WEARY WITH THEIR INCOME.

Mrs. John D. Rockefeller shrinks even more from personal notoriety than her husband. Although she might easily spend $5,000 a day if she chose, Mrs. Rockefeller does not spend $50, and says that even to do that is a burden to her, says a Philadelphia newspaper.

She can't understand what in the world anybody should want with so much money as her husband possesses.

"Every wish I have in life could be gratified with a forune of $100,000," she once said. "I don't care for more than $100,000. Anything above that is merely a trouble and an annoyance."

Mrs. Rockefeller never goes to a theatre, never rides in an automobile or plays golf, or cards, or tennis. She has given up trying to spend her income, and says wearily, "Take it away. Don't bother me with it."

THAT OVER WORKED, PLAYED OUT FEELING AMONG WOMEN

There are thousands of females all over our land who are broken down in health and dragging out a miserable existence, overburdened with diseases peculiar to their sex, apparently growing old while yet young. Often they have pale or sallow complexion, hollow, sunken eyes, with a lifeless look; the face has a pinched and haggard appearance; they are weak, weary and trembling, often extremely nervous, starting at every little noise. Many are low-spirited, and some are fretful. Some are apparently bloodless, with cold hands and feet, while others are flushed by an unequal circulation of the blood, dizziness, and sometimes dimness of vision, loss of memory, and often loss of appetite and sleep, and are wearied with terrible dreams.

Palpitation of the heart, nervous prostration, smothering and sinking spells, shortness of breath and the sensation of pins and needles are all indications of a weakened condition of the heart or nervous system, and should any of them be present we would strongly advise the use of

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

They bring health to the broken down, energy to the weakened constitution, tone up the tired, overstrained nerves, and strengthen the weak heart.

Mrs. Edward Jackson, Hall's Bridge, Ont., writes: "For a year I was greatly troubled with nervousness and loss of appetite, and could neither sleep nor eat. After taking a few boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I was completely cured and can recommend them to all sufferers."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25, all dealers or The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

CHAPTER XVIII.

THE STENOGRAPHER

The lady of letters today is our theme;
She'll fill a page or write a ream.
She can be dictated to all the day
And takes silent note of just what you say.

She is writing a letter—a short one to you—
It won't take a moment to read the note through:
"Dear Friend," so she writes, "I really can't see
Why anyone out of employment should be.

"Stenographers, office help, boys and cashiers;
Beginners and those with experience of years.
Can the best of employment quickly secure,
From Times want ads; of this I am sure."
(To be continued tomorrow.)
