explained that Thaw had seen the evening papers and feared from what he had read of the proceedings that his wife or other members of the family might be indicted in the case. Mr. Hartridge said that he merely called to set Thaw's mind at rest as there was no danger that any other member of his family or any one connected with the family would be indicted.

The recorder, at the request of Mr. Jerome, adjourned the proceedings, that the district attorney might obtain a formal order to have the argument transferred to Justice McLean's court, where it was first heard.

BOND IS BITTER

St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 16—Premier Bond in an interview today, declared that the statements of the American press to the effect that the colony was a party to the modus vivendi is a tissue of falsehoods. The premier asserts that the colony has conceded nothing, that she insisted upon her rights and had besought the imperial government to support them.

The modus vivendi, he says, was concluded against the protest of the colony of Newfoundland, and the government did not sanction any of the concessions granted Americans, but had exhausted every resource it could command in opposing the agreement, which attitude of firm opposition, it does not intend to abandon, regarding the measure as derogatory to colonial rigths and laws.

Ottawa, Oct. 16.—There was a meeting of the cabinet today but the question of calling parliament was not discussed. It looks now as if November 22 would be the date named. It will likely be decided this week.

The Misses Margaret and Muriel Fairweather, of Rothesay, came in yesterday from Boston.
