AT THE OPERA HOUSE

The Ellis Stock Company last night produced "Lost Paradise" in a very pleasing manner. It is by all odds the most popular offering the company has yet made and the members of the cast showed to much advantage in it. The second act is a particularly good one with a very strong dramatic climax. Miss Aubrey did first class work in the lead, while Lee Koehler scored as Reuben Warner. The other members of the company gave excellent support. Miss Longfellow's vocal specialty between the acts was well rendered and drew a hearty encore.

The same bill will be repeated tonight.

THE WINTER A BUSY ONE

May Have 130 Steamship Sailings From Port of St. John

SITUATION REVIEWED

Four Steamers Now Loading for Various Ports—Schooners Windbound ----Potatoes for West Indies --- Big Grain Trade.

Along the harbor front affairs have been rather quiet for the past week, on account of the recent storm along the coast, which has detained sailing vessels of every description.

There are at the present time four ocean steamships in the harbor, all taking outward cargo. The Battle liner Cunaxa is about ready for sea, bound for a port in the United Kingdom with a cargo of deals. The Furness steamship Almeriana is loading for Liverpool with a general cargo. The Donaldson liner Indrani is loading a general cargo for Glasgow. This steamer will go via Norfolk, Va., to finish loading. She will sail tomorrow. The Oruro, which landed a cargo here from the West Indies, is at the Corporation Pier taking in a general cargo for the south, including a large shipment of potatoes.

There is also a large fleet of schooners waiting for favorable winds to sail for ports of destination in the United States.

Next week the winter port business will commence to boom. The first vessel will be the steamship Alcides of the Donaldson line, unless the Allan turbine steamship Virginian, due at Halifax next Saturday, should come here. Already grain has commenced to arrive from the west, and a large amount is now in the elevator at the west side. Last year nearly seven million bushels of wheat went forward, and the total is expected to reach that or more this season. The indications point that way.

The coming season, no doubt, will be a busy one along the harbor front. Looking at the number of sailings scheduled for different liners coming here, it is estimated that over 130 steamers will leave this port with full cargoes for United Kingdom and other places.

The immigration office here expects to have a busy season. Representatives of the C. P. R. and other lines say the applications are coming in rapidly, and that they are preparing for a big passenger traffic this season. The immigration shed on the west side is now in the best shape for doing business. A heavy general freight business both going and coming is expected.
