LATE LOCALS

Gurney Division, S. of T. will meet this evening and all members are urgently requested to attend.

The tug Lord Kitchener, Captain Stevens, will go today to Parrsboro with barges No. 3 and 7 in tow.

"Reader," St. Stephen, who complains that an item of news did not appear in the Times will find it on Page 4 of Monday's issue.

The Norwegian steamer Kathinka, Captain Thorsen, arrived in port this morning from Jamaica with a fruit cargo. No passengers.

The Swedish bark August, Captain Nielsen, arrived from Rhyl, via Swansea, in ballast, for a deal cargo. She comes to W. Malcolm MacKay's.

The St. John schooner Charlie, Captain Brown, arrived this morning at Chatham, N. B., from Mill Cove, N. B., to load laths for New York.

The following are the bank clearings for the week ending Thursday, Oct. 11, 1906: $1,251,419; corresponding week last year: $1,149,480.

Capt. W. H. Logan, marine superintendent of the Manchester and Furness lines of steamers, arrived in this city today from Halifax on his way to Montreal.

The Battle line steamship Arcola, Captain Wry, from Pugwash Sept. 27th, for Preston, was reported passing Kinsale on Monday with loss of mainmast and part of deckload gone.

The Marathon Athletic club has received word from the U. N. B. asking for information regarding the proposed road race. It is probable the U. N. B. will be represented.

A new double plate glass top desk has been put in the custom house long room for the use of the public. The new oak railing around the counter of the same room is finished. Fred Hains did the work, which is very creditable to him.

The men of C. Co., 62nd Fusiliers, complain that they have not yet received their drill pay, which, they claim, is now long overdue. They cannot understand the delay and would like to have their money as early as possible.

The night school for girls will open at the King's Daughters' Guild on Tuesday, the 16th. inst. with a competent teacher in charge. All information can be obtained from the secretary at the guild, 13 Prince William street.

A public meeting will be held this (Thursday) evening in the People's Mission, Waterloo St. at 8 o'clock, to consider the future of the mission. All who are interested are cordially invited to be present. At this meeting it will be decided whether the work is to go on or not.

The revival meeting now in progress every night in Coburg street Christian church was well attended last night, and a good interest prevails. Rev. T. H. Bates gave an able discourse on the conversion of the jailor. The public are cordially invited to attend.

FIELD DAY AT GOLF LINKS

Attractive Programme Will be Carried Out at Local Golf Club Tomorrow.

Tomorrow's events at the local golf links promise to be of a very interesting character. It is known among and kept by the club members as Stetson Day and will be kept as a general field day for the closing of the season. Quite a number of invitations have been issued and tea will be served and prizes presented.

A complete list of players could not be procured this morning, as all arrangements in this connection will not be made until late this afternoon or during the evening.

From present information the programme will be as follows: Ladies' singles at 10 a. m. Luncheon at one o'clock. Mixed foursomes in the afternoon, about 2.30 o'clock.

Presentation of prizes at 4.30 o'clock and tea at five o'clock.

Andrew Jack, asked today regarding the prize list, said it was not yet made up.

RACES TONIGHT

After the last band at St. Andrew's Rollaway tonight there will be two races, both mile events. Hammerson and Chalker will skate first. Both men are fast, evenly matched and keen rivals. If Hammesrson wins, it is expected he will skate Merritt or Follis, as he has been heard to say so. After this race, McCaw and Wilson will skate, and as the public know both men to be fast and evenly matched, a good race can be looked for.

NEXT TIME THEY WILL BE PREPARED

Stories of Two Local Nimrods Whose Guns "Would Not Shoot" When the Time Came.

There are no doubt many good hunting stories that never find their way to the newspapers, either through the modesty of the hunters or perchance because of some mishap or mistake. Here is one that has leaked out, and it concerns a certain tea man and an insurance agent, both of this city. These two bold Nimrods started out to seek the lordly moose and bring him down, so that his head might adorn the wall as an evidence of their skill and marksmanship. The insurance man was armed with an army rifle, the mechanism of which he was not very well acquainted with, and after numerous vain attempts to set the hammer at safety, he had to give it up and decided to put the cartridge in just before he was ready to shoot. His companion of the tea trade was armed with a shot gun, with which partridge were to be annihilated.

In the course of time they arrived in sight of a moose, "it was the biggest ever," of course, and up went the gun, and bang, but only a snap was heard. The huntsman then realized that in his excitement at seeing the monster he had forgotten to put in a cartridge, and by the time this little matter was attended to the moose was "over the hills and far away." After tramping the woods for some time in the expectation of seeing another chance for a shot they returned home gameless.

Next time that man says he will borrow a better gun.

A story is also told of two well-known gentlemen, one a young lawyer and the other a medical man, who a few days ago went hunting ducks. The legal man was armed with a double-barrelled shot gun (borrowed from a friend), and when he came in sight of a flock of about a dozen wild duck he fired with no result, the other barrel, on being tried, resulted the same way, and investigation showed that the nippers on which the caps rested were broken off and the gun was useless. Like the moose hunter, this man vows he will examine his gun thoroughly next time before he starts out.

OFF TO NEW ORLEANS

F. A. Godsoe and LeB. Wilson on Their Way to Attend Biennial Convention Supreme Lodge Knights of Pythias.

Supreme Representatives F. A. Godsoe, M. D., and LeB. Wilson, of the grand lodge, Knights of Pythias of the maritime provinces, are now on their way to New Orleans, where the biennial convention of the Supreme Lodge opens on Monday next.

Dr. Godsoe, who is accompanied by Mrs. Godsoe, left Tuesday night, and Mr. Wilson got away this morning.

It is expected that there will be upwards of 15,000 or 20,000 knights at New Orleans on this occasion, as the biennial encampment of the Uniform Rank is held at the same time. A veritable tented white city has been arranged for with all the modern conveniences, and cash prizes amounting to $10,000 are offered for competitive drills, in infantry, three classes, $7,000; cavalry, $1,000, artillery, $700; distance, $600; largest company, $400; exemplification of ritual, $300.

It is altogether likely that the next meeting, in 1908, will be held in Boston, Mass. and if so a large number of knights from the maritime provinces will no doubt attend.

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS

Capt. N. Kelson of the Schooner Norman Stricken While at Sea.

A despatch was received this morning from Vineyard Haven by Captain Kilson, of the schooner R. Bowers, now in port, and lying at Magee's wharf, stating that his father, Captain N. Kilson, was stricken with a slight stroke of paralysis at sea while his vessel, the American schooner Norman, was on the voyage from Elizabethport to Boothbay with a load of coal. The Norman put into Vineyard Haven last Monday to land the sick captain, who was sent to the marine hospital at that place. Captain N. Kilson's family resides in Boston. For some time he was a resident of this city. He has been in the coasting trade for years.

R. C. Elkin, is the agent for the vessel at this port and he sent Captain William Hogan who left yesterday morning early by train for Vineyard Haven to take command of the vessel.

THE FISH MARKET

Very Poor Supply of Fresh Fish for Friday's Dinner.

Owing to the strong winds which have prevailed during the past few days, fishermen have had poor luck, and, contrary to expectations, the week's supply is likely to be slim. Several fishing schooners have been unable to venture out of port and those who observe the fast day will, for the most part, be obliged to supply their larders with dried or smoked fish, unless fresh supplies can be procured from other places in time.

The present price list is as follows: Halibut 5c., haddock and cod 5c., smelt 10c., mackerel 15 to 25c., pickerel 10c. and smoked and salted fish the same as usual.

THE SCARLET MYSTERIES

"The Scarlet Mysteries" who will visit St. John the week after next for 4 nights and matinee opened their tour of the world in St. John's, Nfld this week to a crowded house and made a tremendous hit. Their programme was an immense success and their costumes magnificent. This should be a great treat for the musical people of this city.
