MR. FIELDING DEFEATED
DR. R. C. WELDON BY A MAJORITY OF 1,001

The Hon. W. S. Fielding.

Shelburne, N. S., Oct. 31—With all the returns in from the Shelburne-Queens election Hon. W. S. Fielding has a majority of 1,001 over R. C. Weldon, compared with 385 which he had in the general election of 1904, when Mr. Fielding's opponent was J. J. Ritchie.

The Conservatives did not expect so great a majority against them as this, but there was not a worker in the united counties on the opposition side, during the campaign, who did not know, though he would not publicly admit it, that the minister of finance would secure his election.

The only hope of Dr. Weldon's friends was that they might keep the majority of the minister of finance somewhat near his figures for 1904. Mr. Fielding has 262 more votes than he secured in that contest and Weldon has 344 less votes than Ritchie received.

The total vote polled today is practically the same as that at the general election. Fielding has 2,564 votes, while Weldon has 1,563. In the contest of 1904 the figures were 2,302 for Fielding, and 1,917 for Ritchie.

The government had a very large force of workers in the constituency, their speakers including three members of parliament and three or four members of the local legislature. Factors that assisted in swelling the majority of the minister of finance were a certain feeling of sympathy for Mr. Fielding on account of his having been unseated and that it was in the interests of the constituency that it should be represented in parliament by a minister of the crown rather than by an opposition member. The Liberals are naturally in good spirits while the Conservatives take the result philosophically.

REFUSED TO BURY BODY FOUND AT ST. LEONARD'S

Edmundston, Oct. 30—The body of a man named George Murphy was found last Sunday morning in an old tumble-down building below St. Leonard's station on the C. P. R. The discovery was made by some boys who were playing on the track. They were so horrified they ran into the village and told what they had seen. Monday afternoon Coroner Violette with a jury viewed the body in the old building where it lay. Efforts were made to have Murphy interred first in the Catholic cemetery and afterwards in the Protestant burial ground. Both denominations refused the privilege and finally the man was interred under the direction of the coroner near the St. John river.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 31—In a violent fit of coughing, shortly before his death at a local hospital, H. L. Mills, an Oregan pioneer of 1876, and nephew of General Robert E. London Election Case

Toronto, Oct. 31—At the London election inquiry today in corroboration of Pritchett's revelations of a few weeks ago, a number of witnesses were called, when the conspiracy case was re-opened, who told of alleged corrupt methods employed in the Brockville election of 1899. Particular instances referred to were those in which ballots, already marked, were given voters, who, upon returning from the polling booth with blank ballots given them by the deputy returning officer, would receive cash for the same.
