The Funny Man's View Point.

BY RYAN WALKER.

HE HAD NEVER GIVEN UP A SEAT.

Lady Visitor—I notice that man hasn't taken his eyes off that paper since we've been here.

Keeper—No, he imagines that he's in a crowded street car.

ABSCONDED.

Hixon—Do you look on Holditite, cashier of the Hide and Seek Trust Company, as a coming man?

Dixon—Judging from the afternoon papers, I rather think he's a going man.

NEEDED THE MONEY.

Mrs. Cutemup—Why, you said only last week that it wouldn't be necessary for you to operate on Mr. Koyne for appendicitis.

Dr. Cutemup—I know; but when I said that I didn't think you'd need a new fall outfit.

NEVER GENEROUS.

Mrs. Hixon—Is that fiction you are reading?

Mr. Hixon—Must be. It is called "The Coalman's Generosity."

ABSCONDED.

Dusty—I saw one of dem Congressmen yisterday an' he looked at me jist like he could eat me.

Ruggles—Wonder what fur?

Dusty—Guess he wuz mad cause I rode free an' he had to pay.

NO DANGER.

Aunt Susan—I'm afraid them noo town clo'es o' yours ain't warm enough fer this cool spell.

Uncle Silas—That's all right. Every time I think what the feller charged me fer 'em I git hot!

FRESH OFFICIAL MUST APOLOGIZE

U. S. Immigration Official Asked Obnoxious Questions of Brazilian Ambassador.

New York, Nov. 15—Whether or not the ambassador of a friendly nation on arriving at New York to take up his duties in Washington must be compelled to inform the immigration inspectors whether he has ever been in prison or an alms house, an insane asylum or supported by charity or whether he is a polygamist or an anarchist, may be referred to the state department at Washington as a result of the refusal of Joaquin Nabuco, Brazilian ambassador, to answer the questions when he arrived here today from Liverpool. The immigration law requires aliens arriving at this port shall answer those and other questions.

The purser of the Baltic reported to the immigration inspectors that his manifest was incomplete owing to the ambassador's refusal. Immigration Inspector H. C. Marshall then endeavored to secure answers to the questions through Mr. Chermant, the secretary of the Brazilian embassy, who accompanied Mr. Nabuco. Mr. Nabuco again refused. He was then told that the German and British ambassadors had given the desired information when they arrived. What ensued is unknown, but the immigration inspector secured answers to the questions.

Concerning the incident Mr. Nabuco said:

"I answered every question which I believed would add to the necessary statistical information, but when it comes to asking questions regarding my beliefs and opinions, it is different. I am not a visitor to this country in the implied sense of the word. I am here as a representative of another power, as such I am to a certain extent the guest of this nation. This is the ground I take and for this reason alone I refused to answer certain questions. There is no friction over the affair, and I would like that nothing be said regarding it."

Washington, Nov. 15—Upon being officially informed of the circumstances attending the landing of the Brazilian ambassador, Senor Nabuco, in New York harbor brought about by his refusal to answer certain questions, Secretary Root promptly communicated with the department of commerce and labor, and requested that the necessary instructions be telegraphed to the collector at New York to immediately extend the courtesies of the port to the ambassador and his secretary.

It is probable an apology also will be offered to the ambassador and a severe admonition given to the immigration officials responsible for the indignity.

SUSSEX NEWS

SUSSEX, Nov. 16—A. E. Vessey the manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia here has resigned and in a few days will permanently sever his connection with the institution. The news of his resignation comes as a great surprise to the people of Sussex. He will be succeeded by Mr. Johnstone, of Toronto, who will take charge today the many warm friends of Mr. Vessey will deeply regret his departure from Sussex. Mr. Vessey succeeded R. B. Rossborough when the latter was transferred to London, Ont., in February last. It is not definitely known what Mr. Vessey's plans are at present, but he intends leaving Sussex the first of the week. Mr. Johnstone, who succeeds Mr. Vessey, has been here in the Sussex branch as junior.

The old firm of J. A. Humphrey & Co. have sold their business to W. H. Culbert and M. Scott, of this place The new firm of Culbert and Scott purpose carrying on a general dry goods and grocery business.

SMELTER FOR COBALT

COBALT, Nov. 14—With the prospect of ore being shipped out of this region at the rate of four or five tons per day for many months hence, the necessity for a smelter somewhere nearer than New Jersey becomes more and more emphasized. At the present time nearly all the ore produced from the Cobalt mines is shipped to New Jersey, where the silver, nickel, and other metals are separated from the dross. Smelting machinery and plant, as required in the treatment of Cobalt ore, is a most expensive incidental, and capitalists have hesitated to invest their money in smelting enterprises until the camp was more assured of being a fixture.

Professor Wm. E. Hidden, of the extensive and wealth-producing Nipissing interests, has been in New Jersey for a week, and it is understood here that the object of his trip is connected with the construction and equipment of a smelter somewhere near Cobalt. The shipments of the Nipissing mines alone would almost warrant the establishment of such an enterprise.

MINING BOOMS

Recent incidents in the mining share boom have been called sensational. There have been some extraordinary movements. Philadelphia has its Mohawk, New York has its Nipissing, Boston has its Coppers. A great many lesser things have done stunts worthy of the traditions of what a mining stock boom should bring forth, but all this must seem tame and prosaic to those who can compare it with the mining stock speculation on the San Francisco exchange in the sixties and seventies. It was not unknown in those days for stocks to go from nothing to $1,000 a share and back again in a few years. In these days it is necessary for a man with a good mining proposition to hawk it on the New York curb market.

He began by saying that he did not wish to be like the disputatious church beadle who, when St. Paul was quoted, remarked, "Oh, but that's whaur Paul and me differ."
