A GALA DAY IN FREDERICTON

FREDERICTON, July 2—This was a gala day in Fredericton. The weather was gloriously fine, flags and bunting were in evidence everywhere and the city was thronged with visitors. Special trains arrived all through the morning bringing visitors from various provincial points. The 62nd Fusiliers regiment arrived at 10.30 and a grand review was held on Officers' Square. The regiment trooped the colors and this manoeuvre was followed by a feu de joie and march past in column.

The firemen's parade was the biggest event of the day. It started at noon and and paraded the principal streets. The oreder of procession was as follows:

Barouches containing Mayor McNally, Ald. McGoldrick, representing the mayor of St. John; Alds. Hooper, Well, Moore, Hanlon, Doherty, Everett, Kelly and Colter, Warden Timmins, Fire Inspector Ross, Chief Tattersall, Wood Ross, assistant chief Moncton fire department, and City Marshal Roberts, City Cornet Band, Chief Kerr in decorated carriage, St. John hose companies and No. 1 salvage corps with decorated carriage, Chief Stewart and Truro firemen, Assistant Chief Quigley and Amherst firemen, Capt. Sweet and Fairville firemen, Houlton Brass Band, Chief Webber and Houlton firemen, St. John salvage corps No. 2 with decorated cart, Capt. Watson and Sussex firemen, Chief Fitzpatrick and Chatham firemen, Chief Ingram and Newcastle firemen, Chief Rutter and Assistant Chief Clark of Fredericton, in decorated carriage, Fredericton brass band, Fredericton firemen with decorated hose cart and hook and ladder truck, sixteen boys in white drawing a racing hose cart.

The St. John fire department showed up the strongest in parade and certainly made a very fine appearance, although the other contingents all did themselves credit. The parade did not halt at the esplanade but proceeded to the barracks, where it disbanded. From the balcony overlooking the square Mayor McNally made a brief speech, in which he extended a cordial welcome to the visitors, particularly the firemen and fusiliers. He announced that the freedom of the city was theirs and to emphasize his words he presented Ald. McGoldrick with a mammoth key in trust for the visitors.

Ald. McGoldrick briefly addressed the gathering. He said he was proud of the good showing made by the St. John firemen and he was sure his fellow citizens would share in that pride. He also paid a graceful compliment to the Houlton delegation and was heartily applauded at the conclusion of his remarks.

The firemen's sports at the Driving park this afternoon attracted a crowd of about 1,500 spectators. The sports were well contested, but proved rather unsatisfactory from a spectator's standpoint.

The honors of the day were carried off by Sussex, which won three of the big events and the substantial sum of $275 in prizes.

Only a few of the St. John firemen competed and they failed to make a very good showing.

Sussex won the quarter-mile hose reel race, hose coupling contest, also ladder and relay races. The Fairville team gave them a very close run in several of the competitions. Following is the summary:

"TWO TWITLS OF TERROR."

This is the Startling Title of Barnum and Bailey's New Bicycle Thriller.

In its search for sensational novelties, the Barnum & Bailey circus management seems to have surpassed all previous records this year. Instead of one "thriller" of an ultra-sensational character, several are announced, in addition to what is declared to be the best all-round circus that this big arenic organization has ever offered the American public.

One of the newest sensations—and one that seems to have created a great deal of interest in other cities where the big show has been seen this season—is known as the "Two Twirls of Terror." A description of the two climaxes in this startling act discloses some unusually interesting features. After performing a number of novel and unusual exploits upon their wheels, one of the Boller Brothers—the daring bicyclists who perform the "twirls"—takes his station, mounted on a wheel, on a small platform at the higher end of a runway. When the signal is given, the rider and wheel plunge down the runway, dart into the air, turn a complete aerial somersault, land on a second runway, and go speeding down to the ground. This, however, is not all. The other brother takes a position, mounted, at the end of a teeterboard, thus depressing it. The first rider ascends to the apex of a high pedestal, placed over the other end of the see-saw. When all is ready rider and bicycle drop with terrific force upon the near end of the teeterboard, sending the other bicyclist flying into the air. The latter also turns a somersault and, landing safely, speeds down the track. Both exploits are sensational in the extreme, and the furore they create is tremendous.

Another of the year's sensations is known as "The Dip of Death." This is said to be an even more ambitious performance than the "Twirls of Terror," and, as one New York paper recently expressed it, "it is doubtful if human ingenuity and daring can go further in devising acts that combine human and mechanical cleverness, with a danger that just escapes being tragic." In the "Dip of Death" a young and pretty American girl daringly rides forty feet through the air in an inverted automobile. The act is thrilling in the extreme.

The Aerial Tremplin presented by the Steves Troupe, the Imperial Viennese Troupe of Aerialists, the Florenz and Grunatho families of acrobats; Josie Demott, the only lady somersault rider; a new "Peace" spectacle; all kinds of trained animal acts, and enlarged menagerie, and many other incidental divertisements are promised for the big show when it exhibits here on July 20th.

PLANNING A PICNIC

An excellent way to get all the enjoyment possible out of a holiday is to go for a day's outing into the country. Aside from the blessed escape from the heat and dust of the city, the nerve-racking noise and all pervading smell of powder, it is good for both body and mind to get out into nature's world and touch hands for awhile with the simple life.

Picnics have always been dear to the childish heart, and holiday picnics, when everybody in the family is at liberty to join the party are by far and away the most delightful of all. Unless the chosen destination is in the midst of the woods, there is no reason why the children should not take with them a few bunches of firecrackers, so that they may celebrate in orthodox fashion.

The real problem of the day however, is the provisioning of that all-important accessory, the lunch box. A person is never so hungry as when miles away from any eating place. When the trip is to be made in a carriage or automobile, luncheon for the entire party can be packed in a box or hamper. But if the journey is by rail and there is much walking to be done to and from the cars, this is seldom practicable.

In the latter case the difficulty is sometimes met by each person carrying his or her luncheon in a small box, trusting to a beneficent Providence to supply liquid refreshments from a nearby spring or well. This method is not generally satisfactory, as food does not keep fresh and palatable when packed in small compass. Moreover, it is neither agreeable nor safe to depend for drink on water of doubtful purity. The best plan is to take everything that will be needed.

The new automobile luncheon baskets contain virtually everything in the way of picnic appointments, but they are somewhat too expensive for the average picnic party. An efficient substitute, however, is the
