Bride of Head of Chewing Gum Trust

MRS. WILLIAM J. WHITE

NEW YORK, Oct. 10—William J White, of Cleveland and New York city, millionaire head of the Chewing Gum Trust, divorced recently from his wife, with whom he had risen from abject poverty to great wealth, was married on the 3rd inst. at his appartments in the Holland House to Mrs. Helen Sheldon, recently Mrs. Maloney, of Chicago, whose divorce from her wealthy husband gave her the right to her maiden name.

Although his name was not mentioned in the suit which freed the bride of Wednesday, those who were acquainted with the circumstances believed that her introduction to White while both were at Palm Beach two winters ago determined them in the course which they have since pursued.

Mrs. White, the present, who used her maiden name on the license, was the wife of a prominent man of Chicago who lived at Evanston. About a year ago she obtained a decree and with it a sum of money, said to have been nearly half a million dollars. Her former husband is now a patron of the Auditorium in Chicago.

White, who rose from the position of a pedler to that of one of the wealthiest men of Cleveland, was legally separated from his wife, to whom he had been married for more than a quarter of a century, on Tuesday, the Cleveland courts granting her the divorce on the technical grounds of desertion. He is the man who made chewing gum popular and after creating a demand for the product bought up the greater part of the chicle supply of Mexico, which gave him the master hand in the trade.

When the chewing gum trust was formed he was made president, and he has been credited with an income of more than $500,000 a year from this position. He owned two magnificent homes in Cleveland, as well as a splendidly appointed stock farm, which was the home of Star Pointer, the first of the two minute harness horses. Within the last ten years, after his election to Congress from Ohio, he spent much of his time in the East, making his home in New York.

N. B. Forestry Convention

Ottawa, Oct. 10—As soon as the provincial conference closes Premier Tweedie and Dr. Pugsley will leave for Washington to confer with the authorities with a view of getting data and all information for the purpose of holding a forestry convention in New Brunswick. The intention was to hold it in August, but it was necessary to get the present provincial conference out of the way. The convention will be held some time in December.

WEDDINGS

Shewen-Bishop.

A nuptial event of interest to St. John people took place yesterday in the church of St. James the Apostle, Montreal, where Miss Olive Bishop, daughter of G. H. Bishop, was married to Rev. Mansel Shewen, rector of Oak Point, N. B., and son of E. T. P. Shewen, resident engineer of the public works department, St. John; Rev. Canon Ellegoode officiating.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was attended by her sister, Miss Dora Bishop, who was maid of honor, and by Miss Shewen, of St. John, and Miss Dora Dennison of Toronto; Rev. Almon Abbott was best man and the ushers were Dr. Hardisty and Mr. Fitzgibbon. A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Shewen left on their wedding trip.

Daley-Burns.

Windsor (N.S.) correspondence of October 9 tells of the marriage of J. Joseph Daley, of this city, to Miss Lottie B. Barns, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Barns, Victoria street, Windsor. The officiating clergyman was Rev. W. F. Parker. After the ceremony luncheon was served and then Mr. and Mrs. Daley left for Truro. They will make their home in Moncton. Mr. Daley was for several years employed in the Dufferin Hotel. The groom's present to the bride was $50 in gold.

Fowler-Hanson.

The wedding of Miss Ida Winslow Hanson, of Lewiston (Me.), and Lorne Randolph Fowler, a Fredericton young man, took place on Monday evening at Lewiston, where the groom has made his home for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Fowler left on a two-weeks' trip and on their return will reside in Worcester (Mass.). Among those present were Mrs. Fisher, of St. Mary's, sister of the groom, and her husband, Dr. E. Bayard Fisher, secretary of the Provincial Board of Health.

Cochran-Bartle.

George Nelson Cochran, brother of Councillor Cochran of St. Martins, who went west a year ago, was married at Atherton's Corner (B. C.), on Monday, Sept. 17. The bride was Miss Maude Elizabeth Bartle, formerly of Hamilton (Ont.) The newly wedded couple will reside in Spokane this winter.

Brodie-Denison.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 10.—All Saints Church was filled this afternoon with many interested friends, who gathered to witness the marriage of Miss Francis Shandi Denison, second daughter of Mrs. W. G. Denison, and Harry Walter Brodie, asistant general passenger agent of the C. P. R.

The bride looked lovely in a tailor made costume of cream serge and an Eton coat, the latter being in—set with clusters of Dresden silver buttons. She carried a beautiful bouquet of bridal roses and maidenhair fern and a tiny ivory prayer-book with silver backed corners. Her only brother, W. Claude Denison, of Minneapolis, gave her away. As maid of honor, her sister, Miss Nora Denison, wore a very effective gown of champagne silk colienne over cerise silk.

The full service of the Church of England was impressively read by the rector, Rev. F. C. C. Heathcote. The groom was supported by H. L. Brown.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the guests drove to the family residence on Spadina avenue, where an informal reception followed. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Brodie left via the Soo line for a month's honeymoon to be spent in Chicago, New York, Toronto and other points east.

Amherst and American Firms May Amalgamate

Amherst, N. S., Oct. 10—Negotiations are now pending that may lead to the amalgamation of the Robb Engineering Company, of this town, and the Robb Mumford Boiler Company, of South Framingham (Mass.) D. W. Robb is managing director of both concerns. A meeting of shareholders has been called for October 23 to consider the proposition, and the general impression is that the shareholders will vote for amalgamation.
