Little Comedies.

BY RYAN WALKER.

VERY REALISTIC.

She-You say that it was the most realistic play you ever saw?

HOW HE LIED TO HIS WIFE.

Mrs. Rounder (in her husband's office) - I thought you said your stenographer was an old maid?

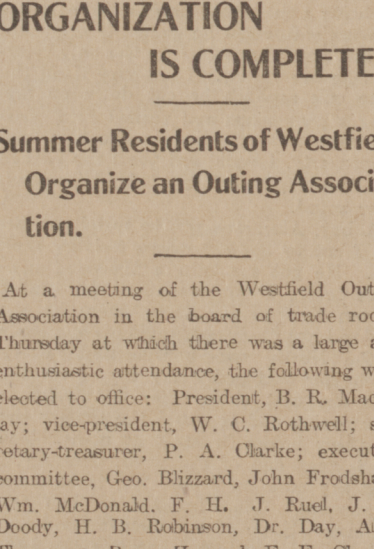

Mr. Rounder (thinking quickly) - So she is; but - er - she's sick today and sent her little sister in her place.

NEEDED IT, TOO.

First Tramp - Were you in high society when you were in England, Raggy?

Second Tramp - Sure, I got the order of the bath before I'd been there two days.

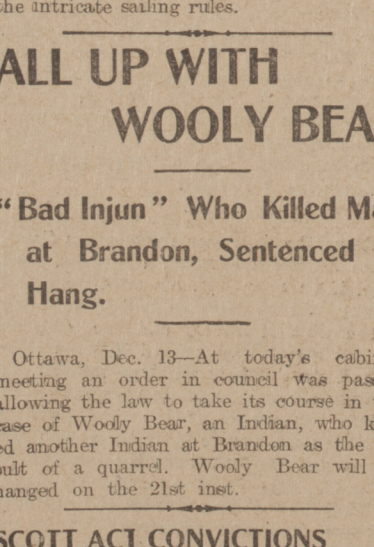

UP TO HIM.

Her Father (coming into parlor at 11:45 p.m.) - Here's my umbrella; I've got to go to bed.

His Daughter - What do you mean, papa?

Her Father - Give it to Mr. Staylate. It looks like it's going to rain before morning.

HURLED FROM AUTO INTO FROZEN LAKE

New York, Dec. 13 - W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., had a narrow escape from death today. With his chauffeur he was speeding his 60-horse power racing automobile on the shore of Lake Success, Long Island, when the front axle snapped and the car skidded a zig-zag course. A moment later a wheel became detached the body of the car struck the ground and tore up the road for fifteen feet or more. The jar hurled Mr. Vanderbilt from his seat over the machine into the lake well away from the shore. He sank through the thin ice, but rose immediately and swam to shore. The force with which Mr. Vanderbilt was thrown from the automobile was such that had he met with any obstacle he must have been instantly killed. The chauffeur clung to his seat and was not seriously injured.

A vote of thanks was also tendered to W. C. Rothwell for his very cheerful work in effecting the organization of the club and for his skill and energy in framing the intricate sailing rules.

At a meeting of the Westfield Outing Association in the board of trade rooms Thursday at which there was a large and enthusiastic attendance, the following were elected to office: President, B. R. Macaulay; vice-president, W. C. Rothwell; secretary-treasurer, P. A. Clarke; executive committee, Geo. Bizzard, John Frodham, Wm. McDonald, F. H. J. Ruel, J. H. Doody, H. B. Robinson, Dr. Day, Alex. Thompson, Percy Howard, E. E. Church, J. A. Likely, G. W. Cooke, J. H. Hamilton and W. W. Allan.

The constitution, bye-laws and sailing rules were adopted. Mr. Macaulay offered the association a piece of land opposite his summer residence for tennis courts, and this was accepted, and a vote of thanks passed for his very kind donation.

A vote of thanks was also tendered to W. C. Rothwell for his very cheerful work in effecting the organization of the club and for his skill and energy in framing the intricate sailing rules.
