A SAD TRAGEDY IN CAPE BRETON

Six Men Drowned Yesterday off Cranberry Head--They Were After Lobsters.

NORTH SYDNEY, June 4—Six men were drowned off Cranberry Head early yesterday morning. They were Daniel McMullin, of Reserve Mines; Harry and Alexander Wilsonholme (brothers), John Fifefoot, Roderick McNeil and Michael McPhee, the last five belonging to Sydney Mines.

The two Wilsonholmes, McNeil and McMullin were drinking together Saturday night and afterwards conspired to rob lobster traps off Cranberry Head. They located Fifefoot and McPhee and induced them to join the party. Fifefoot secured a boat and the party started for the traps. When the men did not return search was made for them. The lifeless body of Harry Wilsonholme was found lying on the shore at Cranberry Head, McPhee's body was found fifty yards away near the upturned boat. The only traces found of the other four men were Fifefoot's coat and hat, McNeil's coat and McMullin's hat which were found in the landwash. The other bodies had not been recovered up to nine o'clock last night. It is not known how the accident occurred.

Of the victims of the unfortunate accident three were married. Fifefoot leaves a wife and two children and McNeil a wife and three children, and McPhee a wife and two children. The Wilsonholmes whose ages were 22 and 21 years, were the only sons of a widowed mother, their father having been killed in the pit a few years ago. McMullin leaves a mother residing at Reserve Mines. All the men were employed at No. 1 Colliery.

Director Cushing's Salary and Several Other Matters Under Consideration.

The regular monthly meeting of the common council is being held in the court house this afternoon and the reports of the various boards are being dealt with. Director Cushing's communication to the effect that his resignation will take effect tomorrow, unless some action is taken, is one of the matters to be considered and it seems likely that Mr. Cushing's services will be dispensed with. The west side wharf matters will receive attention and probably also the matter of amalgamating the various heads of departments.

MYSTERIOUS ROBBERIES

A large number of robberies have been reported to the police of late, and the latter have been kept busy endeavoring to bring the offenders to justice.

About a week ago the carriage factory conducted by James R. Andrews was broken into and nearly all the valuable tools in the factory were taken by the robbers.

The police having been notified of the breaking and entering, Detective Killen set to work and soon located a large number of the missing instruments in Gilbert's second-hand store on Dock street. The detective took the tools and returned them to the rightful owner and the Hebrew is out his money.

Naturally the Jew was very much disappointed over the outcome of his purchase, and he gave the detective an excellent description of the man that sold him the stolen instruments.

Mr. Andrews' daughter got on an electric car on Saturday afternoon at Douglas avenue, and came to the city. When she got off at Duke street she missed her gold watch. A search was made of the car, but no trace of the missing article could be found. The police have been notified.

OBITUARY

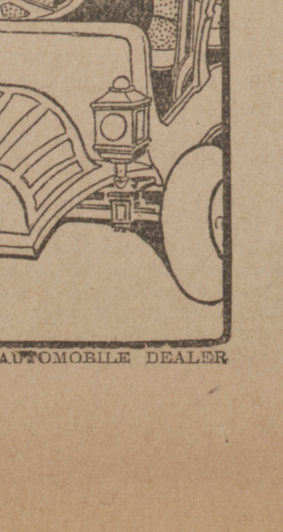

A. A. MacMichael

Alexander A. Macmichael, vice-president and general-manager of the James Robertson Co. died suddenly in Toronto on Saturday last. He was at one time stationed in St. John, where his death will be much regretted in business circles. In 1878 Mr. Macmichael opened the St. John branch, and successfully occupied the position of manager until he removed to the west in 1883. He visited St. John on several occasions since then, the last time being a few years ago when on his way home from England. Mr. Macmichael was of a genial and hearty disposition, and possessed a fine character which won the esteem of all who knew him.

John Keeffe, who has been manager of the company's business here since 1902, received a despatch Saturday evening notifying him of Mr. Macmichael's death. Referring to the sad event yesterday, Mr. Keeffe spoke in feeling terms of the loss Mr. Macmichael's confreres and many friends had sustained. The funeral, he said, would take place in Toronto tomorrow and he much regretted that the impossibility of making connections would prevent him from being present to pay his respects to the memory of the deceased.

THE STORY OF CLASSIFIED TOWN

THE AUTOMOBILE DEALER

CHAPTER III.

This is the man of great motive power;
In Classified Town he's the man of the hour.
He knows the merits of every machine,
From the light runabout, to the big gasoline.

As he tours the way to fortune and fame,
The notes of his horn his coming proclaim,
The public's attention he has every day,
For he blows his horn in the classified way.

Times wants with ease win the race;
For every competitor they set the pace.
"No matter," said he, "what you may have to sell,
A Times ad will the great public tell."
