THE MONTREAL STOCK MARKET

Great Activity and Higher Values Ruled Last Week--Some Features.

(Montreal Witness)

Great activity and highervalues again marked the week on the local stock markets. Montreal Street has demonstrated once more its strength in public appreciation by making another twelve points advance since a week ago today. The stock has now had a rise of twenty-three points during the month of January. Opinion is solid in favor of this stock, owing to the fine traffic returns. The stock has paid a ten per cent dividend for seven or eight years, and the increases in gross and net earnings, have been on a very large scale indeed, so that it does not require a great stretch of imagination to look forward to a stock bonus; expectation of which in a measure accounts for the advances that have taken place. Toronto Railway has kept pace with the best of them, in the race towards higher values, and this stock made as high as 115 during the week, on some very heavy business. There are many rumors about the stock, and it is no easy matter to follow the flow of news for and against it. The earnings have, like the Montreal traction, been highly satisfactory, and there is every reason to expect even further development. The growth of Toronto has been remarkable, and although it has a much smaller population than Montreal, the street railway earnings have little difficulty in holding their own with ours. Toronto Railway has advanced about ten points since last Friday. Detroit was embraced in the boom movement, and made 98, during the week, selling ex dividend.

There has been a growing public interest in the Laurentide paper stocks, both comon and preferred being taken up in a remarkably manner. The common is now selling around 114½. There has been some scattered business in bank issues all the week, and values in that respect were very well held. Illinois Traction was higher and more active during the week, although not yet listed. Sales were made at 95 3-4 and 96, and quite a few shares came out at the advance. There are several well known industrial stocks that have been quite ignored during the present boom, Lake of the Woods common and preferred; Ogilvie preferred, Montreal Cotton, Montreal Steel, common and preferred, and several other stocks that represent companies which are showing great enterprise.

IRON AND STEEL

Both Dominion and Nova Scotia Steel issues are holding their own. The Canadian iron and steel companies apparently have much work ahead. It is estimated that during 1906 our railways alone will require 100,000 tons of bridge material, while 1,500,000 or 2,000,000 tons of steel rails will be needed for re-tracking and new construction work during the next four or five years. Such companies as the Dominion Steel Company, the Nova Scotia Steel Company, the Lake Superior Corporation, and the Canada Foundry (General Electric) should benefit.

HEAVY STOCK SALES

(Montreal Star, Friday.)

Transactions in Wall street since the first of the year, including Thursday's business, have amounted to approximately 30,000,000 shares, as compared with less than 16,000,000 shares for the corresponding period of last year. Inversely the transactions in bonds since the first of the year have been nearly 25 per cent. lighter than in the corresponding time of last year. The distinguishing feature of this market is its sustained activity. There has been no period of supreme activity such as commonly marks the culmination of a continued rise in prices. Prices, however, have become subject to wide fluctuations, which is always the case when the level is high. It is only the peaks that are jagged.

ONTARIO SUGA R

TORONTO, Jan. 26.—"The production of beet sugar in Ontario this year from the two factories will keep in the province nearly $1,000,000, which otherwise would have gone out for foreign sugar," said D. A. Gordon, M. P., president of the Wallaceburg Sugar Co., yesterday.

Mr. Gordon's factory, which has completed its season's run, made 12,250,000 pounds of sugar, to produce which required 53,000 tons of beets. The production of that factory in 1904 was only 7,200,000 pounds.

ANALYSIS OF MARKET

(New York Times.)

"You can't begin to compare this market with the market of the beginning of 1901," said an operator, who has been very successful in following the rise. "It is as different as chalk from cheese, although it may look the same to some people. It has no rag-tag and bobtail element in it, and there are the most encouraging little reactions right along to keep it steady and check little people from thinking they are big people and acting like millionaires."

C. N. R. EARNINGS

The Canadian Northern Railway gross earnings for the week ending Jan. 21, 1906, were $84,000, and for the corresponding period last year were $64,300, an increase of $20,100. From July 1 to date the earnings were $2,942,300, as against $2,282,000 for the same period last year, an increase of $660,300.

The officers of Court Log Cabin, I. O. F., were installed last evening by D. G. Lingley, H. C. R., assisted by J. A. Brooks, H. V. C. R.; Benj. Logan, H. Sec.; Brigadier E. J. Todd and Capt. O. A. Mabee with a guard of Royal Foresters in uniform. The list of officers has already been published. After installation there were speeches by Robt. Maxwell, M. P. P., Capt. Pratt, Dr. D. E. Berryman, Chief Ranger Scovil of Court La Tour, and the new officers.

PROHIBITION

CHARLOTTETOWN, Jan. 25—For some time past the temperance people of Prince County have been agitating for a repeal of the Scott Act, in order that prohibition may be introduced in its stead, as the present prohibition law now in force in Charlottetown has a clause whereby it will automatically take effect in any other part of the Island as soon as the Scott Act now in force there will be repealed. The change is asked for in order that a more-up-to-date law may take the place of the Scott Act, with severer penalties against violators, and better machinery for its enforcement throughout the province. The prohibitory law is not a mere permissive measure, as the Scott Act is, subject to the changes of local public caprice, and liable to be revoked after three years' trial, for once brought into force it would remain a law of the land, unchangeable except by the act of the legislatures.

The Scott Act has done great educational work in the rural districts of the province in preparing the people for prohibition, and the search warrant clause in the new law gives all the required facilities for the inspection of suspected premises. In response to the wishes of the temperance people, the Dominion Government has granted a plebiscite, which will be taken on February 1st, at Summerside, and campaign meetings are being held over the county, and the temperance workers are entering enthusiastically into the struggle. The liquor men on the other hand are not desirous of a change. It is understood that the dealers in Summerside and the mainland are taking a deep interest in the matter, and will strenuously oppose repeal, as they have a wholesome dread of the prohibition law, owing to the effective work it has done in closing up the liquor dens in Charlottetown. Perhaps the most effective temperance organization in this province is the Grand Division, Sons of Temperance. At a quarterly meeting of this body, held last week, the Grand Worthy Patriarch, Reverend A. D. McDonald, spoke as follows, in urging the repeal of the Scott Act in Prince County:

"The great practical issue now before us, as temperance workers, is the election for the repeal of the Scott Act in Prince County, which takes place on February 1st. The Grand Division enthusiastically joins with the temperance forces in Prince County, and heartily volunteers the fullest support and co-operation; at the same time, congratulating the Alliance upon the spirit with which they have opened the campaign. Already some 700 circulars and 300 copies of the Prohibition Act have been distributed, and many public meetings held throughout the county. We would particularly urge that every good temperance vote be polled, as a good deal will depend upon the size of the majority. Let every division throughous the country, and every individual member of our order, go into the campaign with the spirit and determination which wins success."

Mr. McDonald declares that the Prohibition Law is working admirably in Charlottetown. During the Christmas season the absence of drink was particularly noticeable, although the city was thronged with people. The business of the police court has greatly decreased, and that prohibition prohibits is strikingly obvious. From other provinces come requests for copies of the law, and information concerning the methods of enforcement.

At a meeting of the National Division, held at Asbury Park, N. J., the Most Worthy Patriarch, Burgoyne, said, "that the most notable achievement in the whole continent had been in Prince Edward Island, where a prohibitory law has not only been enacted, but amended so as to be thoroughly workable."

Premier Scott of the new province of Saskatchewan, writes the G. W. P. as follows: "I note your reference to the subject of temperance legislation, and assure you our government will give serious consideration to measures and methods intended to lesson the evils of the drinking traffic."

Mr. McDonald said, "That the general outlook for the temperance cause was never brighter or more hopeful. As a result of the wide dissemination of knowledge and the special activity and effort on the part of Christian workers in setting before the public, through the medium of the pulpit, press and platform, the real facts regarding the liquor traffic as the cause of widespread suffering, crime and poverty, and destruction of life, there seems to be a general revival of knowledge in the cause of temperance, and awakening to a deeper sense of the danger that threatens the nation. Encouraged by the example of Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick are organizing their forces and preparing for an advancement in the direction of prohibition."

It is expected that a large vote will be polled on Feb. 1st, although no other election is taking place at the same time.

SKATING

Big Night's Fun at the "Vic" Tomorrow.

Tomorrow evening the bluecoats will assemble at the Victoria and there battle for the magnificent prizes that are at present on exhibition at Coady's shoe store.

To say that there will be fun galore at the "Vic," tomorrow night is but a mild form of putting it, for the cops always draw a crowd, who go to see them perform on the steel blades with the object to "laugh and grow fat."

Ira and Silas Perry, the old rivals, will be seen once more cutting the blocks in their efforts to defeat each other, and this year it is hardly safe to bet on either one.

"Bob" Crawford was given a big scare on Friday night, when he learned that a dark horse was entered in the snowshoe race, and forthwith, with his snowshoes strapped on his back, the burly boy sauntered off to Lily Lake Saturday afternoon, where he trained for some time.

An effort is being made to get Detective Killen and Deputy Chief Jenkins to skate an exhibition five mile race, to start at eleven o'clock, so that the spectators can go to their homes and return and witness the finish Wednesday morning.

"Come one, come all," is the invitation extended by the cops to the public.
