THE SESSION CLOSED

The Presbyterian W. F. M. S. has Finished its Business --- Will Meet in Charlotte County Next Year.

The Presbyterial annual meeting was brought to a close yesterday afternoon, after a very successful series of meetings.

At the beginning of the afternoon session Mrs. Ross referred briefly to the death of Mrs. Frank Rankine of Woodstock.

A very clever paper on "The Flood of the Foreign Born," prepared and read by Mrs. E. A. Smith was among the best heard during the meetings.

A paper on Home Missions at Our Doors, by Mrs. John H. Thomson was interesting and instructive, and was listened to with close attention. The paper was discussed briefly after which the following resolutions were made:

"That the president of the society shall be elected annually by ballot at the general meeting of the W. F. M. A. and that the Presbyterial may exercise the privilege of nominating a member of its own or any other Presbyterial, for president's chair, which nomination shall be reported to the home corresponding secretary ten days previous to the date of the annual meeting.

"Nomination of candidates may also be made by any member present at the annual meeting. A nominating committee shall be appointed at each annual meeting to nominate standing committees and a list of officers other than the president, their report to be submitted to and voted upon at the following annual meeting."

"That the secretary be instructed to write a very warm appeal to all auxiliaries to do something over and above what they are now doing toward educating young men for them inistry."

The following officers were elected:

President—Mrs. Hunter Boyd, Waweigh, Charlotte county.

Vice-president—Mrs. L. A. McLean, St. John.

Secretary—Miss Crilly, St. Stephen

Treasurer—Mrs. McFarland, Fredericton.

Secretary of Y. P. W.—Mrs. Baird, Sussex.

County vice-presidents—Mrs. J. K. Laflin, Charlotte; Mrs. King, Kent; Mrs. J. H. Dickson, York; Mrs. J. Murray, Kings; Mrs. Morrison, St. John; Mrs. Semple, Queens; Mrs. Dalling, Carleton; Mrs. Pringle, Victoria; Mrs. Bain, Westmorland and Albert.

Mrs. T. G. Loggie, auditor.

Mrs. J. H. Thomson, field secretary.

Mrs. Laflin invited the Presbyterial to meet next year in Charlotte county.

The annual Presbyterial meeting then closed. The next annual meeting will be held in St. Stephen in June, 1907.

CABINET CHANGES

It is Reported They Will be Made this Week---Western Land Debate Continued.

OTTAWA, May 31—It is understood that the shift in the cabinet will be made this week, and in this connection it is understood that Hon. Charles Fitzpatrick will succeed Sir Elzear Taschereau as chief justice, Hon. A. B. Aylesworth will become minister of justice, and Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux will become postmaster general. It has not been decided who will be solicitor general, although several names are mentioned.

The debate on Dominion lands was continued by Mr. Lake, of Qu 'Appelle, who was followed by Mr. Sifton, who vigorously defended his administration of the interior department. He said his policy had never been to sell the lands for the highest price, but rather to settle the land as he believed that was the best policy to promote prosperity of the country. Referring to the administration by the Conservatives he said they had given the lands away. Mr. Sifton was followed by Mr. Foster, who said the Liberal ministers of the interior claimed much for themselves and little for Providence. If the Conservatives disposed of 30,000,000 acres of land there was 2,000 miles of C. P. R. to show for it, but the Liberals had no line to show for the 2,000,000 acres they had alienated.

Mr. Foster went over the sale to the Saskatchewan Land Co. and said while the Liberals had used secret methods the Conservatives had acted openly in their transactions. The grazing rights and timber grants involved transactions which alone warranted the investigation asked for.

Mr. Turriff adjourned the debate.

THE WHITE CASE

Crown Case Closed and Defence Opened at Last Evening's Session.

The crown concluded last night its case against Harry B. White, who is charged with forgery.

At the beginning of the session Judge Forbes stated that Geo. E. Price had explained to him that the reason he had been absent was because he had met with an accident. Mr. Price, one of the branch agents of the company, was called and testified that he had not authorized the signing of his name to the orders produced in court.

Mr. McKeown moved that the charge be dismissed on the ground that no corroborative evidence had been adduced of the commission of the crime. The motion was not granted, but the point as to the making being corroborated was reserved.

Mr. McKeown in opening then delivered an eloquent address. In part he stated that when White took charge of the company's cash there had accumulated back orders to about $5,000. The money which White sent forward in back orders would be shown to be fully as great as the deficiency now claimed.

Mr. McKeown stated it would be shown that White did not take one dollar of the company's money, but in each particular the orders were made to assist the company.

Counsel for the defense said that the object of the company was to throw all the responsibility upon his client's shoulders. Mr. McKeown said that everyone was behind from the manager to the teamster.

Christopher White, father of the prisoner, told that he had advised his son to go away when he did on account of ill-health.

Harry B. White, sworn, said that the company was in such straits when he took the office of cashier that he frequently worked until three o'clock in the morning, and went back at five o'clock. The defendant said that he left the statement sheet spoken of by Stephen A. Payne, in the safe. The witness said that Mr. Payne left $100 in bills and $200 in silver with him.

The witness showed that eight different entries in his reports of the 9th and 10th of January, showing a total of $1,181.34 he had forwarded to the company on those dates. The case was then adjourned until this morning.

THE GUTHRO CASE

Taken Up Again in County Court with a New Jury.

Joseph Guthro, charged with theft, was yesterday afternoon given a second trial before Judge Forbes and acquitted.

On Wednesday the jury stood 9 to 3 for conviction but yesterday Hon. H. A. McKeown appeared for the prisoner and he was acquitted.

Both Mr. McKeown and the Solicitor-General made remarkably fine addresses to the jury. The former claimed that no one had said that the prisoner was guilty and that it was all circumstantial evidence.

The judge charged strongly against the prisoner.

THE STORY OF CLASSIFIED TOWN

THE MAYOR.

CHAPTER I.

We are off on a tour of Classified Town;
Across the city and up and down.
We will be a merry touring throng,
And invite you all to come along.

The mayor bids us welcome, "I'm happy," says he,
"To extend our best wishes and give you the key
To the gates of the city, and also I'll say,
That 'nought but the best shall be yours every day."

What happened in Classified Town you will learn,
If the paper to this page each day you turn.
It will prove quite instructive and take little time,
And to add to the interest it's all told in rhyme.

(To be continued tomorrow.)
